CHAPTER I.

EXPLANATION OF THE SYSTEM OF REGISTRATION.

This report, the thirteenth of a series published by the Government of Bengal since the year 1876-77, deals with the trade registered on the rivers and canals of the Lower Provinces of Bengal, with the inland trade of Calcutta, and with the trade, inland and sea-borne, of Chittagong and the Orissa ports. It is based on the returns and reports noted on the margin.

1. Fortnightly return of traffic carried by country-boats along the Bhagiruthee, the Jellinghee, and the Matabhanga, commonly called the Nuddea rivers.
2. Fortnightly returns of traffic carried by country-boats on the Midnapore, Hidgellee, and Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.
3. Fortnightly returns of traffic carried to, and from, Calcutta by country-boats and carts registered at a cordon of 25 stations around Calcutta and Howrah.
4. Monthly statements of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company.
5. Quarterly statements of traffic carried on the Megna river by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal State Railway.
6. Monthly statements of traffic carried along the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, the Jellinghee, and the Hooghly rivers to and from Calcutta, by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Calcutta Steam Navigation Company.
7. Quarterly statements of traffic carried by country-boats between Bengal and Assam registered at Bhoyrub bazar on the Megna river, and at Dhubri on the Brahmaputra.
8. Monthly and quarterly returns of traffic carried to, and from, Calcutta by the East Indian Railway, the Eastern Bengal State Railway, and connected lines.
9. Annual statements of the sea-borne trade of Calcutta.
10. Annual statements of the inland and sea-borne trade of Chittagong.
11. Annual statements of the sea-borne trade of Balasore, Pooree, and Cuttack.
12. Quarterly, half-yearly, and annual statements showing the wholesale prices per maund of all articles of trade received from 12 selected district officers, and also from the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, and the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces.
13. General Administration Reports submitted to Government by Commissioners of Divisions.
14. Special reports on trade submitted to Government by district officers.
15. Annual statement of the sea-borne trade and navigation of the Bengal Presidency published by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta.
16. Annual Report by the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, on the administration of the Salt Department.
17. Special reports submitted to Government by the local officers on the condition of the trade on the Nuddea rivers, the Calcutta, Midnapore, Hidgellee, and the Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.

Statistics relative to the rail-borne traffic of these provinces since 1884-85 are reviewed in a separate report entitled the "Report on the Rail-borne Traffic of Bengal." That report, besides furnishing an account of the rail-borne trade, internal and external, under the block system of registration, gives also statistics of the total traffic carried by the State Railways in these provinces, but the present compilation takes no account of rail-borne traffic except in Chapter X, which deals with the trade of Calcutta.

2. During the year under report, no change was made in the system under which the internal trade of the province is registered on some of the rivers and canals, and the mode of registration of the trade of Calcutta, Chittagong, and the Orissa ports also remained unaltered.

Trade along the chief routes.

3. The statistics which are furnished in Chapters II to IX of this report include—

The boat traffic registered on the Nuddea rivers.
The boat and steamer traffic registered on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers.
The steamer traffic on the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, the Jellinghee, and the Hooghly rivers.
The boat traffic registered on the Midnapore and Hidgellee canals.
The boat traffic registered on the Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.
The boat traffic registered on the Calcutta canals.

4. The boat traffic on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers, which crosses from Bengal into Assam and vice versâ, is registered at Bhoyrub Bazar and Dhubri under arrangements made by the Assam Administration, and the figures thus obtained have, as usual, been incorporated with the statistics now submitted. The boat traffic on these rivers, which does not cross from one province to another, is unregistered. The steamers plying on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers between Bengal and Assam belong to the India General Steam Navigation Company, the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, and the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

The steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company continued to ply on the Ganges between Calcutta and the North-Western Provinces during the year under report. No steps have yet been taken to register the intermediate trade; but, in order to render the statistics of the trade of Calcutta as complete as possible, particulars of the traffic carried by these steamers to and from Calcutta since 1886-87 have been regularly obtained from the steamer offices, and statistics for those years are embodied in this report.

The steamers of the Calcutta Steam Navigation Company run between Calcutta and marts in the Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Nuddea, and Moorshedabad districts, and statistics of this trade also for the past three years have been obtained by Government from the records of the Company, and are published in this report.

The acknowledgments of the Lieutenant-Governor are again due to the Agents of all the Companies above named, for the courtesy with which they have invariably permitted their trade statistics to be used by Government.

Trade of large towns and commercial centres.

5. The inland trade of Calcutta, and the inland and sea-borne trade of Chittagong and of the Orissa ports, is described separately in Chapters X to XII. The entire inland traffic of Calcutta, imports as well as exports, carried by rail, by river steamer, by boat, and by road, is shown in this report. Comparative figures relating to the sea-borne trade of Calcutta in all the articles enumerated in the returns of internal trade are also given, but the sea-borne trade of Calcutta, coasting and foreign, is more fully dealt with in the annual report of the sea-borne trade and navigation of the Bengal Presidency published by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta. As regards the chief staples, the details furnished show how the imports into Calcutta by sea are distributed over the country, and from what parts of India the goods exported by sea came. The boat and road traffic of Calcutta is registered by means of a cordon of registering stations, 25 in number, placed on the Hooghly and on the canals and roads around Calcutta and the suburbs and Howrah. For Chittagong, the returns exhibit the sea-borne trade, foreign and coasting, as well as that carried by country boats, while for the Orissa ports, the sea-borne trade only is registered.

Classification of commodities.

6. The classification of trade articles followed in this report is that which was prescribed in the revised list referred to in paragraph 6 of the last report, and is in accord with the classification list which is adopted for the registration of the rail-borne trade of India.

7. For the year 1888-89, the values of all the articles of trade specified in the valuation statement appended have been assigned according to the revised system explained in the previous year's report, i.e., Valuation of commodities.

(1) For the following articles of European merchandise exported inland, the value rates have been obtained from the Calcutta Custom House invoices :—

(2) For the other articles enumerated in the classification list, with the exception of those mentioned below, the value rates have been fixed on the basis of local prices from selected districts, and of prices prevailing in the chief markets :—

(3) In the case of opium and other intoxicating drugs and chemicals, the actual cost of the articles as manufactured for Government or the trade, as the case may be, has been obtained from the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces and adopted.

(4) For articles included under the sub-head "Others," value rates have been ascertained once for all and standard rates adopted.

In the trade returns for all articles of import into Calcutta from British Provinces, the value rates of the exporting provinces have been taken, while in the case of exports from Calcutta, the value rates have been assigned according to the valuation statement mentioned above, which has also been adopted in the valuation of the internal trade, import and export, of the Lower Provinces of Bengal.

CHAPTER II.

GENERAL SUMMARY OF THE SEASONS AND RESULTS OF THE HARVESTS AND NOTICE OF PRICES.

General summary of the season.

The total rainfall during the year was ample everywhere, except in the northern districts of the Patna Division, in parts of the Orissa Division, and in the Rajshahye Division, where it was considerably below the average. The weather was not, however, on the whole, favourable to agriculture, as the rain was unfavourably distributed, being deficient at sowing time, excessive during July and August, and stopping early.

In the northern districts of the Patna Division, and in parts of the Presidency, Chittagong, and Orissa Divisions, the crops suffered from drought, while the unusually heavy rainfall in July and August caused floods in parts of the Burdwan, Presidency, Chittagong, Bhagulpore, and Orissa Divisions, and the Southern Gangetic districts of the Patna Division, which seriously injured, and in some cases entirely destroyed, the crops.

2. The outturn of rice for the whole province was much below the average, except in the Dacca Division and in parts of the Chittagong Division, where the yield was an average one. The wheat harvest in the Patna and Bhagulpore Divisions was also very poor, the average outturn being 10 annas in each. Pulses yielded a good outturn in Bengal, but not in Behar. The indigo crop, although affected by drought, was slightly larger than in 1887-88 in the Bhagulpore Division, and in parts of the Patna and Presidency Divisions, and also in Rungpore. The jute crop, like other crops, deteriorated in many districts from drought and deficient rainfall. The crop was a poor one in the Tipperah and Hooghly districts, an average one in Purneah and Maldah, smaller than that of last year in the Dacca district, and better than usual in Furreedpore, Jessore, the 24-Pergunnahs, and in all the districts of the Rajshahye Division, except Julpigoree, where it suffered from excessive rainfall during sowing time. The area under cultivation in some districts had, however, increased, and the total yield was, on the whole, larger than in 1887-88. The outturn of oil-seeds generally fell short of the average. Mustard seed, however, "was particularly fine in Rungpore," and "really good on the tract bordering the Kosi in the Bhagulpore district." The sugarcane crop was indifferent in the Durbhunga, Chumparun, and Shahabad districts, but in the Gya district it was a splendid crop, the yield being at least 10 per cent. better than in the preceding year. In Rungpore and Bogra the cane yielded an average outturn. The tobacco crop was smaller than last year in Rungpore and Julpigoree, and also in Tirhoot, where it was damaged by hailstorms.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF AGRICULTURAL STAPLES.

3. The average wholesale prices ruling in Bengal during 1888-89 for the principal agricultural staples are compared below with the figures of the previous year:—

4. The rise in the price of raw cotton is ascribed to a short crop. The outturn of indigo was on a level with that of the previous year, but the quality of the crop varied, and this accounts for the slight fall in price. The area under jute cultivation was extended, and there was a larger crop than in the previous year. Prices at the same time were higher, and the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that "the cultivation of jute last year should have proved very remunerative." Owing to a small crop of wheat in the producing districts there was a slight advance in the price of this staple. The increase in the price of rice, paddy, gram and pulses, and other spring and rain crops was also due to the indifferent harvests of the year under report. Last year there was a short crop of stick lac, and the result was an advance in the price of shell lac. The linseed crop was poor during the year and prices advanced in consequence, while as regards mustard seed, the failure in the continental crop stimulated exports and tended to keep up prices in the Bengal market. The fluctuations in the price of ghee, sugar, and tobacco are slight and need no explanation. Regarding the fall in the price of Indian tea, it is stated that the crop last year was of poor quality and below the average, owing partly to climatic causes, and partly to a more general sacrifice of quality to quantity.

RETAIL PRICES OF FOOD-GRAINS.

5. A statement of the average retail prices of food-grains in Bengal during the year 1888, as compared with those ruling during the three previous years, is appended :—

6. As compared with the average price ruling in the three years ending in 1887, the rise in the price of wheat was 16·79 per cent., of barley 4·19 per cent., of best rice 5·03 per cent., of common rice 4·10 per cent., of marwa 14·25 per cent., of Indian-corn 17·83 per cent., and of gram 6·67 per cent. The following explanations have been given by the Commissioners of Divisions regarding the causes of fluctuations in the prices of food-grains during the past official year :—

Burdwan Division.—"The figures show a rise in prices, but not to the extent that might have been expected. There is evidently plenty of grain still in stock. The Magistrate of Burdwan thinks that the market has been more influenced by export than by actual failure of crops. The bulk of the people are not affected by fluctuations in the price of wheat, which is consumed by a limited class only."

Presidency Division.—"Owing to unseasonable rain and also flood there was a considerable failure of the bhadoi or early rice crop, and prices were affected. In every district the price of coarse rice rose. The outturn of the late, i.e., the amun or winter rice crop, was again affected by early cessation of the rains, and prices have thus continued high. In the 24-Pergunnahs specially the rise was considerable, the prices varying from 12½ to 17½ seers a rupee. In Nuddea the prices varied from 14½ seers in June to 22½ seers in September. In Moorshedabad the prices ranged from 22½ seers in April to 16 seers in October and March. In Khulna the price at the sudder was 22 seers in May, but it was only 16 seers from January to March. In Jessore also it was 22 seers in May, but in March the price rose to 16 seers a rupee. The price of wheat also rose in all districts except in Jessore, where it was sold cheap owing to large import from Calcutta."

Rajshahye Division.—"Common rice was dearer in every district than in the preceding year, but, compared with the average of the previous five years, it was cheaper everywhere except in Julpigoree and the Darjeeling Terai. Compared with the previous year, pulses sold cheaper in Rajshahye and Rungpore; but compared with the average of the preceding five years, they were dearer everywhere except Rungpore. During the year the price of wheat rose in every district except Julpigoree; but compared with the average of the preceding five years, it was slightly lower in Dinagepore, Rajshahye, and Julpigoree, and higher in Pubna, Bogra, and Rungpore. In Darjeeling there was a rise in the price of Indian corn, chiefly owing to its short outturn and a greater demand on account of the Sikkim Field Force."

Dacca Division.—"Except wheat and barley in Dacca, the prices of all other food-grains were generally higher during the year under report than they were in the previous year. In Dacca the average price of common rice was 18 seers 14 chittacks per rupee, against 20 seers 10 chittacks in 1887-88; in Furreedpore, 19 seers against 21 seers; in Backergunge, 17 seers against 19 seers 14 chittacks; and in Mymensingh, 18 seers 12 chittacks against 19 seers 1 chittack in the previous year. As in 1887, it is noteworthy that rice sold cheaper in Dacca and Furreedpore than in the two great rice-growing districts of Backergunge and Mymensingh.

"It is explained that the rise in the price of rice in Dacca and Backergunge is not due to any difference in the harvests of the districts during the year, but to its rise elsewhere in Bengal. Dacca being a rice-importing district, the price rose with the rise in the exporting districts. The prospect of short crops in other parts of Bengal stimulated exportation from Backergunge, and prices began to rise from July. August and September showed that the crops here were not likely to be anything near as good as last year; and with a great demand for export prices rose, till in November only 13½ seers of common rice could be bought for a rupee. When the crops were cut, however, the outturn was found to be somewhat better than was expected, and prices fell somewhat in the next three months, though they rose again towards the end of the year, which closed with common rice selling at a little under 15 seers per rupee—the highest price at the close of a year for several years.

"The lowest prices recorded were in the months of July in Dacca, of May in Furreedpore, of April and May in Backergunge, and of June, December, and January in Mymensingh, when common rice was sold at the rate of 21 seers 11 chittacks, 22 seers 2 chittacks, 20 seers 8 chittacks, and 20 seers, respectively, in each of those districts. In all districts the price was the highest in November 1888, viz., 15 seers 11 chittacks in Dacca, 16 seers 2 chittacks in Furreedpore, 13 seers 7 chittacks in Backergunge, and 17 seers in Mymensingh."

Chittagong Division.—"Prices were higher than in the previous year everywhere except in the Fenny sub-division and the Hill Tracts."

Patna Division.—"Prices were very high throughout the last half of the year. Good communications and rapid information equalised them very much, so that while the whole Division felt a failure that was very unevenly distributed, the worst tracts were never without sufficient stores."

Bhagulpore Division.—"The rise in price is general, and is the natural result of deficient outturn of the crops generally."

Orissa Division.—"There were considerable fluctuations during the year in the prices of food-grains in all the principal centres of trade. In 1887-88 the agricultural results were poor, but the price of rice, the staple crop of this Division, generally remained low; but in 1888-89 prices rose everywhere and remained high till the close of the year."

"The Collector of Cuttack says that the high price of food-grains was due chiefly to the smaller outturn of the sarud rice crop on account of the insufficient rainfall, and partly to exports to other parts of the country and to foreign ports. In Pooree prices rose gradually, with occasional fluctuations, till the end of March, when they were 34 per cent. higher than at the commencement of the year. The Collector says:—'The fluctuating rise up till October may be ascribed to the varying fortunes of the paddy crop. As soon as that was safe there was a marked fall in Khoorda, but subsequently the extraordinary demand from Ganjam again raised prices. The Ganjam dealers were scattered all over the district, and simply killed the sea-borne export from the Pooree ports Even the merchants sold off their rice stored in the port godowns and had it carted off to the Chilka, whence it was sent on by boat to Ganjam.' The Collector of Balasore says that in the mofussil there were some marked fluctuations in prices of rice, and the rise as compared with last year's figures was more decided. In the sudder subdivision the rise commenced in July, and continued with variations throughout the year. In the Bhuddruck sub-division, however, prices rose in October and continued high till December."

Chota Nagpore Division.—"Owing to the deficient harvests of the past year there has been a marked rise in prices of all sorts of food-grains in every part of the Division. In Lohardugga alone barley and gram were somewhat cheaper than in the preceding five years, except 1887-88. In Manbhoom and Singbhoom the rise in prices is also ascribed to the influx of labourers to the railway works."

7. It has been already stated that the average price of common rice throughout the province was 19 seers to a rupee. In the following districts the price was below this average. Figures have also been given, comparing the past year's prices with those of 1887:—

PRICES OF OTHER STAPLES.

8. Of the other staples shown in the valuation statement appended to this report, the prices of the undermentioned articles cannot properly be compared with those quoted in the previous year's return because their value rates last year were, under the orders of the Government of India, obtained from the Calcutta Custom House, whereas the values assigned in 1887-88 were based on the rates prevailing in the chief local markets:—

Cotton twist and yarn, European.
Dyes, aniline.
Leather, manufactured.
Liquors.
Metals.
Oil, kerosine.
Paper and pasteboard.
Silk, raw, foreign.
Silk piece-goods, foreign
Spices, pepper, and cardamoms.
Tea, foreign.
Woollen piece-goods, European.

Last year the prices of opium and other intoxicating drugs, i.e., ganja, bhang, and charas, were obtained from the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, while in previous years local rates were quoted, hence the variations under those heads. Besides these, there were noticeable fluctuations in the value rates of the following articles:—

	Article	Fluctuations in prices compared with 1887-88.
		Per cent.
Articles showing a rise in price ...	Cutch	12·50
	Gunny-bags and cloth ...	10·45

Articles showing a fall in price ...	Stone and lime	57·14

	Skins, raw	17·02

Cutch.

Notwithstanding the advance shown against cutch, the Customs Report shows that there was no special demand for this article in Calcutta during the year, and consequently prices were lower than in 1887-88. The rise in the price of gunny-bags and cloth was due to the prosperous condition of the jute-manufacturing industry. The high price of castor oil is attributed to smaller production during the year. Regarding Indian silk, it is stated that "for a greater part of the year there was very little business doing, and prices fell, but at the close of 1888 a strong demand arose, and prices advanced considerably. The high rates demanded by sellers were paid in some instances, but at the close of the year prices had fallen again." The sudden fall in the price of cinchona bark requires explanation. During 1887-88 the value quoted for this article was based upon the rates reported by the local officers of Nuddea, Rajshahye, Chittagong, and Calcutta, but during the past year it was decided to adopt the price of this article ruling in Calcutta alone. The rate quoted in the statement appended to this return is accordingly that reported by the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, and it has been ascertained from the Superintendent of the Royal Botanical Gardens, Howrah, that it corresponds approximately with the price at which the bark was supplied to the public during 1888-89. As regard saltpetre, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that there was a good demand in the Calcutta market for part of the year, with an advance in prices which, however, was partly lost at the close of the year. Concerning Indian silk piece-goods, the Customs Report for 1888-89 also shows that the average price was lower than in the previous year, being As. 15-2 per yard, against As. 15-11½ per yard. The exports of dressed skins by sea are never very large, and the fall in their price is, therefore, due to local causes. The decline in the price of raw skins may be attributed to the slackness of the local demand, but the Customs Report shows that "there was throughout nearly the whole of the year a good demand for goat skins, and all supplies received were, as a rule, disposed of at once. Prices were high, and at one time reached a point that had never been known before in this market." The trade in myrabolams was on a very small scale during the past year, and it is stated that there is evidently no market in the United Kingdom for the Bengal article, although its price is lower than that of the same article shipped from other ports in India. For the fluctuations in the price of the other articles mentioned in the above table, no satisfactory explanation can be furnished.

The aggregate quantity carried last year by this route showed a decrease of 6,10,325 maunds, or 6·46 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 9,96,030 maunds, or 10·12 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. Both the down and the up traffic showed a falling off during the year, the decrease in the former amounting to 4,48,876 maunds, or 6·05 per cent., and in the latter to 1,61,449 maunds, or 7·93 per cent., as compared with the returns for the previous year. The condition of the Bhagiruthee and the Matabhanga rivers was far from satisfactory. The former is said to have been closed for through traffic from the Ganges for more than half the year, and the Collector of Tolls remarks that "the mahajans are getting less inclined to use this river and are taking more and more to the railways. The Railway Companies are also reducing their rates very considerably and this is telling very heavily on the toll collections." As regards the Matabhanga route, it is stated that in consequence of the unsatisfactory state of the entrance to the river, large quantities of seeds and pulses were sent down by the Eastern Bengal State Railway, and jute by the Sunderbuns route.

2. The chief staples in the down traffic which showed the largest decrease during the past year as compared with 1887-88 were wheat (3,90,627 maunds), mustard seed (2,28,915 maunds), and linseed (1,02,701 maunds); and the articles which showed the largest increase were raw jute (1,90,981 maunds) and gunnies (116,838 bags). As regards the up traffic, a slight improvement is noticeable in European piece-goods and gunny-bags, while gunny cloth shows a decrease of 397,167 pieces, coal and coke of 79,472 maunds, paddy of 60,721 maunds, and salt of 37,916 maunds.

The following statement shows the number of laden boats the cargoes of which were registered during the past three years:—

The difference between the down and up-going boats is explained by the fact that empty and passenger boats are not included in the trade returns.

The details of the Calcutta trade, which are shown in the foregoing statement, will be separately dealt with in chapter X of this report, and the following paragraphs notice briefly the chief articles of traffic by this route.

4. Jute, raw.—The jute trade rose by 1,90,981 maunds as compared with 1887-88, but fell off by 72,127 maunds as compared with 1886-87. Last year the traffic viâ the Jellinghee river showed an increase of 2,40,879 maunds, due chiefly to larger shipments from Dulalgunge in the Purneah district, which sent 2,64,200 maunds to Bhuddressur, against 1,81,430 maunds in 1887-88, and 2,37,803 maunds in 1886-87. Last year the quantity of raw jute carried to Calcutta by this route was 5·09 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 5·29 per cent. in the previous year.

5. Gunnies.—The increase shown during 1887-88 was further extended during the year under report, the total quantity registered showing an advance of 116,838 bags and 193,236 bags in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. Last year the despatches to Calcutta showed a rise of 99,853 bags, and to other places of 16,985 bags. Under the latter head the supply sent to Bhuddressur from Dulalgunge was 48,862 bags, against 21,300 bags in the previous year.

6. Wheat.—The total traffic in wheat showed a falling off of 3,90,627 maunds on the returns of 1887-88, and of 4,88,514 maunds on those of 1886-87. The following statement shows the different trade blocks from which wheat was exported during the past three years by the Nuddea rivers:—

The decrease in the consignments from Behar is attributable to short shipments from Monghyr (1,08,868 maunds against 1,87,485 maunds), and Bhagulpore (1,43,862 maunds against 2,10,541 maunds), while the falling off under the Western and Eastern Bengal blocks represents decreases in the supplies drawn from Moorshedabad (1,42,319 maunds against 2,22,211 maunds) and Nuddea (2,81,134 maunds against 3,79,190 maunds), respectively.

Out of the total supply during the past year, Calcutta received 9,37,540 maunds, and the remainder (9,468 maunds) was distributed among the different marts in Burdwan (4,164 maunds), Hooghly (2,306 maunds), Nuddea (1,473 maunds), and other places (1,525 maunds). The supply of wheat carried to Calcutta by this route formed 16·99 per cent. of the total quantity imported by all routes during 1888-89, against 18·22 per cent. in the previous year.

7. Gram and pulse.—The total traffic during the past year very closely approximated that of 1887-88, but the figures show an increase of 2,62,189 maunds in comparison with those of 1886-87. In the following statement the total quantity carried down stream during the past three years is distributed according to the different trade blocks from which the supplies were exported:—

By far the largest increase occurred in the consignments from the Behar block. Compared with 1887-88, the exports from Monghyr increased by 42,411 maunds, those from Bhagulpore by 30,600 maunds, and those from Shahabad by 29,757 maunds. The falling off under the Eastern Bengal block was chiefly owing to short supplies from Nuddea (4,74,508 maunds against 5,67,142 maunds), while the decline under the Northern Bengal block is in the main accounted for by an increase of 40,005 maunds from Maldah against a decrease of 37,188 maunds from Rajshahye, and 30,114 maunds from Pubna. After deducting the supply sent to Calcutta, there remained 20,051 maunds, out of which 6,590 maunds were consigned to the different marts in Moorshedabad, 5,308 maunds to Nuddea, 3,502 maunds to Hooghly, 3,285 maunds to Burdwan, and 1,366 maunds to other places. The quantity shipped for Calcutta by this route was 28·61 per cent. of the total imports, against 85·33 per cent. attracted to the East Indian Railway, and 172·27 per cent. to the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

8. Other spring and rain crops.—The increase noticed in the last report was maintained and also slightly extended during 1888-89. The entire supply during the past three years was shipped from the different trade blocks mentioned in the following statement :—

Owing to indifferent crops, Behar was not able to contribute more than about a third of what it supplied during 1886-87. The deficiency, however, was made up by larger exports from the Eastern Bengal block, which consisted of supplies from the Nuddea district alone. Practically the entire trade was with Calcutta.

9. Rice and paddy.—The following figures indicate the trade in rice and paddy carried down stream during the past year as compared with the figures of the preceding two years :—

The chief fluctuation was an increase of 1,35,512 maunds in the shipments from Northern Bengal. The Dinagepore supply rose from 3,62,087 maunds to 4,68,743 maunds, while the consignments from Bogra aggregated 1,09,673 maunds, against 82,715 maunds in 1887-88. The quantity imported into Calcutta was 9,45,988 maunds of rice and 2,002 maunds of paddy, and that sent to other places, 42,705 maunds of rice and 11,701 maunds of paddy. The details of the latter traffic are shown below:—

Last year the quantity of rice carried to Calcutta by this route was 6·22 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 5·43 per cent. in the previous year.

10. Ghee.—The quantity registered was 24,752 maunds, which showed an increase of 5,936 maunds as compared with 1887-88, and of 8,880 maunds as compared with 1886-87. Almost the entire supply was sent to Calcutta with the exception of 337 maunds, of which 307 maunds were consigned to Moorshedabad, and 30 maunds to Hooghly.

11. Saline substances other than saltpetre.—Under miscellaneous saline substances there was an increase of 13,077 maunds on the returns of 1887-88, and of 56,125 maunds on those of 1886-87. This trade also was almost entirely with Calcutta.

12. Oilseeds.—The aggregate quantity of oilseeds carried was 3,31,111 maunds and 5,18,275 maunds below the trade of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, as the following figures will show:—

There was a decrease under all the blocks mentioned in the above table. Of the chief exporting districts, there was a falling off of 27,993 maunds in the supplies from Durbhunga, 19,878 maunds from Monghyr, 26,181 maunds from Moorshedabad, 15,370 maunds from Purneah, 12,978 maunds from Maldah, and 28,463 maunds from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh. Last year, the quantity of linseed carried to Calcutta by this route was 10·81 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 11·44 per cent. in the previous year.

As regards mustard seed, there was a considerable decrease of 2,28,915 maunds and 5,19,039 maunds in the quantity registered during the year as compared with the two years 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. In the following statement the total quantity carried down stream during the past three years, is distributed according to the different trade blocks from which the supplies were exported:—

The falling off in the exports from Behar is due to short shipments from Bhagulpore, (86,994 maunds against 1,42,673 maunds), Durbhunga, 23,606 maunds against 80,540 maunds), Monghyr, (27,104 maunds against

54,584 maunds), and Chumparun, (6,526 maunds against 24,978 maunds), while Purneah, in the Northern Bengal block, contributed 58,231 maunds against 88,693 maunds, and Pubna 1,925 maunds against 10,545 maunds. The consignments from Assam diminished by 27,367 maunds in comparison with the year preceding. Out of the total supply during the past year, Calcutta imported 2,80,507 maunds, and the remainder, 29,311 maunds, was distributed among the different districts named in the subjoined table:—

The quantity shipped for Calcutta by this route was 13·83 per cent. of the total imports, against 22·97 per cent. attracted to the East Indian Railway, and 191·28 per cent. to the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

13. Silk, raw.—The total quantity rose from 141 maunds in 1886-87 and 255 maunds in 1887-88, to 2,327 maunds in 1888 89. This traffic last year was entirely with places other than Calcutta, the chief exporting district being Moorshedabad, and the chief importers Azimgunge, Jungypore, and Jeagunge, all in the Moorshedabad district.

14. Silk manufactured.—Under this head there was an increase of Rs. 19,389 over the figures of 1887-88, and of Rs. 10,189 in comparison with those for 1886-87. This, however, was all local traffic between Shibgunge in Muldah and Khagra in Moorshedabad.

15. Sugar, refined.—The quantity registered was 17,649 maunds against 10,348 maunds in 1887-88, and 7,190 maunds in 1886-87. The increase last year was due to larger supplies from Ghazipore, which exported by this route 11,785 maunds against 7,464 maunds in 1887-88. The traffic outside Calcutta amounted to 4,202 maunds, out of which 3,946 maunds were sent to Moorshedabad and 256 maunds to other places. The supply of refined sugar carried by the Nuddea rivers forms but a small fraction of the total quantity imported into Calcutta by all routes.

16. Sugar, unrefined.—The total quantity of unrefined sugar, or goor, was 36,422 maunds, showing a decrease of 4,869 maunds, and 20,573 maunds on the totals of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The quantity consigned to Calcutta was 20,879 maunds, while 15,543 maunds were despatched to other districts to meet local demands in the interior. Of this latter supply, 6,420 maunds were taken by Khagra in Moorshedabad.

17. Tobacco.—There was a slight recovery in the total trade as compared with 1887-88, but the figures are still below those of 1886-87 by 37,863 maunds. The quantity carried to Calcutta was 51,389 maunds, and the remainder (1,12,577 maunds) found its way to the different marts noted below:—

18. Timber.—The weight of timber registered was almost the same as in the previous year, but the figures were below the trade of 1886-87 by 1,04,765 maunds. The Collector of Tolls writes:—" The felling of timber appears to have been stopped for a time, and when the mahajuns got a supply, they had to use other routes, as the rafts could not proceed down this river." Last year Durbhunga supplied 20,519 maunds, Purneah 12,952 maunds, Bhagulpore 11,898 maunds, and other districts 10,826 maunds. The supply consigned to Calcutta was 52,513 maunds, and of the remainder (3,682 maunds,) 2,459 maunds went to Nuddea, and 1,223 maunds to other districts.

21. Cotton piece-goods, European.—The figures under European piece-goods show an increase of Rs. 39,703 in value as compared with 1887-88, and of Rs. 29,225 as compared with 1886-87. The following statement shows all the exporting marts, and the places of destination:—

The smallness of the supply from the Calcutta market is due to the fact that as a rule piece-goods are exported from the metropolis by rail.

22. Gunny cloth.—There was a heavy falling off in the exports of gunny cloth, of which only 150,573 pieces were exported from Calcutta and elsewhere during the past year, against 547,740 pieces in 1887-88, and 669,728 pieces in 1886-87. The different districts to which the supplies were carried during 1888-89 are named below.

Out of the past year's supply, 30,484 maunds were exported from Calcutta, and 3,349 maunds from other places. The exports from Calcutta amounted to 7,83,029 maunds against 8,14,708 maunds in 1887-88, and from other places to 68,494 maunds against 74,731 maunds. CHAPTER IV.

TRAFFIC ON THE GANGES, THE BHAGIRUTHEE, THE JELLINGHEE, AND THE HOOGHLY RIVERS, CARRIED BY INLAND STEAMERS.

As in the two proceding years, statistics have been collected to show the import and export traffic of Calcutta carried by the steamers of the India General and the Calcutta Steam Navigation Companies plying on the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, and the Hooghly. Since March, 1889, the steamers of the latter Company have also been running on the Jellinghee, and the figures of this trade have also been embodied in this report. The principal stations opened by these Companies are named below:—

The decrease noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, when the gross quantity of traffic carried both ways was 11·77 per cent. less than that of the previous year. In the import traffic, the falling off was 19·91 per cent., but in the export trade there was a slight increase of 6·37 per cent. The figures of the Behar block, where the crops were poor, showed the largest decline, namely, 72·32 per cent. under imports, and 44·53 per cent. under exports. In the Western Bengal block, however, there was a rise of 58·66 per cent. in the import trade, and of 71·83 per cent in the export trade. The advance under the former head occurred in the shipments of rice, and that under the latter head in European piece-goods. As regards the trade with the North-Western Provinces, the exports from Calcutta during the past year were nil, and hence the decrease shown above.

3. The abstract below shows the quantities and values of the important articles of traffic conveyed during the past three years :—

The Midnapore canal returns during the past year show a decrease of 6·76 per cent. compared with 1887-88, and a trifling increase of ·59 per cent. compared with 1886-87. The Panchkoorah Locks were closed to traffic during the greater part of the month of August, 1888, owing to the excessive accumulation of silt in the entrances. The traffic on the Hidgellee canal shows an increase of 34·56 per cent. compared with 1887-88, and of 6·78 per cent. in comparison with 1886-87; the revival in trade is owing to this route having been kept open for traffic throughout the year under report. Of the entire traffic, 77·17 per cent was carried to, and from, Calcutta against 85·13 per cent in the preceding year.

2. The principal staples which contributed to the increase in the traffic of the year as compared with its predecessor were rice (1,84,856 maunds), salt (42,105 maunds), jute, raw (18,368 maunds), sugar, unrefined (17,329 maunds), vegetables and all other kinds of fresh fruits (14,573 maunds). On the other hand, there was a decrease of 52,367 maunds in gram and pulse, 45,997 maunds in rice in the husk, 28,041 in number of hides, 20,392 maunds in timber, and 10,239 maunds in cotton twist and yarn, European. The number of laden boats registered at the several toll stations on the canals during the past three years, was as follows:—

Last year the imports into Calcutta were 22·57 per cent greater than in the previous year. The supply carried to Midnapore, however, showed a decrease of 14·59 per cent., while in the case of Hooghly there was a slight decrease of 10·44 per cent. As regards the exports, the figures under Midnapore showed but little change compared with the preceding year, but the quantities shipped from Hooghly and Balasore were 34·73 per cent. and 46·25 per cent. above the trade of 1887-88, respectively, the Calcutta figures remaining almost stationary.

7. Oils.—The quantity of kerosine oil registered was 90,687 maunds, showing an increase of 724 maunds and 13,752 maunds in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The amount of the Calcutta traffic was 57,639

maunds, while 33,048 maunds were carried to Midnapore and Hooghly, from Budge-Budge in the 24-Pergunnahs.

8. Sugar, unrefined.—The increase noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, the total quantity amounting to 1,23,782 maunds, against 1,06,453 maunds in 1887-88, and 91,666 maunds in 1886-87. The amount of the Calcutta trade during the past year was 1,18,202 maunds, while 2,650 maunds represent the local trade of the Midnapore district, and 2,930 maunds the trade between Midnapore, Hooghly and the 24-Pergunnahs.

9. Tobacco.—The total of the tobacco trade amounted to 95,917 maunds against 85,123 maunds in 1887-88, and 91,666 maunds in 1886-87. The Calcutta portion of the trade amounted to 92,855 maunds, and of the remainder 2,169 maunds represent the local trade of the different marts in the Midnapore district.

10. Timber.—The trade in timber was 20,392 maunds below the total of 1887-88, and 48,751 maunds less than in 1886-87. The amount of the local trade of the Midnapore district was 38,698 maunds. The quantity of timber imported into, and exported from, Calcutta by this route was 24,543 maunds, while 2,022 maunds represent the trade between Midnapore, Hooghly, the 24-Pergunnahs, and Balasore.

CHAPTER VII.

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE ORISSA CANALS.

The total quantity and value of the trade passing along the Orissa canals during the past three years, were as follows:—

The traffic upon this route during the past year showed a decrease of 16·38 per cent. when compared with 1887-88, and of 15·90 per cent. when compared with 1886-87. The following statement is taken from the report of the Executive Engineer, Brahmini-Byturni Division:—

"During the year 1888-89, no new navigation canals were opened in this Division, and the total number of miles open is 108.

"There has been a falling off under all heads under private traffic excepting building materials and passengers. The falling off in grain and seeds is due chiefly to the deficient harvest resulting from a scanty rainfall in October last. The decrease under salt and piece-goods is probably due to the people being unable to buy to the same extent as before owing to the poor harvest."

2. The total number of laden boats registered on these canals during the past three years was as follows:—

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE ORISSA COAST CANAL.

Last year there was very little change in the gross weight in comparison with 1887-88, but the figures were 5,34,699 maunds, or 70·50 per cent. above those of 1886-87. An interesting report on the traffic of the Orissa Coast Canal for the year 1888-89 has been submitted by Mr. A. Hayes, Executive Engineer, Balasore Division, and from it the following extracts have been taken:—

"The past year having been the first year during which it may be said there was continuous and uninterrupted navigation throughout the entire length of the Hidgellee Tidal Canal and the Orissa Coast Canal, a somewhat more detailed investigation into the traffic which passed through the latter canal than the Annual Revenue Report will allow space for, seems desirable with a view of showing how far the anticipations of traffic have been realized up to date, and what probability there is hereafter of the complete realization of the financial forecast made by Mr. Apjohn in his report accompanying the revised estimate of the Coast Canal.

"It is first necessary to ascertain for the past year how much of the total export and import of the principal ports of the Balasore district has passed along the canal, and how much has gone by sea.

"Food-grains make up by far the greatest portion of the exports of the district, and the following return will show the quantities despatched along the canal from the Muttai towards Calcutta (assuming half the quantities despatched from Baliaghye viâ Jharosaree and Masagaon to be from the northern portion of the Balasore district, and half from the southern portion of Midnapore district), and consequently omitted from these returns as entering into port returns of the district; and the corrected exports for 1886-87, 1887-88, and 1888-89 will stand as follows:—

"Canal" measured cargo reduced in the proportion of $\frac{1.39}{1}$ to bring to "actual" cargo. (Mr. Vertannes, assumption.)

"As regards the grain export trade of the district, and its bearing on the future welfare of the canal, these figures show a very satisfactory result. Last year was a year of bad crops generally owing to a late season and unequally distributed rainfall which first caused a heavy general inundation, followed subsequently at the end of the season by a drought which seriously affected the yield of all the crops that the flood had spared; yet in spite of this we see that the total grain export of the district reached a total of 12,13,240 maunds, of which amount about 50 per cent. went up to Calcutta by the canal, and for the last three years the average grain export of the district stands at 13,20,897 maunds.

"The export to other places than Calcutta was very small last year. Only one sea-going ship came for cargo to the Balasore roads. An analysis of the port returns further shows that for the past year while 4¾ lakhs maunds of grain left the port of Balasore (excluding canal traffic), only two lakhs left Chandbally (the amount from the other ports being too insignificant to mention).

"The grain traffic, as already stated, comprises by far the greater bulk of the canal traffic. The table below shows the grain traffic passing each station, and the total of each range for each month in the past year:—

* Note.—The very insignificant returns from these two stations were lumped under Charbettia.

"This table shows very extraordinary results, the traffic in Range III being nine times that of all the other ranges put together, and reaching already, although Range III of the canal has only been open five years, the mileage receipt rate (gross) of Rs. 1,266 per mile, or nearly half that assumed by Mr. Apjohn for the seventeenth year of its existence, 1896-1897, viz. Rs. 2,714 per mile (gross), and this with practically no assistance from traffic lower down the canal from the more southern parts of Balasore district, which, the return will show, may up to date be practically said scarcely to exist. It will further be noted that it measured in 1887-88 1,20,901 maunds over the previous year, and again in 1888-89 the increase in a very bad year was 44,780 maunds over 1887-88.

"These figures for Range III cannot but be considered eminently satisfactory, and it now remains to enquire why with such a splendid route open to it the traffic returns from the Cuttack side of Bhograi show such poor returns for the past year, and why practically none of the heavy export traffic in grain to Calcutta from the lower portion of the Balasore district, amounting to 33,005 maunds, elected to take the canal route by steamer and sloop.

"Although the novelty of the route, the absence of proper boats, and the extra length of time occupied, the difficulties with the Hidgellee tidal canal, absence of feeder roads, may all be factors in the marked disinclination to adopt the canal route as yet, where it comes into competition with the sea, it would be only reasonable to suppose that the question of relative cheapness and convenience must also weigh with the exporters; and this is tantamount to saying that the relative cost of carriage by sea and canal has not been accurately gauged by the canal authorities, and the sea route is still the cheaper and more convenient for the exporters, notwithstanding that freights by steamer have fallen, since Mr. Vertannes wrote, from four annas and nine pie to four annas per bag of two maunds, reducing his steamer freight rate from Calcutta to Chandbally from Rs. 7-13 to Rs. 7-3 per ton, which rate may also be taken for Balasore. As regards the sloop trade, it is declining; no new sloops are apparently being built in the port, nor heavy repairs executed to the existing vessels, the number of which is diminishing.

"The preference given by the traders of Balasore and Chandbally to the sea route is due, it is believed, to the following causes:—

"First and mainly, the unsatisfactory nature of the Hidgellee Tidal Canal, which every two years has to be closed for silt-clearing. This frequent blocking of the route naturally would prevent merchants investing capital freely in building cargo-boats of a proper kind for the canal route, and the closures have got it a bad name, which every effort should be made to remove.

"2. The novelty of the route and the backwardness of the country on the Cuttack side of the Subarnarekha.—Proper inland boats are practically unknown between the latter river and the Muttai, and with the decline of the sloop trade the boat-builders seem to have vanished, while boats on English lines, of splendid model and workmanship, are being turned out all over Contai and Tumlook, and replacing the 'panswey' class. Across the Subarnarekha, in the Balasore district, the most wretchedly primitive small crafts are the only boats available. With the exception of the sea trade, Balasore has always been a non-boating district, and the river fishing-boats are of the clumsiest unstable order. The Cuttack boats are good measuring boats and well suited enough to the class of rivers they use, where poling is often required. They are not so well adapted to the Hooghly and similar waters.

"3. Absence of feeder roads.—For a great part of the year there are no means of communication with the canal. The required communications partly exist, and for an expenditure of probably less than Rs. 90,000 would be completed and the reproach removed.

"4. The convenience and quick despatch of the steamer route, which does not necessitate any expensive outlay of capital on boat building.—The exporters, as has been already noted, are practically entirely without any suitable canal boats of their own between the Subarnarekha and the Muttai, nor can they hire them, as such boats are non-existent in the Balasore district between the Dhamrah and the Subarnarekha, and the boat-owners in Hidgellee appear to have quite sufficient work to occupy all their craft on their own side of the latter river.

"5. Disinclination to move out of existing lines.—This, a general Indian feature, is enormously intensified in Orissa, as any officer who has served in Bengal and in Orissa must have noticed.

"Of the above probable causes for the slowness in taking up canal lines by exporters, No. 1, which is by far the most serious, it is believed, is to be remedied at an early date. When this is done and the Hidgellee Tidal Canal is put into equal order with the Coast Canal, a very excellent route from Orissa to the chief mart will exist and will surely be largely utilized.

"Cause No. 2, greatly dependent on No. 1, will disappear gradually as the merchants find it to their advantage to build proper boats for the canal route. That the condition of the Balasore river will force them ere long to adopt the latter may be taken as a foregone conclusion.

"No. 3.—Early means should be found for the completion of those roads.

"No. 4.—See No. 2.

"No. 5.—Time and improved communications must be depended on to wake up Orissa.

"Reduced through rates.—Suggestions have been made in previous communications that it would be desirable to encourage traffic from the Cuttack side of the Subarnarekha by offering, as is done on railways, reduced rates to those exporters who use the whole length or greater portion of the length of the route. That such reduction is generally equitable is undeniable, and more especially so on Indian canals, where the cost of water-carriage is high. It seems hard that an exporter using large boats of a good measuring type, such as cargo flats, measuring largely when empty and travelling, say, on a return journey empty or with a return load under the assumed proportions, should be mulcted the more the farther the distance he uses the canal, and with boats of a worse measuring type the penalty for travelling back empty is still heavier. No doubt experience will teach the owners of such boats in time to arrange for full and return cargoes whenever possible; but the question seems to be, is it not a better policy with all new enterprises, with competition existing, to popularise the route, putting as few restrictions on traffic as possible?

"Should any reduction of rate on long-distance journeys be considered desirable with a view to popularise the canal route, the same should take effect only from those parts of the canal where sea competition comes into play, that is to say, on the Cuttack side of Nulcool. Only boats taking tickets from Gewankhally to Nulcool or from Gewankhally to Charbettia and vice versâ would get the reduction. It might be desirable perhaps hereafter to extend the concession subsequently to Cuttack; but for the present the interests of the Coast Canal only are under consideration, and the Cuttack authorities, not having sea competition, would probably object to cheaper rates. We shall be very well content if we can secure at an early date the greater portion, if not all, of the 5¼ lakhs of maunds of grain at present leaving the district by sea for Calcutta between Nulcool and Alba. The reduction would not apply to steamers carrying passengers, which already get special reductions."

7. The number of loaded boats registered during the past three years, was as follows :—

It will be observed that the import trade of Midnapore showed a falling off of 17·17 per cent. in comparison with the previous year. In the case of Calcutta, there was a rise of 6·70 per cent. under imports, and a decrease of 21·11 per cent. under exports, while the Balasore trade was 14·30 per cent. less under imports, but 19·56 per cent. more under exports than in 1887-88.

Boats which have been loaded, or are to be unloaded, at the Port Commissioners' wharves on the Hooghly, are registered by the Port Commissioners, and consequently are not registered at the canal stations.

2. Last year the increase in the gross quantity was 7·78 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, and 19·43 per cent. in comparison with 1886-87. The largest improvement, occurred in the import trade, which rose by 8·84 per cent. on the total of 1887-88, the most important items which contributed to the advance being firewood (5,76,560 maunds), rice (2,75,162 maunds), raw jute (2,67,461 maunds) and lime and limestone (1,96,066 maunds), while gram and pulse fell off by 2,74,610 maunds, and other kinds of provisions by 1,42,975 maunds. In the export trade, there was an increase of 2,10,275 maunds in paddy, and 73,790 maunds in salt, against a decrease of 91,637 maunds in oils. Detailed statements of this traffic will be found among the appendices to this report.

CHAPTER IX

TRAFFIC ON THE BRAHMAPURTA AND MEGNA RIVERS, INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL (WITH ASSAM).

The statistics of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers are limited to a record of the trade under the following heads :—

(1) Traffic carried by the River Steamer Companies;
(2) Traffic carried by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal State Railway; and
(3) Trade of Bengal with Assam carried by country boats.

2. A statement is appended to this report showing the river-borne trade of Bengal with the Brahmaputra and Surma valleys of the Province of Assam carried by steamer, as well as by country boat during the past three years. An analysis of the trade carried by inland steamers and country boat is, however, given below separately under each of the heads above mentioned.

RIVER-BORNE TRAFFIC CARRIED BY THE RIVER STEAMER COMPANIES.

3. The amount of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and the Upper Megna rivers by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, during the past official year, is compared in the following table with the trade of the two preceding years :—

These figures show that there was considerable expansion of traffic, the total quantity registered being 16·52 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1887-88, and 25·31 per cent. over those for 1886-87. The greatest improvement occurred in the upward traffic, the gross weight of which exceeded that of 1887-88 and 1886-87, by 6,96,821 maunds and 6,98,912 maunds, respectively. Compared with the previous year, the increase on the Brahmaputra route was 16·97 per cent., and that on the Megna route, 15·91 per cent. In the case of

Bengal, the imports showed a rise of 3·22 per cent., and the exports of 140·41 per cent., while as regards Assam, the imports increased by 19·02 per cent., and the exports by 13·35 per cent.

4. The following are the staples in which the increase during the past year, as compared with 1887-88, was most important. European piece-goods (Rs. 16,87,644), coal and coke (4,74,649 maunds), raw jute (2,49,367 maunds), leather manufactured (Rs. 1,79,378), tea (1,38,854 maunds), Indian woollen manufactures (Rs. 1,01,109), oils (82,129 maunds), and salt (65,191 maunds), whilst the largest falling off occurred under liquors (Rs. 5,50,853,) non-intoxicating drugs and chemicals (Rs. 1,50,730), rice (1,16,883 maunds), mustard seed (1,06,686 maunds), and betelnuts (38,669 maunds). The abstract below shows the quantities and values of the chief articles of traffic conveyed during the past year, as compared with the totals of the previous year:—

5. Since October, 1886, both the India General Steam Navigation Company and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company have opened a "despatch service," i.e., they receive in Calcutta goods intended for transmission to Assam and places in Bengal, and despatch these goods by rail to Goalundo, and thence by steamers to Assam and places in Bengal. These steamer companies also undertake to land in Calcutta goods sent by this service to Goalundo from Assam and places in Bengal. Such traffic is returned as steamer-borne traffic between the Eastern Bengal block and Assam, and in this way the Assam trade with Eastern Bengal is very largely, but fictitiously, increased at the cost of that with Calcutta, which shows less traffic than is really the case.

6. Caoutchouc or India-rubber.—The imports of caoutchouc into Bengal from Assam showed a slight increase of 869 maunds on the trade of the previous year. Only 63 maunds were carried to Calcutta direct, while 8,024 maunds against 7,202 maunds were landed at Goalundo, no doubt for conveyance by rail to Calcutta.

7. Coal.—There was a considerable recovery in the coal trade. The total quantity sent to Dacca and Serajgunge from Calcutta rose from 62,702 maunds in 1887-88 to 4,23,903 maunds in 1888-89, while the shipments therefrom to Assam showed an increase of 1,03,900 maunds. In the supplies received from Assam, there was very little change in comparison with the figures for the two previous years as shown below:—

	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
To Eastern Bengal (Goalundo) ...	1,92,294	1,42,259	...

„ Northern Bengal (Serajgunge) ...	17,894	15,462	4,204
Total ...	2,59,519	2,57,091	2,66,639

The Calcutta imports came all the way by steamer, and none by rail viâ Goalundo as in previous years.

8. Cotton twist and yarn, European.—Under this head an increase is shown of 4,824 maunds in the exports to Assam from Bengal. Last year only 831 maunds were shipped from Calcutta direct, while 11,658 maunds were carried viâ Goalundo. The total quantity of the internal trade remained the same as in the previous year.

9. Cotton piece-goods, European.—The total value of the exports of European piece-goods from Bengal increased by Rs. 16,87,644 or 25·10 per cent, in comparison with the returns of the previous year. The value of the supply carried to Assam from Bengal rose by Rs. 13,30,371, or 29·60 per cent., while in the internal trade the figures showed an advance of Rs. 3,57,273, or 16·26 per cent. Last year Rs. 30,53,634, against Rs. 21,69,468 worth of goods were shipped for Assam from Calcutta direct, and Rs. 27,68,157 against Rs. 23,25,330 worth were carried viâ Goalundo, the consignments being of course originally made from Calcutta by rail.

10. Jute, raw.—The total traffic showed an advance of 2,49,367 maunds or 8·43 per cent., as compared with 1887-88, and of 4,20,643 maunds, or 15·11 per cent., on the totals of 1886-87. The quantity sent to Calcutta from the internal blocks, showed a rise of 1,89,850 maunds, and that shipped from Assam of 59,489 maunds.

11. Gunnies—An increase of 66,182 bags is shown in the total traffic under this head as compared with 1887-88, and of 59,691 bags as compared with 1886-87. Last year the exports from Calcutta to the internal blocks rose from 4,473 bags to 16,940 bags, while the consignments to Assam from all blocks aggregated 75,600 bags, against only 17,045 bags in 1887-88.

12. Lac—stick and other kinds.—Owing to a short crop of stick lac in Bengal, a large supply, amounting to 33,606 maunds against 17,887 maunds in 1887-88, was sent from Assam to meet the requirements of the Calcutta market.

13. Gram and pulse.—Trade under this head is important in so far as the exports from Bengal to Assam are concerned. Last year the quantity shipped from Calcutta was below the figures of 1887-88 by 8,635 maunds, and that from Northern Bengal by 5,047 maunds, but the despatches from Eastern Bengal increased by 1,921 maunds.

14. Rice.—A falling off of 1,16,883 maunds, or 27·54 per cent., occurred in the quantity of rice registered during the past year as compared with 1887-88, but the figures were in excess of the trade of 1886-87 by 44,568 maunds, or 12·66 per cent. The decrease was chiefly in the exports to Assam from Bengal, as the following statement will show:—

	To Assam.

Last year Assam supplied Bengal with 8,705 maunds of rice, of which 6,029 maunds came viâ the Megna, and 2,676 maunds viâ the Brahmaputra. In 1887-88, no rice was imported.

15. Iron.—Iron showed a large advance of 34,132 maunds, or 24·37 per cent., on the trade of 1887-88, and of 60,785 maunds, or 53·62 per cent., on that of 1886-87. The exports from Calcutta to the internal blocks aggregated 29,088 maunds, against 5,542 maunds in 1887-88, while the consignments from Bengal to Assam rose from 1,33,660 maunds to 1,43,778 maunds.

16. Oils.—There was a great recovery in the total trade as compared with 1887-88, and the figures were also higher than those of 1886-87 by 11,422 maunds, or 5·17 per cent. The supply carried to the internal blocks from Calcutta showed an advance of 64,939 maunds in comparison with the year preceding, while the exports from Bengal to Assam increased from 59,048 maunds to 76,234 maunds.

17. Salt.—The total trade in salt amounted during the past year to 4,38,570 maunds, showing an increase of 65,191 maunds, or 17·46 per cent., on the traffic of 1887-88, and of 1,48,208 maunds, or 51·04 per cent., on that of 1886-87. In the despatches to the Bengal blocks from Calcutta, there was an improvement of 13,547 maunds, while shipments to Assam from Calcutta advanced from 2,33,982 maunds in 1887-88 to 2,85,423 maunds in the year under report.

18. Mustard seed.—The increase shown during 1887-88 was not maintained, the total quantity registered being 1,06,686 maunds, or 26·28 per cent. less than in the preceding year, but it was still in excess of the figures for 1886-87 by 30,779 maunds, or 11·47 per cent. The largest falling off is observable in the shipments from Assam to Bengal (2,77,614 maunds against 3,38,965 maunds), while the consignments to Calcutta from the internal blocks which aggregated only 21,506 maunds were about one-third those of the previous year.

19. Til seed.—The total traffic under this head rose from 6,404 maunds in 1886-87 and 9,698 maunds in 1887-88, to 35,676 maunds in 1888-89. By far the largest increase occurred in the supplies carried from Assam to Calcutta, which received 28,886 maunds against only 8,026 maunds in the previous year.

20. Silk, raw.—The strong demand for raw silk in the Calcutta market at the close of 1888 stimulated exports of this article from Assam, which supplied 4,270 maunds during the past year, against 2,181 maunds in 1887-88, and 946 maunds in 1886-87.

21. Woollen goods, Indian.—A very large business was done in Indian woollen goods, the total value of which amounted to Rs. 2,12,676 against Rs. 1,12,383 in 1887-88, and Rs. 30,252 in 1886-87. Practically the whole of the past year's supply went to Assam from Calcutta and the Eastern Bengal block.

30. It will be seen that the imports showed a slight falling off of 4·19 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88, but they were still so much as 40·98 per cent. over the figures for 1886-87, while in the exports, there was a decrease of 20·43 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, and of 70·13 per cent. on that of 1886-87. In the Dacca block, which carries on the largest trade with Assam, the decrease under imports amounted to 12·99 per cent., and under exports to 35·49 per cent. as compared with the figures for the year preceding. In the Calcutta block there was little or no change under imports, but under exports there was an advance of 49·77 per cent. The trade of the Northern Bengal block exhibited a rise of 12·70 per cent. under imports, and a large decline of 35·76 per cent. under exports. In the Eastern Bengal block there were similar fluctuations, the imports showing an advance of 30·93 per cent, and the exports a considerable reduction of 65·82 per cent.

31. It may be explained that the figures given against the Calcutta block in the foregoing statement will not bear comparison with those shown in chapter X of this report. In the returns of Bhoyrub Bazar and Dhubri, through-trade viâ Goalundo between Assam and Calcutta is shown as trade between Assam and Calcutta; but as on the Eastern Bengal State Railway there is no through-booking of goods between Calcutta and Assam viâ Goalundo, the Railway returns show this trade as between Eastern Bengal and Calcutta. On the other hand, the registration of the Calcutta traffic is effected by a cordon of stations, and under this system the actual quantity carried by country boats to and from Assam is correctly recorded.

32. The following statement shows the quantities and values of all the chief articles of trade between Bengal and Assam during 1888-89, compared with the totals of the preceding two years :—

As regards the import traffic, the articles which showed a marked increase over the trade of the previous year were rice, paddy, raw jute, and timber, and the staples in which the largest decrease occurred were oranges, lime and limestone, mustard seed, potatoes, tilseed, and shell-lac. In the export traffic, there were large increases under gunnies, oils, and salt, while European piece-goods, rice, gram and pulses, betelnuts, and tobacco showed heavy decreases. The particulars of these fluctuations are given below:—

33. Imports from Assam.—The total quantity of lime and limestone showed a decrease of 1,95,490 maunds in comparison with the trade of 1887-88. The decrease occurred in the supplies carried to Dacca, which imported 4,02,281 maunds against 7,11,086 maunds in the previous year. The imports into all other blocks showed an increase. In raw jute the figures showed an increase of 37,477 maunds, chiefly in the imports into Northern Bengal, which is credited with 1,11,868 maunds against 71,808 maunds in the preceding year. The decrease under oranges was large, namely, 38,692,190 in number. The falling off in the number despatched to Eastern Bengal was 3,393,920; to Calcutta 20,954,390; to Dacca 13,714,920; and to other blocks 628,960. The traffic in potatoes fell off from 41,652 maunds to 25,788 maunds; the imports into Calcutta alone showed a decline of 17,747 maunds, against an increase of 2,059 maunds in the Dacca block. The total quantity of paddy showed a considerable increase of 3,85,807 maunds when comparison is made with the figures from 1887-88. Out of the total traffic, 6,50,736 maunds against 3,32,190 maunds were sent to the Dacca block, 56,784 maunds against 8,574 maunds to Northern Bengal, and 26,191 maunds against 7,570 maunds to Eastern Bengal. The increase under rice was still larger, namely, 5,48,524 maunds. The greatest improvement is shown in the despatches to the Dacca block, which received 5,22,318 maunds against only 5,880 maunds in 1887-88. The total quantity of shell-lac showed a decrease of 8,582 maunds, which occurred chiefly in the supplies sent to Calcutta (644 maunds against 7,332 maunds). The quantity of mustard seed registered was less than the trade of 1887-88 by 48,240 maunds. The Calcutta imports showed a decrease of 17,018 maunds, while the falling off under the Northern Bengal block amounted to 20,929 maunds, and under other blocks to 10,293 maunds. In the case of til seed, the figures showed a decline of 12,656 maunds, chiefly in the supply despatched to Calcutta, which imported 6,095 maunds against 17,037 maunds in the preceding year. The trade in timber showed a rise of 26,050 maunds on the returns of 1887-88. The consignments to the Dacca block increased from 3,92,518 maunds to 4,26,792 maunds, but those despatched to Northern Bengal exhibited a decline of 15,638 maunds.

34. Exports to Assam.—The export trade in cotton piece-goods of European manufacture showed a decrease of Rs. 6,23,320 in value as compared with the year preceding. The consignments from Calcutta showed an advance of Rs. 1,26,441, but in those from the Dacca block, there was a considerable falling off of Rs. 3,78,000. The trade in gunnies rose by 252,770 bags, owing chiefly to larger supplies carried from Calcutta (281,470 bags against 25,795 bags). The exports of gram and pulse showed a heavy decrease of 1,05,810 maunds. In the despatches from Northern Bengal, the figures indicated a falling off of 62,863 maunds, and in those from the Dacca block of 29,705 maunds. The rice trade fell off by 4,06,802 maunds. The Eastern Bengal block, which contributed 1,24,090 maunds in 1887-88, despatched merely 875 maunds during the year under report. Similarly Dacca sent to Assam only 37,143 maunds against 2,69,560 maunds in the previous year, and Northern Bengal 18,573 maunds against 62,799 maunds. The increase of 1,16,047 maunds under oils was mainly caused by larger despatches of this article to Assam from the Calcutta market, namely, 2,56,059 maunds against 1,22,810 maunds in 1887-88. In the trade in salt there was an increase of 45,834 maunds. The supply despatched from Calcutta showed an advance of 1,05,515 maunds, but there was a decrease of 20,086 maunds in the consignments from Northern Bengal, of 18,643 maunds in those from the Eastern Bengal block, and of 20,942 maunds in those from the Dacca block. The figures under betelnuts rose from 23,621 maunds in 1887-88 to 30,141 maunds in 1888-89, the increase being due to larger exports from the Dacca block, which contributed 24,501 maunds against 18,804 maunds in the previous year. The tobacco trade fell off from 1,42,652 maunds to 1,20,404 maunds. The chief fluctuations occurred in the quantities exported from the Northern Bengal and Dacca blocks, which sent 12,627 maunds and 6,481 maunds, respectively, less than in the previous year.

These articles alone covered nearly 58 per cent. of the entire import traffic of Calcutta during 1888-89, against 61½ per cent. in the previous year.

The total traffic in the three staples specified above represents 43·26 per cent. of the entire exports from Calcutta during the year under report, against 45·63 per cent. in the year preceding.

4. The value of the Calcutta trade during the past year has been compiled in accordance with the revised system prescribed by the Government of India, as explained in Chapter I of this report. No comparison can, therefore, be instituted between the figures of 1888-89 and those of the two previous years.

5. The circumstances affecting the trade of Calcutta during the past year may be thus enumerated and described:—

Causes, external to the Lower Provinces, which affected the trade of the year.

(1) The cotton crop was poor in the Upper Provinces, and this led to higher prices. On the other hand, much of the cotton which used to find its way out by sea from Calcutta, now goes to Bombay for spinning purposes.

(2) The imports of piece-goods from the United Kingdom were the largest ever yet recorded, but notwithstanding that fact the trade for the year has been characterised as un-satisfactory to both spinners and manufacturers. The previous year was a fairly good one for manufacturers, and the result was an increase in production. In the year under report, spinners, however, obtained better prices for their production, while manufacturers were unable to obtain a corresponding advance for their article. Spinners, too, had to cope with small supplies of cotton during the latter half of the year, and the consequent rise in prices, besides which they had to concede an increase in wages to their operatives. The quality of American cotton was not up to the average, and to keep up the quality of their yarn, higher classes had to be used than formerly.

(3) The trade in the coarse numbers of grey yarn is now almost entirely in the hands of the Bombay mills, and the Lancashire spinners have had virtually to abandon it.

(4) In the United Kingdom the demand for aniline substitutes is perceptibly increasing, and will continue to increase unless the price of indigo keeps low. Prices were, however, low last year; in fact the quotation for good Bengal indigo at the close of 1888 was the lowest known for the past ten years.

(5) The decline in the exports of gram from Calcutta was partly due to a smaller crop, and partly to larger shipments from other ports.

(6) The consumption of rice in Europe is now said to have reached one million tons. The partial failure of the Continental potato crop may have stimulated the consumption of rice, but the enormous quantity that is now consumed must indicate its growing popularity as a staple article of food.

(7) The price of wheat in the United Kingdom fluctuated considerably during 1888. At one time it rose beyond the point which is admitted to be the limit at which wheat growing is profitable to the British farmer, viz., 35*s*. per quarter. Large importations of foreign wheat, however, reduced prices. With improved mechanical appliances and lower rents, the prospects of English wheat are not as gloomy as they have been, and the area under wheat has been increased. Last year the wheat crops in Belgium and France had partially failed, while Russia, owing to two large harvests, had supplanted the United States and taken the first place, her exports to the United Kingdom being far ahead of any other country. The growers of wheat in the United State are said to have been discouraged by the low prices which have ruled so long.

(8) The jute trade in Dundee was in a fairly prosperous condition. With the higher prices ruling on this side, there was a considerable advance in values. To the United States, our second largest customer for jute, the decline is 22·6 per cent. The falling off was only in jute butts and cuttings, said to be due to "Trusts" having been formed by the mills using cuttings, and by the paper mills using butts in that country to manipulate prices and buy at a low price here. Legitimate exporters had to operate with caution, and did not ship their usual quantities.

(9) The hide market was dull during the greater part of the year, and supplies were small throughout.

(10) The trade in unwrought copper suffered owing to the high prices which ruled in the European markets for the greater portion of the year in consequence of the action of the French Syndicate. The operations of this company were of a gigantic nature; but though it had an immense command of capital, being backed by some of the wealthiest houses of business, the control of the world's production of copper was too much for it, and it collapsed at the close of the year.

(11) The trade in nitrate of soda largely influences the trade in saltpetre with the United Kingdom; it improved and the exports of saltpetre increased, though not to the same extent, and prices were on the average very slightly higher than in the previous year.

(12) The linseed crop was damaged by unseasonable rain: difficulties in obtaining freight and the high rates ruling also had a depressing effect upon exports at one part of the year. The United States drew 4 per cent. more than last year. Large exports to that country are only made when there is a bad crop of flax seed there, and probably this was the case during the past year. A linseed oil Trust or Syndicate has been formed in the United States to control prices, and probably the operations of this body have had something to do with the larger exports from here. It is stated that crushers of this seed who have not entered the ring are upholding the ring's prices.

(13) Owing to poor crops there was a heavy decrease in the exports of mustard seed from Calcutta. There was a failure in the Continental crop, which was made up by exports from other parts of India.

(14) For a greater part of the year there was very little business doing in raw silk, chussum, and cocoons, and prices fell, but at the close of 1888, a strong demand arose and prices advanced considerably. So long as there are fair crops of Italian, China, and Japan silks at low prices as there were last year, Bengal silk will be at a discount.

(15) With Europe the trade in Bengal sugar is practically extinct. With the immense production of beet sugar on the Continent, much of it bounty fed, it is not to be expected that our exports will rise again.

(16) There have been extensions, and new tea gardens have been opened out in the Dooars, which is, comparatively speaking, quite a new tea-growing district, and has sprung into importance only within the last few years. The exports to the United Kingdom advanced by over 10 per cent., and it is stated that there has been a large increase in consumption due to the extremely low prices ruling for the common kinds. For really fine teas there was a good demand, and no fall in price occurred.

Causes, internal to the Lower Provinces, which affected the trade of the year.

(1) The indigo crop in Bengal and Behar was much the same as in the previous year. The quality of the crop varied: in some cases it is said to have been decidedly better than in the previous year, while in others it was inferior.

(2) The crop of rice was inferior to that of the previous year, and the margin for export consequently smaller.

(3) The wheat crop, too, was a poor one.

(4) The outturn of pulses was very good in Bengal, but below the average in Behar.

(5) There was a larger area under jute cultivation, and consequently a larger crop than in the preceding year. Prices at the same time were higher, and the cultivation of jute last year should have proved very remunerative.

(6) The jute-manufacturing industry has had another prosperous year. The working of short time continued, and was further extended, the mills now working only nine days in the fortnight.

(7) There was a short crop of stick lac, resulting in high prices, which at the close of the year were nearly double those at the beginning.

(8) The quantity of mineral-oil and cheap glass lamps that are now imported indicate a vast improvement in lighting for the native community generally.

(9) The advance in the imports of unwrought iron is indicative of a tendency on the part of engineering firms here to cast their own machinery in the country instead of importing it from England.

(10) The actual consumption of salt has been slightly higher than in 1887-88, in spite of the increase in duty and the higher prices brought about by the Salt Syndicate. Some native merchants here are setting up machinery for pounding the kurkutch salt so as to bring it into the same form as Liverpool salt.

(11) The linseed crop was poor both in Bengal and Behar.

(12) The outturn of mustard seed was, on the whole, below the average.

(13) There was an extension of sugarcane cultivation in these provinces.

(14) There were increases in the production of tea in all the growing districts except Chittagong and Chota Nagpore. The quality, however, was poor and below the average, partly owing to climatic causes, and partly to a more general sacrifice of quality to quantity.

(15) The tobacco crop was indifferent in Behar, but good in Northern Bengal. The increasing local consumption is apparently sufficient to carry off the bulk of the crop produced.

(16) In Calcutta, the cotton goods trade during the past year was in an uncertain state, importers having had to contend with difficulties which do not ordinarily arise. The prices at home had necessarily advanced on account of the inferiority of the American cotton crop, but the market here refused to respond, and it is stated that goods could be purchased in Calcutta at from three to six annas per piece below that for which they could be bought in Manchester. Then the scarcity of money led to a high bank rate of interest, and this for four months considerably checked transactions, dealers not being able to take delivery of goods. With large stocks in hand and a low rate of exchange, the condition of the market at the close of the year was unsatisfactory.

6. As in the previous year so in 1888-89, the low rates of exchange coupled with the low rates of freight operated unfavourably on the Calcutta trade.

Regarding this trade, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"Yarns, grey and white, turkey red and other colours, show a small decline of about 400,000 lbs in quantity, and slightly over ¼ lakh of rupees in value.

"The trade in grey yarns was on an average scale. That in the coarse numbers of yarn is now almost entirely in the hands of the Bombay mills, and the Lancashire spinners have had virtually to abandon it. The increase in the low counts from 15s. down is no indication of increased competition with the country spun twist, as the importations were all of doubled yarns used in jute mills, and these doubled yarns are not supplied by the mills out here.

"The most largely imported count is 40s, the figures for which are the highest ever shown. The finer counts from 43s. upwards all show decreases, but they are still quite up to the average of previous years."

15. There has been very little change during the past three years in the aggregate quantity of the imports of twist and yarn manufactured in this country. The imports by sea were chiefly from Bombay, and the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks as follows:—

Indian twist and yarn.

"The importations of grey cotton yarn from Bombay continue to advance, and were last year the highest known, being nearly one million lb. beyond 1887-88. This country-spun twist of coarse counts has now quite ousted the Lancashire article. There has been an immense expansion in the cotton spinning industry in Bombay of late years, and enormous quantities of yarn are shipped to China and Japan, and Calcutta also has received a share of the greater outturn."

16. The boat traffic which comprises for the most part the outturn of the cotton mills in the vicinity of Calcutta, showed a trifling increase of 0·37 per cent. as compared with 1887-88. The following statement shows the supplying districts and their marts during the past three years:—

17. The Administration Report of the Presidency Division of the past year contains the following account of the working of the cotton mills in the 24-Pergunnahs district:—

"It appears from the returns received from the managers or owners of the four cotton mills that 9,357 tons of cotton were worked up during the year, against 7,685 tons in the previous year, showing an increase of 1,672 tons. The trade in cotton yarn spun locally is also said to have prospered. The price of the raw material was higher than for some years past, but an active demand for yarns was experienced by all the agents of the companies connected with the cotton trade.

"The managing agents of the Bengal Cotton Mills are of opinion that there has been an important increase in the offtake for local and up-country consumption, and the mills have been able to get quit of surplus stock to China buyers at fairly remunerative rates. The satisfactory profits realised by the mills at present working in Bengal have induced the formation of two new companies, and one of the older mills has doubled the number of its spindles. Cotton has been plentiful and of good quality, and a decided improvement is apparent in the staple of Agra and Tonk district cotton. Delhi, Khoorjah, and other Bengal descriptions, however, are still of irregular and short staple, and are in consequence not much used by the mills."

The cotton mills in the Burdwan Division also are said to be doing a rising business. It was stated in the last report that the mills had continued to work short time, the market being glutted by overproduction, but during the year under report they have, it is said, been again working full time.

18. The consignments by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed an increase of 1,024 maunds on the totals of 1887-88, but a decrease of 9,175 maunds on those of 1886-87. As usual, the bulk of the imports was derived from Shamnugur, where the Dunbar Cotton Mill is situated. The quantity of raw material worked up during the year in that mill was 84,311 maunds, against 80,666 maunds in the year preceding.

19. As regards the road traffic, which also represents part of the outturn of the mills in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, the imports showed a falling off of 11,496 maunds and 9,856 maunds on the trade of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively.

EXPORTS.

European twist and yarn.

20. There was very little change in the total exports of these goods of European manufacture from Calcutta during the past three years. The distribution of the export trade during those years was as follows:—

As in 1887-88, so in the year under report, the rainfall was not favourable to the cotton crop in the Upper Provinces and hence the large decrease in the imports by the East Indian Railway. In explaining the fluctuations in the exports by sea, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that the falling off can only be attributed to the smaller crop and the demand for it for spinning purposes in Bombay.

Imports.

8. The total trade under imports showed a decrease of 17·98 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88, and of 37·91 per cent. when compared with 1886-87. The imports by the East Indian Railway were 30·88 per cent. below the previous year's figures, but the traffic carried by sea advanced by 16·83 per cent. The sources of supply, province by province, were as follows:—

The largest decrease occurred in the consignments from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, where the cotton crop had partially failed, Agra, the chief exporter, showing a decrease of 98,393 maunds, and Cawnpore of 97,200 maunds. The next largest decline was in the despatches from the Punjab, and was due to the imports from Umballa and Delhi having fallen off by 40,922 maunds and 25,772 maunds, respectively. The improvement under Bengal is chiefly due to an increase of 19,485 maunds in the supplies from Dacca, notwithstanding the fact that the crop in the Chittagong Hill Tracts was deficient.

Principal railway stations.

9. The railway stations from which the largest quantities were consigned during 1888-89 are shown in the subjoined table, in which also the figures of the past year are compared with those of the two previous years:—

The steamer service of the Eastern Bengal State Railway carried 45,268 maunds of raw cotton to Calcutta from Naraingunge, against 25,748 maunds in 1887-88, and 9,704 maunds in 1886-87.

Imports by sea.

10. As regards the imports by sea, the principal markets from which consignments were made during the year were Bombay (160,587 maunds against 1,49,285 maunds), Chittagong (23,840 maunds against 17,797 maunds), Burma (20,338 maunds) against 8,514 maunds), and Madras (7,752 maunds against 17,366 maunds).

Exports.

11. The export trade of the past year was 36·56 per cent. and 49·62 per cent. less in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The sea-borne exports were distributed as follows:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, gives the following account of the fluctuations in the exports to foreign countries:—

"There has been a heavy fall in the exports of raw cotton of 39·3 per cent. during the past year as compared with 1887-88.

"The United Kingdom has taken 105,365 cwts., or 49 per cent. less than in the previous year; Austria 61·1 per cent., France 62·6 per cent., Germany 10·5 per cent., Italy 66·6 per cent., and other countries 50·9 per cent., the only increase being to China, the exports to which have advanced by 26·3 per cent.

"There has been no decline in the production of cotton goods in the United Kingdom during the past year, and the falling off can only be attributed to the smaller crop and the demand for it for spinning purposes in Bombay. The decreases to Austria, France, Germany, and Italy may be ascribed to the same causes. These countries have, however, taken larger supplies from Bombay. The expansion in exports to Germany, which has gone on for some years, has received a check, the fall being about 10 per cent. This is probably only temporary, and with a larger crop and the greater facilities now afforded for direct shipment, these exports will probably go on increasing. For several years past China has drawn its principal supplies of cotton from Bombay, but in the past year the demand has apparently reverted to this market, for, with an increase in the exports from Calcutta of 26·3 per cent., the total shipments from India show a decline."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

12. After deduction of the exports from the imports, there remained 4,12,311 maunds, against 3,05,499 maunds in 1887-88, and 4,57,020 maunds in 1886-87.

IMPORTS.

European twist and yarn.

14. The imports remained practically unchanged, the fluctuation being only 1·35 per cent. below the figures of 1887-88, and 0·27 per cent. above those of 1886-87. The figures relating to the imports by sea represent the total clearances for consumption from boardship and from bond. The different ports of the different exporting provinces. In all other cases values have been calculated at Rs. 63 per maund, which has been taken to represent the average value of a maund of European piece-goods of all sorts in Bengal.

31. The figures given above against the imports by sea represent the total clearances for consumption from shipboard and from bond. The supply during the year showed a considerable increase of 15·28 per cent. and 8·06 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The different ports from which the supplies were received during the past three years are shown in the subjoined statement:—

32. There was a great recovery in the imports from the United Kingdom, in comparison with the previous year. The Customs report for the past year contains the following account regarding the trade in cotton goods:—

"The importations of cotton goods were much larger in the past year as compared with 1887-88, and the figures are the highest yet reached. Grey cotton piece-goods advanced by 74½ millions of yards with an increased value of 116½ lakhs of rupees; white piece-goods by 28½ millions of yards and 45 lakhs; coloured, printed or dyed piece-goods by 19 millions of yards and about 32 lakhs, against a decline of about 1½ lakhs in other cotton goods.

"The advance in grey cotton piece-goods is large, and brings them above those of any previous year. It would seem doubtful, however, whether this large trade has been profitable to either manufacturers or importers. In Lancashire, spinners have done comparatively well, while manufacturers have fared badly. The previous year was a fairly good one for the latter, and as a consequence there was an increase in the number of looms followed of course by an advance in production. In the past year spinners have obtained better prices for their production, while manufacturers have been unable to obtain a corresponding advance for the manufactured article. The spinners too had to cope with small supplies of cotton during the latter half of the year, and the consequent rise in prices, besides which they had to concede an increase in wages to their operatives. The quality of the American cotton was not up to the average, and to keep up the quality of their yarn higher grades had to be used than formerly. Speaking generally, the trade for the year has not been satisfactory to either spinners or manufacturers.

"In Calcutta the cotton goods trade was in an uncertain state, importers having to contend with difficulties which do not ordinarily arise. The prices at home had necessarily advanced on account of the inferiority of the American cotton crop, but the market here refused to respond. Then the scarcity of money led to a high bank rate of interest, and this for four months considerably checked transactions, dealers not being able to take delivery of goods.

"For the first half of the year, speaking generally, there was a steady trade in goods already in the market and in those for arrival. Exchange was low, but comparatively steady for several months, and when the fluctuations began they had generally an upward tendency, which helped importers. In the second half the money market was tight, and great difficulty was experienced by dealers in clearing their previously purchased goods, stocks of which accumulated in importers' godowns. When the money market became easier these goods were delivered to the dealers, who now have in hand large stocks. With advancing prices at home and these large stocks in the bazar, it became an impossibility for importers to obtain prices to cover the cost, and it is stated that goods could be purchased in the Calcutta bazar at from three to six annas per piece below what they could be bought for in Manchester. So with these large stocks in hand and a low rate of exchange, the condition of the market at the close of the year was unsatisfactory.

"A special feature in the year's trade is the increase in direct imports from Manchester by native firms. There is no doubt that the less expensive establishments of native houses give them an advantage over European importers, and that imports by native houses direct are likely to still further increase."

33. The advance last year in the export trade was 5·10 per cent. on the figures of 1887-88, and 3·24 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The supply carried by rail, which formed 86·39 per cent. of the total trade, was 6·36 per cent. and 4·62 per cent. greater than in 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. In the case of the East Indian Railway, the figures rose by 8·06 per cent., and in the case of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, by 2·44 per cent. in comparison with the previous year. The steamer figures are 26·03 per cent. more than those of 1887-88, but the exports by country boats, and by road routes declined by 24·78 per cent. and 16·29 per cent., respectively. The different provinces to which European piece-goods were carried during the past three years are shown in the following table :—

The value of th excess of imports over exports, therefore, amounted to Rs. 3,35,94,623, again Rs. 1,67,71,873 in 1887-88, and Rs. 2,47,58,109 in 1886-87.

30. The values given in the foregoing statement are declared values in all cases, save as regards goods carried by railway and by inland steamers, in which cases they are registered by weight only. In the case of imports by rail, the value of these goods has been calculated according to the value rates

Exports.

The total value of piece-goods exported from Bengal Proper by rail and by road during the past three years, was as follows:—

36. The surplus of imports over exports thus amounted to Rs. 5,43,53,099 which, among a population of 40,419,594 souls, would give an average rate of Rs. 1-5-6 per head, against Rs. 1-4-11 per head in 1887-88, and Re. 1-3-2 in 1886-87.

TRADE OF BEHAR.

Comparison of imports with exports.

39. The result of the year's traffic was an excess of imports over exports to the extent of Rs. 3,27,78,703, which gives an average yearly local consumption of Re. 1-6-8 per head of a population of 23,127,104 souls, against Re. 1-7-10 in 1887-88, and Re. 1-9-3 in 1886-87.

40. The total value of piece-goods imported into the Orissa Division during the past three years, was as follows:—

Last year the exports from this Division were valued at Rs. 1,050, and the balance, amounting to Rs. 17,16,027, gives an average yearly local consumption of annas 5-3 pie per head of a population consisting of 5,199,877 souls. In 1887-88 also the rate per head was annas 5-3, but in 1886-87 it was annas 4-1 pie.

41. The total value of piece-goods imported into Assam from Calcutta was Rs. 37,48,059, against Rs. 33,60,522 in 1887-88, and Rs. 44,30,245 in 1886-87.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The supplies of grey piece-goods have been very plentiful, as the figures show, and in some cases, particularly in that of grey shirtings, they have been in excess of the demand. The market had to struggle with these heavy importations, coupled with a smaller demand from some of the consuming districts, and stocks accumulated, which at the close of the year have acted as a drag on it. The demand for Behar, generally a large and steady consumer of grey piece-goods, failed almost completely in the autumn, and for Cawnpore it set in very late, though large quantities were then forwarded.

"In dhooties the imports have been large, and there has been a steady demand for full sized dhooties of good cloth, especially for fine mulls, and the demand for the latter points in the direction of prosperity.

"In white goods there were plentiful imports with a fairly steady business. White shirtings were, however, too largely imported and stocks accumulated; also the prices realized did not cover the cost, and there must have been losses. The importations of printed goods were larger than in the previous year, but far below those of 1886-87. Old stocks were partly worked off notwithstanding the large receipts in the first quarter of the year."

44. The results of the enquiries made by some of the local officers regarding the proportion in which it has been estimated that the different classes of European piece-goods were imported into some of the Bengal districts during the past year, are shown in the following table :—

47. The imports showed a decrease of 3·82 per cent. and 9·62 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. Compared with the previous year, the increase in the imports by the East Indian Railway was 11·79 per cent., and that by inland steamer 74·03 per cent.; but as regards the sea-borne trade, the figures showed a falling off of 7·08 per cent. On this subject, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes :—

"The receipts of grey cotton piece-goods from Bombay declined in both quantity and value last year. This market was heavily supplied by piece-goods from Lancashire, which may have deterred importers of the country-made goods. Dhooties and chudders comprise the bulk of the importations."

The export trade during the past year was practically the same as in the year preceding, but it was below the figures for 1886-87 by 25·36 per cent., there being no recovery in the exports by sea during the past two years. The sources of supply and the places of destination were as follows :—

Progress of local manufacture by steam and by hand.

49. The number of cotton mills in Bengal was 7, namely, 3 in Howrah and 4 in the 24-Pergunnahs district, against 2 and 4, respectively, during the preceding two years. They manufacture yarn only. Concerning the hand-weaving industry, the information furnished by some of the Divisional Commissioners in their annual administration reports for the year 1888-89 is extracted below :—

BURDWAN DIVISION.—Cotton cloth is manufactured in all the districts. The principal places of manufacture are Chandrakona in Midnapore and certain parts in the district of Hooghly. The weavers work at a disadvantage, being generally undersold by cheap Manchester goods. Mr. Oldham remarks, however, that this class of people are better off than he supposed, and do very well when in full work, but are liable to periods of depression. He estimates that the total outturn of the year under review was 806,979 yards (valued at Rs. 1,07,572), against 997,996 yards (valued at Rs. 1,43,161) in the previous year. No explanation is given of the falling off in production.

From what the Collector of Hooghly says, it appears that the weavers of cotton cloth in Serampore manage to hold their own even against Manchester. The cloths, he says, "are of fine texture, and of a much higher price and more esteemed than European articles. Their merits are undeniable when they can compete successfully with machine-made goods at places accessible by rail from Calcutta, the place of import for European piece-goods. This survival affords a contrast to the fate of weaving in many other parts of Bengal."

PRESIDENCY DIVISION—Nuddea District.—" Santipore still maintains the high position which it has attained for its cotton fabrics. Its looms produce exceedingly fine specimen of cloth which is highly prized by the people of Bengal for the fineness of its texture, and the artistic skill and workmanship displayed in the borders in which flowers and other fancy figures are embroidered with silk. In spite of the neatness of the English machine-made cloths and the cheap price at which they are sold, the cotton fabrics of Santipore are not in the least depreciated, but rather increased in value, whereas the weavers of other places being unable to compete with the former, have almost left their hereditary avocation and have betaken themselves to other business for their livelihood."

RAJSHAHYE DIVISION.—There was an increase in the manufacture of country cloth in Pubna. The Dagatchee dhooties are specially valued. These dhooties are largely exported to the different districts of Bengal. Urni chaddars manufactured at Chotadhul and also at Dagatchee are of a very fine texture, and are much appreciated by the richer classes.

CHITTAGONG DIVISION.—Chittagong District.—" The Hindus have nearly all left off wearing country-made cloths. The Mughs chiefly, and to a certain extent the Mahomedans, still use country-made cloth considerably, but the fabric is generally made of foreign yarn twist which has nearly driven the country-made yarn out of the market.

" The system of weaving and the quality produced by the native weavers show no improvement."

Tipperah District.—" English piece-goods have almost entirely driven the country-made cloths out of the market, and the weavers have generally taken to cultivation and manual labour. There are, however, a few weavers in the Brahmunberiah sub-division and in the Sudder thanah who still earn their livelihood by their ancestral profession. The 'chudders' made by some of these weavers at Brahmunberiah have a reputation among the natives as being superior to those imported from England. The weavers make their cloth by hand, and mostly use English yarn, but the manufacture of cloth by steam is unknown in this district."

PATNA DIVISION.—Mozufferpore District.—" In the northern part of this district a kind of cloth is manufactured called 'Koktee' which is highly esteemed by the Hindus, and is exclusively used for the purposes of pooja, &c."

Chumparun District.—" The local manufacture of cloth has been superseded almost entirely by machine-made articles."

BHAGULPORE DIVISION.—There is nothing new to report under this head. The Collector of Bhagulpore reports that the cotton-weavers of his district are not well off, but in the north, they derived benefit from an increase in the Nepal demand for country cloth from Rs. 2,647 to Rs. 11,923

ORISSA DIVISION.—Pooree District.—" Cotton piece-goods of country manufacture are imported from the south, and the value is estimated to be Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 60,000. They fetch a high price on account of their durability and variety of their colour. The price of a pair of dhooties and a sari varies from Re. 1-12 to Rs 4-8 each."

INDIGO.

50. The total quantity of indigo imported into, and exported from, Calcutta during the past three years, was as follows:—

SPECIFICATION OF ROUTES.	IMPORTS.			EXPORTS.

The season's crop was about the same as in the previous year. There were increases in the outturn in Lower Bengal and Behar, with decreases in Benares and the Doab. The quality of the crop varied. In some cases it was decidedly better than in the previous year, while in others it was inferior. The average price per Indian maund shown in the Custom House returns was Rs. 232, against Rs. 231 in the preceding year. Regarding the consumption of East Indian indigo in the United Kingdom itself, the Customs Collector, observes:—

"The consumption in the United Kingdom showed a falling off compared with the two previous years, though it was in excess of 1885, and it has been stated that the demand for aniline substitutes is perceptibly increasing, and, unless the price of indigo keeps low, will increase. Prices were, however, low last year: in fact, the quotation for good Bengal at the close of 1888 was the lowest known for the past ten years."

Imports.

51. The total import trade during the year showed a decrease of 2·08 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, but it was 2·02 per cent. in excess of the figures of 1886-87. In the case of the East Indian Railway, the figures advanced by 1·87 per cent. in comparison with the previous year, while the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a falling off of 26·20 per cent. The following statement shows in detail the different provinces from which indigo was consigned to Calcutta during the past three years:—

The indigo crop in Chumparun and Sarun, and in the Bhagulpore Division generally, was slightly better than in the previous year, while of the Bengal districts, only Midnapore and Nuddea show a better outturn. In Rungpore also there was a larger outturn, but the industry in the Rajshahye Division is on the decline. The decrease in the imports from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh is due to smaller despatches from Etawah, Farukhabad, and Cawnpore.

Exports.

52. In the export trade there was very little change in comparison with the figures of the two previous years. The quantity exported by sea during the past three years was distributed as follows:—

The fluctuations noticed in the foregoing statement have been explained by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, who writes as follows:—

"The exports of indigo show a small decline in the past year. The United Kingdom and Austria have taken about the same quantity as in the previous year, while to France there has been a heavy decline, against increases to Germany and the United States.

"The United States have received 17¾ per cent. more than in 1887-88 direct from India, instead of buying it in London. The description principally shipped was Oudh indigo, of which the United States was the chief consumer last year. The exports to the continent of Europe, except to France, which country probably obtained a portion of what it required in London, were about the same as in the previous year, while to Germany there was an increase in direct shipments of 26¼ per cent, due to greater facilities for direct shipment. Stocks in continental Europe, including all kinds, are higher than they were in the previous year, and were estimated at 4,000 chests at the close of 1888 The total consumption of Europe is said to be 33,500 chests. The direct shipments to Russia continue to advance the figures for the past year being 2,087 cwt., value Rs. 7,23,280, against 1,623 cwt., value Rs. 5,03,924, in 1887-88."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

53. The surplus of imports over exports amounted to 8,699 maunds, against 11,153 maunds in 1887-88, and 5,337 maunds in 1886-87.

Imports.

55. The import trade showed a steady increase, the figures for the past year being 17·85 per cent. and 39·12 per cent. in excess of those for 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The supplies carried by country boats showed a large increase of 20 08 per cent. on the trade of the previous year, that by inland steamers of 8·76 per cent., that by the Eastern Bengal State Railway of 9·67 per cent, that by the East Indian Railway of 154·07 per cent., and that by road routes of 112·28 per cent. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, reports that a larger area was under cultivation and consequently the outturn was larger than that of the previous year. Prices at the same time were higher, and the cultivation of this staple last year should, therefore, have proved very remunerative. At one time of the year freights were very high, and consequently business was restricted to a certain extent

56. The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division makes the following remarks on the condition of the jute crop during the past official year:—

"The outturn of jute was better in every district, except Julpigoree, where it suffered from the excessive rainfall at the sowing time. The high price of jute that ruled during the year has in a great measure helped the ryots to meet the deficient rice crop."

In Dacca, though the outturn of jute was less than usual, the ryots, it is aid, were compensated by the high price which it commanded in the market.

In Furreedpore the crop was good both in quality and quantity. Regarding Mymensing, the Commissioner writes:—

"In Jamalpore, jute was slightly damaged for want of rain, but on the whole business in this article was brisk all over the district. Messrs. Ralli Brothers, David and Company, and some native firms of Calcutta, sent out agents for purchase of jute at local centres; and in consequence of this competition, the price went up, the average being about Rs. 5 a maund."

The Administration Report of the Presidency Division shows that in the 24-Pergunnahs district jute yielded a full crop in Bussirhat, where it is largely cultivated, and fetched a good price; in the Baraset sub-division also the crop was excellent. In the Jessore district the outturn in Bongong was affected by scanty rainfall in May and by floods in September, while in Jhenidah, the jute cultivated on high lands suffered owing to the scantiness of rain, but in the Magoorah sub-division it is said to have been one of the important sources of income to the cultivators during the year. In the district of Khoolna this staple yielded an average outturn

Jute was a poor crop in the Tipperah district, but the price it fetched was high and quite made up for the deficiency in quantity. In Purneah, in the Bhagulpore Division, jute cultivation was extended during the year.

57. The principal districts which contributed largely to the trade are shown below, arranged in the order of the quantities despatched by them to Calcutta, the supplies carried by rail being also noted:—

The following account of the jute trade with foreign countries is given in the report of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, for the year 1888-89 :—

"The exports of jute have again advanced, and the figures are for a second year the highest tabulated.

"To the United Kingdom the shipments increased 22·4 per cent., to Austria 10·8 per cent., and to Germany 86·5 per cent., against decreases to the United States of 22·6 per cent., and to Australia of 23 per cent. The increase in the total shipments amounts to 12·6 per cent. The jute trade in Dundee was in a fairly prosperous condition. With the higher prices ruling on this side there was a considerable advance in values, the quotations in a trade circular for good medium jute during the past five years there being—

1884 ...	12	1885 ...	12	1886 ...	12	1887 ...	13	1888 ...	16

"To the United States, our second largest customer for jute, the decline is 22·6 per cent. This decline is noticeable, especially with a large jute crop available. The figures shown under this country include jute and jute butts and cuttings. The falling off is only in the latter, and, I am informed, due to 'Trusts' having been formed by the mills using cuttings and by the paper mills using butts in that country to manipulate prices and buy cheap here. Legitimate exporters had to operate with caution, and did not ship their usual quantities. Stocks accumulated there notwithstanding the smaller shipments, the figures being as follows for three years:—

1887 ...	21,000	1888 ...	32,000	1889 ...	97,700

"The increase under other countries is due to larger shipments to France, China, and Japan, with smaller exports to Italy."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

64. During the year under report, the surplus of imports over exports was 42,01,090 maunds, against 30,05,194 maunds in 1887-88, and 23,77,718 maunds in 1886-87.

The quantity carried by country boats exhibited a decrease of 12.33 per cent. as compared with the previous year, while the consignments by the Eastern Bengal State Railway fell off by 7·50 per cent. In the sea-borne trade also, the supplies during the past year showed a decrease of 70·72 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that the jute-manufacturing industry has had another prosperous year. The working of short time

continued, and was further extended, the mills now working only nine days in the fortnight. Regarding hand-made gunnies in the Rajshahye Division, the Commissioner observes:—

"In Dinagepore, jute cloth is manufactured to a considerable extent. This industry is chiefly carried on by females, especially the polias, and contributes a substantial addition to the earnings of the family. Gunny bags are manufactured in almost every district of the Division, and are largely exported."

Concerning this trade with foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes these remarks—

The exports of gunny bags increased during the past year in comparison with 1887-88 by 33 per cent., and they were the highest yet reached.

"The principal advance was to the United Kingdom, the exports to which showed the marked increase of 473 per cent. Notwithstanding the efforts of Dundee to keep out Indian-made goods, with any rise in prices, exports from here increase, and we take a share of the trade. The jute-manufacturing industry in Dundee was fairly prosperous, and with a gradually improving state of trade the manufacturers there must have had a satisfactory year.

"To Egypt the advance was 102·4 per cent., but the exports were not up to the average of previous years. These goods are principally corn sacks. The United States direct have taken 14 4 per cent., less than in the previous year, but the exports to Hong-Kong are largely for the United States. The exports of wheat from the United States were much smaller than in previous years, and therefore such large supplies of bags were not required. To the Straits Settlements there was an increase of 2 per cent, while to Australia there was a decline of 4·6 per cent., with an increase in the total value. The exports to the latter were on a large scale and much above the average owing to larger requirements for the exports of corn and wool. Under other countries the principal increases were to Cape Colony, Japan, and South America (Talcahuano)."

71. Of the total exports by internal routes, the East Indian Railway carried 18,793,565 bags, of which Delhi received 2,273,740 bags, Patna 2,169,475 bags, Cawnpore 1,822,835 bags, Sonthal Pergunnahs 789,075 bags, Burdwan 784,840 bags, Bhagulpore 596,645 bags, Fyzabad 591,290 bags. Beerbhoom, 586,285 bags, Shahabad 554,260 bags, Durbhunga 519,155 bags, Monghyr, 439,075 bags, Amritsur 425,880 bags, and other districts 7,241,010 bags. Of the supply exported by country boats, 686,192 bags were consigned to Hooghly, 305,126 bags to the 24-Pergunnahs, 138,786 bags to Nuddea, 93,469 bags to Burdwan, 83,058 bags to Bhagulpore, 51,520 bags to Midnapore, and 218,331 bags to other districts.

Comparison of imports with exports.

72. If imports be deducted from exports, a deficit of 133,226,917 bags will be found, against a similar deficit of 110,353,813 bags in 1887-88, and of 101,370,823 bags in 1886-87. This result is due to the large manufacture of gunny bags in Calcutta and the Suburbs.

GUNNY-CLOTH.

73. The registered trade of Calcutta in gunny-cloth, carried by internal routes during the past year, as compared with the totals of the two previous years, was as follows:—

It has been explained in previous reports that gunny-bags and gunny-cloth are shown together in the railway returns. Moreover, in the case of the trade by road and river, this article is registered in pieces, while in the sea-borne trade returns it is shown in yards. For the purpose of converting pieces into yards, a machine-made piece is taken as equal to 80 yards and a hand-made piece as equal to 22 yards. The foregoing figures, therefore, do not represent the actual extent of the transactions in Calcutta under this head, part of the trade in gunny-cloth having been included under the next preceding head "Gunny-bags."

74. The sea-borne trade of Calcutta under this heading during the past three years is shown below:—

Imports.

75. The quantity imported by internal routes increased by 6·72 per cent. over those of 1887-88, but it was 8·54 per cent., below the trade of 1886-87. Last year there was a great recovery in the imports by road routes as compared with the preceding year, but the figures were still less than those of 1886-87 by 18·27 per cent. The total trade of the past year comprised 4,639 pieces of power-loom manufacture, and 35,813 hand-made pieces. The sources of supply were as follows:—

Exports.

76. The total quantity exported by sea during the year showed an advance of 6·48 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88, and of 9·68 per cent. on those of 1886-87. The subjoined statement has been prepared to indicate its destination:—

On this subject the Customs report for 1888-89 gives the following explanation :—

"The increase in gunny cloth is principally due to larger exports to the United Kingdom, the demand there for hessians being fairly good. To the United States the shipments were the smallest in the five years tabulated."

Comparison of imports with exports.

77. The surplus of exports over imports amounted to 19,301,900 yards, against 18,001,485 yards in 1887-88, and 16,978,481 yards in 1886-87. This represents part of the outturn of the steam mills in and around Calcutta.

Outturn of the mills in the vicinity of Calcutta.

78. Besides the registered supplies detailed above, the traffic returns of the Nuddea rivers also show a large quantity of power-loom gunny cloth, amounting to 150,573 pieces, sent up-country direct from the jute mills without passing the Port Commissioners' wharves. The destination of these exports, as compared with the figures of the two preceding years, was as follows :—

79. The number of jute mills worked by steam in the vicinity of Calcutta during each of the past two years was 22 against 21 in 1886-87. The quantity of jute worked up in 1888-89 was 48,16,445 maunds, against 44,29,382 maunds in 1887-88, and 36,21,578 maunds in 1886-87. Separate figures to show the quantity of the raw material used in the manufacture of gunny bags and gunny cloth are not given in the returns. The following statement shows the number of looms and spindles at work, and the quantity of raw jute consumed in the different mills in the districts of Hooghly, Howrah, and the 24-Pergunnahs, during the past year as compared with the totals of the two preceding years:—

FOOD-GRAINS.

80. Owing to the poor outturn of crops, the food-grain traffic of Calcutta showed a falling off during the past year. Under imports, the aggregate quantity was 13·39 per cent. below that of 1887-88, and 13·83 per cent. less than that of 1886-87, while in the export trade, the figures exhibited a fall of 19·51 per cent. and 15·66 per cent., respectively. The details of the trade under each class of food-grains during the past three years, are given below:—

The following remarks have been extracted from the Customs Report for the past official year :—

"There was a smaller crop on this side to account for our smaller exports; also freights were at one time very high from Calcutta, and this may have been discouraging, and sent wheat, which would otherwise have gone from here, elsewhere.

"The price of wheat in the United Kingdom fluctuated considerably during 1888. At one time it rose beyond the point which is admitted to be the limit at which wheat-growing is profitable to the British farmer, viz. 35*s*. per quarter. The Gazette price quoted on the 1st September was 36*s*. 4*d*. per quarter, while on the 15th of that month it had reached 38*s*. 1*d*. Then there were large importations of foreign wheat, and prices fell. It would appear that with improved mechanical appliances and lower rents the prospects of English wheat are not as gloomy as they have been, and the area under wheat has been increased.

"The growers of wheat in the United States are said to have been discouraged by the low prices which have ruled so long."

84. The decrease in imports noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, when the figures fell off by 24·09 per cent. and 49·88 per cent. in comparison with the trade of the two years 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. By far the largest decrease occurred in the quantities carried by the East Indian Railway, the figures for which fell off by 22·01 per cent. on those of 1887-88. The consignments by boat exhibited a decrease of 26·54 per cent., those by the Eastern Bengal State Railway of 27·29 per cent., and those by inland steamers of 66·82 per cent. The distribution of the imports is classified according to provinces in the following statement:—

Imports.

Of the Behar districts, the largest decrease was in the exports from Monghyr and Patna, each of which sent upwards of 4 lakhs of maunds less than in 1887-88. Next come Bhagulpore and the Sonthal Pergunnahs, each with over 2½ lakhs of maunds less, and then Durbhunga and Chumparun, each with more than 1½ lakhs below last year's trade.

In consequence of indifferent harvests during the year under report there was a falling off in the supplies received from all the Behar districts except Shahabad and Sarun. As regards the former district, the Collector makes these remarks:—

"The increase in the exports of wheat is remarkable in view of what has been stated elsewhere as to the short crops and the straitened circumstances of the people during the year. But it must be borne in mind first, that we have no figures for the exports by river; and secondly, that a large portion of the crops is not exported in the same official year in which it is grown, but in April, May, and June, and even later. At the same time this large increase in exportation by rail during the year does not look as if people had any apprehension of a scarcity of food-grains, especially as wheat is ordinarily quite as cheap as rice."

The fluctuations in the foreign trade are explained by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, as follows:—

"There was a decline in the exports of wheat in the year 1887-88, and in the past year there has been a further fall amounting to 32 per cent.

"To the United Kingdom the fall has been over one million cwts., while to Belgium and France there was more sent. The total exports from India to all these countries were considerably larger than in the previous years, for Bombay and Kurrachi exported much larger quantities.

"The quantities of wheat imported into the United Kingdom from the different countries are shown in the following table:—

"India continues to occupy the third place, but in the past year Russia, owing to two large harvests, has supplanted the United States and taken the first place, her exports to the United Kingdom being far ahead of any other country. When supplies fell short from America, large quantities were immediately forthcoming from other markets, including Germany, Roumania, and Australasia.

"The exports to Belgium were double those of the previous year, while to France there was an increase of over 35 per cent These larger exports were due, I believe, to the wheat crops in these two countries having partially failed. Holland has taken no wheat from India during the past year, while to Malta the shipments have been nil for many years. The practice of storing wheat in granaries in that island in view of any scarcity in the neighbouring markets appears to have been abandoned so far as Calcutta-shipped wheat is concerned. The exports to other countries were not of any importance, the principal being to Egypt—no doubt 'for orders.'

"There were large shipments to Italy from Calcutta during 1886-87 and 1887-88, but in the past year they were very trifling. I notice also there was a heavy fall in the exports from Bombay. The large imports of wheat meal and flour into the United Kingdom, referred to in last year's report, though smaller, continued in the past year, as the following figures show:—

"India takes no part as yet in this trade, though there are mills both in Calcutta and Bombay which are provided with the latest milling machinery, so I conclude the country demand is sufficient to take off the outturn. A check has certainly been given to the imports of flour into India, which have shown a steady decline for the past two years, the figures being—

94. In the import trade, which fell off by 25·34 per cent. and 5·65 per cent. on the returns of the two years 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, the largest decrease, namely 5,59,461 maunsd, occurred in the quantities carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway, the supply brought by country boats also showing a considerable decline of 6,37,008 maunds as compared with 1887-88. By far the largest fall was in the imports from Bengal, and was due to the despatches from Furreedpore having declined by 3,65,683 maunds, from Nuddea by 2,90,600 maunds, from Jessore by 1,95,776 maunds, from Pubna by 1,05,942 maunds, from Moorshedabad by 76,289 maunds, and from Rajshahye by 74,666 maunds. In the case of the supplies from Behar, the principal fluctuations were an increase of 85,509 maunds from the Sonthal Pergunnahs, 18,683 maunds from Maldah, 15,275 maunds from Sarun, and 10,081 maunds from Purneah, against a decrease of 1,07,897 maunds from Patna, and 69,728 maunds from Monghyr. The districts which contributed to the falling off in the supplies from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh were Allahabad (1,57,533 maunds) and Cawnpore (83,054 maunds); while Delhi which sent 90,050 maunds in excess of the previous consignment was the chief district in the Punjab which showed an increase.

97. Of the steamer stations, Santipore in Nuddea exported by far the largest quantity to Calcutta, viz., 11,979 maunds against 12,942 maunds in 1887-88, (and 4,090 maunds in 1886-87. The imports from Patna are rapidly declining, being only 3,304 maunds in the past year, against 4,540 maunds in 1887-88, and 31,405 maunds in 1886-87.

Principal stations on steamer routes.

98. In the case of the road traffic, Baraset was the only mart which despatched large quantities of gram and pulse to Calcutta, viz., 13,681 maunds, against 29,299 maunds in 1887-88, and 9,750 maunds in 1886-87.

Principal marts on road routes.

99. The decrease in the export trade during the past year was 36·49 per cent. and 5·98 per cent. on the figures for the two previous years, respectively. The details of the sea-borne trade are given in the following statement:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks under this head:—

"The exports of gram show a falling off in comparison with 1887-88 of 26 per cent.

"To the Mauritius the large exports of the previous year, which probably were in excess of requirements, were followed by a fall of 36 per cent. Ceylon also took a smaller quantity, while the Straits Settlements, the United Kingdom, and Réunion all received larger supplies.

"The considerable decline in exports of gram from Calcutta was due, no doubt, to a smaller crop and to larger shipments from other ports, as the total exports from India show only a small decline. There were very much smaller exports to coast ports during the past year, and there is no doubt that the sources from which our supplies of gram are drawn had a smaller surplus for export than they had in the previous year."

100. Last year the total quantity not exported before the close of the year was 17,83,901 maunds, against 18,71,850 maunds in 1887-88, and 18,82,588 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

The boat traffic, which amounted to 75·42 per cent. of the total trade, was 7,35,808 maunds, or 6·02 per cent. less than in the previous year. The traffic carried by rail showed a decrease of 18·59 per cent., namely, 4,07,146 maunds, or 21·31 per cent. on the East Indian line, and 1,18,094 maunds, or 13·07 per cent., on the Eastern Bengal line. The quantity carried by road routes exhibited a decrease of 1,54,871 maunds, or 19·59 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, but in the supplies imported by inland steamers, there was an increase of 1,51,365 maunds, or 144·29 per cent., and in the sea-borne imports of 1,42,296 maunds, or 34·14 per cent.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks on the condition of this trade during the past official year:—

"Ceylon is the principal consumer of Bengal rice, and the shipments to it were large and above the average, though less than in the previous year. The population of Ceylon must have increased of late years with the extension of tea-growing and the consequent influx of coolies who require Bengal rice.

"The United Kingdom is the second largest consumer of our rice, and the exports to that country were large. The consumption of rice in Europe is now said to have reached the very large quantity of one million tons. The partial failure of the continental potato crop may have done something to stimulate the consumption of rice, but the enormous quantity that has come to be absorbed must indicate its growing popularity as a staple article of food. There were no great fluctuations in prices during the year, and those concerned in the trade—shippers, millers, and speculators—are all said to have done well.

"In view of the above, the following table, showing the exports of rice to Europe from the various sources of supply for the past five calendar years, and the position of our competitors, at the end of 1888, may be found interesting:—

"The heaviest decline was to Mauritius, but the shipments of the previous year had been very large ones. Less was shipped also to South America, the West Indies, and Arabia. To Germany there was a considerable decline, with an advance to France of 46,698 cwt. To the eastern coast of Africa there was a decline, which, however, was more than made up by larger shipments from other ports.

"The exports of paddy declined in the past year in comparision with 1887-88 by 30 per cent. Ceylon is the only country that has taken this grain in quantity, and the shipments to that island advanced by 39 per cent., the decline shown being due to a falling off to 'other countries.'"

110. Under this heading are included barley, kodo, shama, Indian corn, oats, millets and other crops, which are reaped during the spring and rainy seasons. The aggregate quantity carried to and from Calcutta during the past three years is given below :—

111. The imports during the past year were nearly the same as those of 1887-88, but they show a falling off of 88,135 maunds, or 19·12 per cent. on the returns of 1886-87. Compared with 1887-88, the boat traffic shows a falling off of 28·19 per cent., while the consignments by the East Indian Railway rose by 13·42 per cent. The sources of supply, classified by provinces, are specified below :—

The decrease in the supply from Behar was chiefly due to the consignments from the Bhagulpore district having fallen off by 59,045 maunds. Of the increase under Bengal, the Nuddea district contributed 23,508 maunds, and Burdwan 3,407 maunds, while Moorshedabad exported 7,338 maunds less than in the preceding year.

112. The different river marts and railway stations which contributed largely to the trade during the past three years are detailed below :—

113. The quantity exported during the last year showed a decrease of 28·93 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 24·24 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The supply exported by sea was distributed in the following way :—

HIDES.

115. The hide trade of Calcutta during the past year, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years, was as follows:—

The hide trade again showed a falling off during the past year. The Customs report states that the market was dull during the greater part of the year, and supplies small throughout.

116. The import trade fell off by 11·36 per cent. and 26·47 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The supplies attracted to the railways showed a decrease of 9·72 per cent. as compared with the previous year, while the road traffic was less by 52·81 per cent., and the sea-borne imports by 10 99 per cent. The different provinces which contributed to the trade, were as follows:—

The Behar supply consisted of 1,066,720 pieces from the Patna Division, against 1,331,226 pieces and 1,791,057 pieces in 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively; and 409,851 pieces, against 443,188 pieces and 741,355 pieces, from the Bhagulpore Division. The details for Bengal for the three years are as follow:—

In his General Administration Report for the past year, the Commissioner of the Dacca Division remarks that the falling off in the export of hides "is stated to be due to the severe competition of Madras and the dealers of the English hide market."

The consignments from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh were chiefly drawn from the following districts:—

The steamer service of the Eastern Bengal State Railway carried 720,040 pieces from Dacca, against 1,002,352 pieces in 1887-88.

118. The bulk of the imports by country boats during the past three years was consigned from the following marts:—

120. The imports by sea during the past year were shipped from Balasore (266,241 pieces, against 276,781 pieces in 1887-88), Chittagong (70,520 pieces, against 88,430 pieces), Burma (29,330 pieces, against 69,546 pieces), and Madras (75,233 pieces, against 60,593 pieces).

Imports by sea.

121. In the export trade there was a decrease of 5·63 per cent. and 23·95 per cent. in comparison with the two previous years. The destination of the exports by sea is shown in the following statement:—

On this subject, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks:—

"The United Kingdom is our principal market for hides, taking more than half of our entire exports. The decline to this country was 12·2 per cent., and this although there were larger exports from the United Kingdom of articles made of leather and of boots and shoes. The imports from other countries into the United Kingdom also show a fall in dry against an increase in wet hides. A large proportion of the hides imported from India are re-exported principally to the continent of Europe, the following figures showing the total re-exports to Europe:—

1887 ... Cwts. 387,188 1888 ... Cwts. 404,555

"In dressed hides there was an increase in quantity with an increase in value. This trade, however, is not large."

Comparison of imports with exports.

122. The surplus of exports over imports amounted to 448,189 pieces against 116,217 pieces in 1887-88, and 353,206 pieces in 1886-87.

SALT.

123. The total quantity of salt imported into, and exported from, Calcutta during the past three years, was as follows:—

Year.	Imports into Calcutta by sea.			Exports from Calcutta and Hooghly.
				Inland exports.
	From Foreign ports.	From Indian ports.	Total.	By the East Indian Railway.	By the Eastern Bengal State Railway.	By inland steamer.	By boat.	By road.	Total.	Exports by sea.	Grand total.

It will be seen that there was a falling off both under imports and exports as compared with 1886-87, during which year the figures reached the highest limit since 1876-77. The customs duty on imported salt was raised from Rs. 2 to Rs. 2-8, with effect from the 19th January, 1888. The condition of the import salt trade of Calcutta during the past year is thus explained by the Collector of Customs:—

"The importations of salt advanced during the past year as compared with 1887-88 by 5 per cent. This increase is principally from the United Kingdom, Egypt, Aden, and Persia. Again no salt has come from France and Italy.

"The stocks in bond were larger at the close of the year than in 1887-88. They were as follows for the past five years:—

1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
Tons.	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.

"The actual consumption has, however, been slightly higher than in 1887-88, in spite of the increase in duty and the higher prices brought about by the Salt Syndicate. This Syndicate has gradually raised the price of Liverpool salt from 6*s.* 6*d.* per ton to 16*s.*, which taking the exchange at 1*s.* 4*d.*, adds 4½ annas to the cost per maund. It will be interesting to watch how far it will be feasible to run up the price of Liverpool salt without bringing in salt from other sources in place of it. Some native merchants here are setting up machinery for pounding the kurkutch salt, so as to bring it into the sameform as Liverpool salt, and it will be interesting also to watch the results of this experiment. There would seem to be no reason why unlimited supplies of kurkutch should not be manufactured at Aden and Perim."

124. According to the published fortnightly prices-current returns, the average retail price of salt in the Lower Provinces during 1888-89 was one seer and twelve chittacks, or 15·64 per cent. above that of 1887-88, and two seers and one chittack or 17·93 above that of 1886-87. The following comparative

125. There was a recovery in the salt trade, the total quantity imported by sea being 3,40,705 maunds, or 3·53 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1887-88, but it was still below those for 1886-87 by 49,432 maunds, or ·49 per cent. The following extract is taken from the Report on the administration of the Salt Department for the year 1888-89 :—

"The importations to Calcutta from the United Kingdom, Bombay, Aden, and Mozambique show an increase, those from Hamburg and Arabian and Persian Gulfs a falling off. The most marked increase was in the importations from the United Kingdom, being about 7 lakhs of maunds over that of the previous year. A trade in duty-paid salt from Madras was started during the year, 33,360 maunds of this salt having been imported for the first time. On the application of a Coconada firm, the Board have, with the approval of Government, agreed to duty-paid salt imported from Madras being cleared from shipboard without re-weighment at Calcutta, on condition that the quantity paying duty was certified to by the Madras authorities, and the importers waived all claim to wastage allowance."

126. The total quantity of indigenous salt imported into Calcutta by the East Indian Railway during 1888-89 was 730 maunds, against 353 maunds and 300 maunds in 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. Of the past year's supply, 297 maunds were received from the Punjab, and 433 maunds from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

Exports.

127. It will be seen that the exports during the past year were much the same as in 1887-88, but they fell off by 3,71,364 maunds, or 4·21 per cent., as compared with the figures for 1886-87. As regards the several routes followed by the trade, the traffic on the East Indian Railway decreased by 5·06 per cent.; while that carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway increased by 2·66 per cent., that carried by inland steamers by 19·24 per cent., that on road routes by 1·97 per cent., and that by boat by ·69 per cent. The exports by sea also exceeded the figures for the previous year by 37·84 per cent. The following statement illustrates the distribution of the exports, province by province, during the past three years:—

Comparison of imports with exports.

128. According to the foregoing figures, the exports balance the imports with a surplus amounting to 15,25,860 maunds, against 11,83,596 maunds in 1887-88, and 12,03,498 maunds in 1886-87.

Clearances from boardship and bond.

129. The aggregate quantity of salt on which duty was paid in Calcutta and the 24-Pergunnahs during the past three years, as compared with the quantity sent to the interior from Calcutta, was as follows:—

Saltpetre is brought to Calcutta chiefly for export to Europe. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, states that there was a good demand for it in the Calcutta market for part of the year, with an advance in prices, which, however, was partly lost at the close of the year. On the other hand, it is satisfactory to notice that the large supplies of nitrate of soda carried to the United Kingdom have not interfered with the saltpetre trade.

140. The total increase in the import trade was 7·23 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and 6 71 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The advance occurred in the quantities carried by the East Indian Railway, the figures showing a rise of 7·64 per cent. on those of the previous year. The following are the different provinces which contributed to the trade during the past three years.—

The year under report was favourable for the manufacture of saltpetre, and the outturn was larger than in 1887-88. The advance in the imports from Behar is made up of an increase of 51,633 maunds from Sarun, 20,485 maunds from Durbhunga, and 12,979 maunds from Chumparun, against a decrease of 22,771 maunds from Patna, and 5,810 maunds from Bhagulpore.

141. The imports by rail during the past three years were drawn chiefly from the following stations:—

The following extracts regarding the fluctuations in the foreign trade are taken from the Calcutta Custom's Report for the year 1888-89:—

"The exports of saltpetre show a recovery after the fall in 1887-88 of 8·8 per cent.

"The two principal countries that take saltpetre are the United Kingdom and China, the shipments to which advanced by 9 and 15·8 per cent. respectively. The trade in nitrate of soda largely influences the trade in saltpetre with the United Kingdom; it improved and the exports of saltpetre increased, though not to the same extent, and prices were on the average very slightly higher than in the previous year.

"To the United States the shipments were on about the same level as in the previous year. They were, however, small compared with the exports of five years ago. China has taken over 14.000 cwt in excess of the previous year, and the figures are now approaching what they were five years ago. Exports to the Straits Settlements show a considerable advance, while to Australia there was a falling off."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

143. Last year the imports balanced the exports with a surplus amounting to 1,16,474 maunds, against 1,15,296 maunds in 1887-88, and 83,204 maunds in 1886-87.

The Customs report of the past year states that the crops at, and about, Patna were damaged by unseasonable rain: difficulties in connection with obtaining freight, and the high rates ruling, also had a depressing effect upon exports at one time of the year.

Imports.

145. As regards the imports, the result of the last year's traffic showed a falling off of 5·61 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 2·42 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The decrease was most marked in the supplies carried by the East Indian Railway (5·66 per cent.) and by boat (10·03 per cent.), the imports by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showing a rise of 28·43 per cent. The following statement shows the different provinces from which linseed was imported into Calcutta during the past three years:—

The chief districts in Behar which sent smaller supplies than in 1887-88 were Patna, Durbhunga, Bhagulpore and Chumparun, the exports being 5,83,806 maunds, 1,66,142 maunds, 83,216 maunds, and 55,204 maunds, respectively, below last year's figures. The principal districts which contributed to the increase in the imports from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh were Fyzabad (1,50,601 maunds), Gorruckpore (93,835 maunds), Baraich (86,294 maunds), and Bara Banki (74,995 maunds). The decline in the supplies from the Central Provinces and Rajputana was chiefly in the exports from Sutna, which fell off by 54,218 maunds.

146. The imports of linseed by rail during the past three years came chiefly from the following stations:—

148. It will be seen that the decrease last year in the export trade amounted to 4·06 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88, but when compared with 1886-87 the figures exhibit a trifling increase of ·71 per cent. The destination of the sea-borne trade was as follows:—

Concerning the exports to foreign ports the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The decline to the United Kingdom was 7·3 per cent. There was, however, no falling off in exports from other ports of India, the decline being only from Calcutta. The supplies of flax and linseed received by the United Kingdom were the highest ever known, as the following figures of imports show:—

	1886. Qrs.	1887. Qrs.	1888. Qrs.
From Russia ...	227,133	628,382	719,197
" British East Indies ...	1,673,906	1,366,418	1,610,000
" Other countries ...	180,244	346,375	212,821

"These figures show that Russia has sent larger supplies and the River Plate smaller, owing to a poor crop. India, notwithstanding the large supplies from other countries increased her shipments.

"There was a higher range of prices in the United Kingdom notwithstanding the large supplies. Large purchases were made here for America, which sent up prices both in Calcutta and other markets. The quotations for Calcutta linseed in London for the two years 1887 and 1888 were:—

Year.	January. s.	d.	April. s.	d.	July. s.	d.	October. s.	d.	December. s.	d.
1887 ...	40	6	37	6	38	6	36	9	37	·6
1888 ...	42	3	43	3	41	3	40	0	40	6

"There was an enormous production of linseed oil in the United Kingdom during the year.

"To the United States the increase was 4 per cent, which following a year of large exports shows how strong a demand prevailed in that country. Large exports to the United States are only made when there is a bad crop of flax seed there, and probably this was the case during the past year. A linseed oil trust or syndicate has been formed in the United States to control prices, and probably the operations of this body have had something to do with the larger exports from here. It is stated that crushers of this seed, who have not entered the ring, are upholding the ring's prices. The United States does not receive any linseed from Bombay, but draws all its supplies from Calcutta. There was an advance to France of 29·1 per cent., probably an ordinary fluctuation, and also to Egypt, no doubt "for orders." The proportion of the exports of linseed from Calcutta as compared with the total shipments from India has slightly fallen off, as the following figures show:—

	1887-88. Cwt.	Per cent.	1888-89. Cwt.	Per cent.

" Calcutta ...	5,900,045	70	5,659,492	66·8"

149. During the year under report, the imports were 1,64,412 maunds below the exports. In 1887-88, however, the deficit of imports over exports was 42,914 maunds, against a surplus of imports over exports of 72,311 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

MUSTARD SEED.

150. The total quantity of mustard seed carried to, and from, Calcutta during the past three years, was as follows:—

151. The importation of mustard seed was below the figures for 1887-88 and 1886-87 by 11·39 per cent. and 25·59 per cent., respectively. The boat traffic fell off by 27·37 per cent., and the traffic attracted to the inland steamers by 31·03 per cent.

Imports.

On the other hand, the quantity carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a large increase of 64·43 per cent. on the total of the year preceding. In the following statement the total imports of mustard seed into Calcutta from the different provinces are arranged according to the volume of the trade :—

	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.

Though the decrease in the imports from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh amounted to only 68,907 maunds, the fluctuations in the exporting districts were very great; the despatches from Moradabad, Baraich, Gonda and Allighur declined by 2,11,418 maunds, while those from Hurdai, Sitapur, Bullandshar, Busti, Bara Banki, Fyzabad, Meerut, Cawnpore, Shahjehanpore, and Allahabad, increased by 1,39,706 maunds. Of the Behar districts in which the crop was poor, all showed diminished exports, especially Durbhunga (37,962 maunds), Sarun (26,030 maunds), Purneah (18,431 maunds), Monghyr (11,613 maunds), and Shahabad (11,017 maunds). Of the Bengal districts, Hooghly and Moorshedabad showed decreases of 21,128 maunds and 10,324 maunds, respectively, against increases of 10,728 maunds from Pubna, 4,482 maunds from Dacca, 2,925 maunds from Mymensingh, and 2,689 maunds from Jessore. The decrease under Assam is due chiefly to the consignments from Kamroop and Goalpara having fallen off by 42,278 maunds and 29,478 maunds, respectively.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks regarding this trade during the past year:—

"There has been a decrease in the exports of this seed of 34·7 per cent. There was a falling off to the United Kingdom of 19·2 per cent., and to France of 49·6 per cent. The figures under other countries represent larger shipments to Belgium. There was a failure in the continental crop, which was made up for by exports from other ports of India, the total shipments from this country showing a very heavy advance in comparison with the previous years."

156. After deducting the gross exports from the total quantity imported into Calcutta, there remained 11,59,166 maunds, against 11,72,221 maunds in 1887-88, and 12,15,445 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following observations on this trade with foreign countries:—

"The advance, was in chussum and cocoons, as the exports of raw silk show a decline. For a greater part of the year there was very little business doing, and prices fell, but at the close of 1888 a strong demand arose, and prices advanced considerably. The high rates demanded by sellers were paid in some instances, but at the close of the year prices had fallen again.

"So long as there are fair crops of Italian, China, and Japan silks at low prices as there were last year, Bengal silk will be at a discount."

158. Last year the imports showed a slight increase of 13·19 per cent. as compared with the figures of 1887-88, and of 11·48 per cent. when compared with 1886-87. The improvement was chiefly in the consignments carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway. The condition of the silk industry in the Lower Provinces is thus described in the Divisional Administration Reports for the past official year:—

Imports.

Silk (mulberry).

"Burdwan Division.—The subdivision of Bishenpore in Bankoora produces a durable silk cloth that finds a market in Calcutta. There is always a keen demand for the stuff called kutni, which is mostly used by up-country women. It is estimated that fabrics valued at Rs 9,000 were exported to Calcutta during the year. In Midnapore silks of the finest texture are manufactured at Ghatal, Radhanagore, and Nimtola, and are largely exported to the North-Western Provinces, Punjab, Madras, and Bombay. In Hooghly there is a considerable manufacture of silk cloths in the Serampore subdivision. In Beerbhoom the value of silk turned out is reported to have improved 10 per cent.

Silk (tussur).

"Tussur silk is manufactured in all districts except Howrah. In Bankoora the principal centres are Bankoora, Rajgram, Beersingpore, Sonamukhi, and Bishenpore. Business is reported to have been bad during the past year, cocoons having risen in price owing to a deficient supply* from Chota Nagpore and increased demand for Europe. It is reported that 20,000 kahuns of cocoons, valued at Rs. 2,80,000, were imported, and cloths valued at Rs. 15,000 manufactured during the year and mostly exported to Calcutta. In Burdwan, Mankor is the chief manufacturing centre. The total outturn during the year is reported to have been 335,325 yards (valued at Rs. 1,61,671), against 322,505 yards (worth Rs. 1,52,603) in 1887-88. In Beerbhoom the value of tussur turned out improved nearly 25 per cent.

"Presidency Division.—The silk season in the Moorshedabad district was on the whole a fair one. Climatic influences being favourable, disease amongst the silkworms was not so prevalent as usual. The March bund, which comprises the crops from March to June, was very good—better than for some years past. From July to September, or in the rainy bund, the weather was very unfavourable and considerably damaged what otherwise would have been a good crop. The November bund, i.e., from November to February, was a very good one. The mulberry crop was very good during the year, and the prices obtained for cocoons remunerated the rearers well.

"The outturn of silk-thread was much the same as in the previous year, though the prices were better. During the year under report there were 91 filatures in the district, against 77 in the previous year. They produced about 285,567 lb of silk, valued at Rs. 23,43,341. In the year 1887-88 the quantity of silk produced was 284,473lb, the value of which amounted to Rs. 21,06,134. It may be noted that during the year six filatures were closed and three new ones started. The value of outturn from three of the filatures at work during the year was not furnished by the managers.

"Experimental silk-worm rearing at Berhampore was carried on through a portion of the year by Mr. N. G. Mukherjee, under the direction of the Agricultural Department. The Director of Agriculture has expressed the following opinion:—

"There is no longer any doubt that silk-worms in Bengal are suffering from pebrine, nor in the light of Mr. Mukherjee's reports can there any longer be any doubt as to the method by which pebrine can be eradicated, namely, by microscopic examination and rejection of diseased moths The operations have now been transferred to the committee of silk merchants. Worms are being reared on a large scale with a view to supplying the villagers with healthy seed. Endeavours are also being made to induce the villagers to adopt improved methods of rearing, viz., in boxes covered with wire netting to protect the worms from the ravages of the silk fly."

An exhibition of local arts and industries was held at Moorshedabad in February, 1888, and proved a great success. The Nawab Bahadoor of Moorshedabad lent a building for the purpose, and subscribed handsomely. All the local zemindars and other chief residents of the district co-operated. There was a good collection of ivory objects, silk cocoons, silk fabrics, bidri-work, and other articles. Agricultural products, animals, and poultry, were also exhibited.

"Rajshahye Division.—Silk is manufactured in Rajshahye to a large extent. The estimated outturn is 88,985 pounds in 1888 as compared with 99,440 pounds in the previous year. In Bogra the silk industry has been almost driven out by competition, and the weavers have mostly become agriculturists. Endi silk is manufactured in Dinagepore, Bogra, Rungpore, and Julpigoree, and is much used by the lower classes.

"Bhagulpore Division.—The tusser silk industry in Bhagulpore still struggles on, but the price of cocoons was high, and silk thread sold at 5 tolahs per rupee, against 8 tolahs in the previous year. Twenty-four thousand three hundred and eleven pieces, valued at Rs. 80,197, are said to have been exported this year, against 39,948 pieces, valued at Rs. 1,00,356, in the previous year. In Maldah the two silk factories of Bholahat and Baragharia, with two out-offices of the former at Mahdipore and Jalalpore, worked throughout the year. The manufacture of silk started at Kaliachuck indigo factory during the previous year was abandoned. The outturn of the factories was—

	lbs.
Baragharia	20,424
Bholahat	10,000

"Besides these factories there are numerous native silk filatures. The large manufactories export directly to Calcutta and the North-Western Provinces, but the produce of the small filatures finds an extensive sale in the Sadullapore and Amanigunge hâts held in the district. The manufacture of silk fabrics is gradually decaying owing to the competition of European-made fabrics of a better and cheaper quality.

"Chota Nagpore Division.—In Manbhoom the total value of the outturn of tussar silk amounted to Rs. 5,500, against Rs. 9,000 in 1887-88, and Rs. 10,762 in 1886-87. In Palamow the attempt of Messrs. Hodges and Radford to start a filature for reeling tussar cocoons has proved a failure. In Hazaribagh tussar silk reeling is now carried on only by native methods in some half-a-dozen villages by a class of men called Patwas."

Principal railway stations.

159. The largest despatches made by the railway stations during the past year were from Goalundo (6,767 maunds against 2,681 maunds), Azimgunge (5,636 maunds against 5,866 maunds), Rampore Beauleah, (3,473 maunds against 312 maunds), Damookdeah (2,618 maunds against 4,425 maunds), and Moorarooe (2,506 maunds against 1,766 maunds in 1887-88).

Principal river marts.

160. The imports by country boats were consigned from Ghatal (1,355 maunds against 2,397 maunds), and Midnapore (654 maunds against 1,455 maunds).

Exports.

161. Compared with the transactions of 1887-88 and 1886-87, the past year's exports showed an advance of 11·45 per cent. and 10·09 per cent., respectively. The destination of the sea-borne trade during the past three years is shown below—

The Customs Report for 1888-89 gives the following explanation of the causes of fluctuation—

"The total exports of silk have increased in comparison with 1887-88 by 25·8 per cent. and the figures are the highest shown.

"The United Kingdom and France have taken larger quantities, while there has been a reduction to Italy. "The imports of Bengal silk into London were trifling compared with the total quantity of raw silk received there, and though deliveries were larger, stocks at the close of the year showed an increase, as will be seen from the following figures :—

	1887.	1888.		1887.	1888.		1887.	1888.

"France is our largest consumer of silk, and the advance to that country was 31·7 per cent. The principal portion of this was chussums. The exports to Italy have further declined by 60 per cent. The crop in that country was a good average one, prices were low, and owing to the change in the French tariff less silk was wanted in Italy."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

162. The result of the past year's traffic was a surplus of imports over exports, amounting to 3,748 maunds, against 2,929 maunds in 1887-88, and 3,050 maunds in 1886-87.

SUGAR.

164. The imports of refined sugar during the past year were 24·19 per cent. below the trade of 1887-88, and 2·28 per cent. below that of 1886-87. On the other hand, unrefined sugar showed an advance of 10·35 per cent. and 32·95 per cent. as compared with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. While the boat traffic showed an increase of 10,516 maunds under refined, and of 10,820 maunds under unrefined, sugar, the road traffic exhibited a decrease of 16,259 maunds, and 47,190 maunds, respectively The consignments by the East Indian Railway remained practically unchanged, but in the figures of the Eastern Bengal State Railway there was an increase of 51,493 maunds under unrefined sugar. As regards the sea-borne trade, a falling off of 1,17,369 maunds is shown under refined, and an increase of 1,20,289 maunds under unrefined, sugar. The total supply brought to Calcutta from each province is shown in the following statement:—

165. Last year the imports of refined sugar by sea were much below the figures of the previous year. The cause of the fluctuations which characterized the trade of the year is explained by the Customs Collector as follows:—

"We do not now grow sugar in Bengal in sufficient quantity to meet our home demand, for, as in the past few years, large supplies were received from foreign countries as well as from coast ports.

"The following were the importations from foreign countries :—

	1887-88. Cwts.	1888-89. Cwts.
United Kingdom	35,292	113
Austria	4,080	1
Mauritius	52,684	98,446
Hong-Kong	61,620	9,426
Straits Settlements	19,291	10,175
Java	33,935	Nil.

"The total importations were smaller than in the previous year, but they were still large. The most important were those of cane sugar from Mauritius. Sugar from Europe has declined to insignificance, after reaching for several years large figures.

"From Indian ports the importations amounted to 54,497 cwt., against 38,742 cwt. in 1887-88. A considerable quantity of this was Mauritius sugar transhipped at, or sent on from, Bombay."

166. The remarks made by some of the Divisional Commissioners on the general condition of the sugar industry in their Divisions during the past year, are extracted below :—

Presidency Division.—In the 24-Pergunnahs molasses (goor) and sugar made from the cane and date-palm juice continue to form an important local industry, especially in the Bussirhat and Baraset subdivisions. During the year under report the approximate outturn of goor from date-juice in the Bussirhat subdivision was 3,25,000 maunds, of which about 1,95,000 maunds were converted into sugar, 96,000 maunds were exported to Calcutta and elsewhere, and the rest locally consumed. The outturn of goor from both date-palm and cane in the Baraset subdivision is estimated at 1,50,000 maunds, of which about one-third was locally consumed, the rest being converted into sugar.

		1887-88. Price per maund.	1888-89. Price per maund.
		Rs. A. Rs. A.	Rs. A. Rs. A.
Date-palm	Goor	2 8 to 2 14	2 4 to 3 0
	Sugar	5 12 „ 6 0	6 4 „ 6 8
Cane ...	Goor	3 0 „ 3 8	3 0 „ 3 8
	Sugar	8 0 „ 8 8	7 8 „ 8 0

"The sugar mills at Cossipore turned out 1,15,200 maunds of sugar, valued at 11 lakhs of rupees, as compared with 86,000 maunds and 8 lakhs of rupees in the year 1887-88. The manufacture of sugar according to native process continues in the Baraset and Bussirhat subdivisions.

Sugar is manufactured almost all over the Jessore district, the principal place of manufacture being Kotechandpore in the Jhenidah subdivision. There is one manufactory at Kotechandpore, belonging to Mr. Newhouse, where refined sugar is manufactured by machinery The outturn from this factory and its value as noted below were :—

	1887-88. Outturn. Mds.	1887-88. Value. Rs.	1888-89. Outturn. Mds.	1888-89. Value. Rs.

	Mds.	Value. Rs.
1888-89	3,61,274	17,81,393

"Prices in the sugar market were lower than in 1887-88, and many of the manufacturers suffered loss in consequence. There were about 187 sugar factories at work during the year, against 200 in the previous year. About 100 of them are in the Jhenidah subdivision.

"A new factory has lately been started in the district by Mr. A. H. Newhouse for expressing mustard oil by machinery.

"In Khulna, sugar is the only important industry, and is carried on in all parts of the district. This industry is, however, now in a declining condition, imported sugar being more largely consumed than before. About 50,000 maunds of sugar were produced during the year under report and exported to various local markets and to Calcutta. In the previous year the outturn was about the same. The price of sugar varied from Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per maund. The other manufactures of the district, such as molasses, etc., are purely local, as stated in the reports of previous years."

Rajshahye Division.—" The cultivation of sugarcane is carried on more or less in every district. The Behea sugarcane mills are extensively used in Rajshahye, Bogra, and Rungpore, and are greatly appreciated by the people. In Darjeeling a very small quantity of molasses is manufactured for home consumption only."

Bhagulpore Division.—" The cultivation of sugarcane is increasing rapidly in Banka, and is also growing in North Bhagulpore. The kind of sugarcane most cultivated is that which bears a flower. It grows rapidly and yields more juice.

The Annual Administration Report of the Dacca Division shows that the manufacture of coarse sugar in the Furreedpore district decreased from 13,191 maunds to 9,080 maunds, the number of factories having fallen from 20 to 13.

Exports.

168. The exports of refined sugar were 11·94 per cent. less than the trade of 1887-88, but 0·59 per cent. in excess of that of 1886-87. Under unrefined sugar there was an increase of 17·18 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 49·48 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The details of the sea-borne trade are shown in the following statement :—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks regarding refined sugar :—

" The exports of refined sugar were small in 1887-88, but in the past year they were smaller still, and the figures are insignificant. To Europe the trade is practically extinct, for the only shipments were those to the United Kingdom. With the immense production of beetroot sugar on the Continent, much of it bounty-fed, it is not to be expected that our exports will rise again. Prices were slightly higher in the home markets than they were in the previous year, but not to an extent to attract imports from here. Bengal sugar is now so completely out of the home market that the Economist, in its annual list of prices of commodities, has not quoted it for the past five years."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

169. After converting refined into unrefined sugar at the rate of one maund of the former to 2½ maunds of the latter, the total of the year's traffic aggregated 22,18,755 maunds under imports, and 9,43,206 maunds under exports, leaving a balance of 12,75,549 maunds not exported before the close of the year, against a similar surplus of 14,90,629 maunds in 1887-88, and of 11,54,301 maunds in 1886-87.

171. The increase shown in 1886-87 and 1887-88 was fully maintained, and still further extended during the year under report, but the average price per lb. according to the Calcutta Customs return fell from 9 annas 6 pies in 1886-87, and 9 annas 5 pies in 1887-88, to 8 annas 6 pies in 1888-89. The prospects of the tea industry are thus described by the Collector of Customs, in his report for 1888-89 :—

"There were increases in the production of tea in all the growing districts except Chittagong and Chota Nagpore, the figures, compared with the previous year, being as follows :—

	lbs.	lbs.
Assam	37,849,202	41,865,499
Cachar and Sylhet	27,156,589	27,343,505
Darjeeling, Terai, and Dooars	14,997,805	18,950,822
Chittagong and Chota Nagpore	1,538,249	1,148,458
Dehra-Dun, Kumaon, and Kangra	3,750,000	4,000,000
Private and native gardens	1,500,000	3,000,000
Total ...	86,791,845	96,308,284

"The largest increases appear in the Assam and Darjeeling, Terai and Dooars districts, where there have been extensions and new gardens have been opened out. This has been especially the case in the Dooars, which is comparatively speaking quite a new tea-growing district and has sprung into importance only within the last few years."

"The crop of tea last year was of poor quality and below the average, partly owing to climatic causes and partly to a more general sacrifice of quality to quantity. From its consisting to a large extent of ordinary and common qualities, the prices for these were very low, while for the scarcer good qualities they remained about the same, and were even in some cases higher than in the previous year: the general result, however, was a serious contraction of about 1*d.* per lb. in the average price obtained. Speaking generally, the past year has not been a bad one for tea proprietors, notwithstanding the lower prices, though of course many gardens have done badly. Old and worn out, or expensively opened out, or extravagantly managed gardens cannot compete at these prices with new gardens made and worked in the most economical manner.

"The estimate for the current year shows a further advance of over ten millions, the General Committee of the Indian Tea Association giving the figures as follows :—

	lbs.
Assam	44,953,400
Cachar and Sylhet	31,990,400
Darjeeling, Terai, and Dooars	20,460,620
Chittagong and Chota Nagpore	1,536,740
Dehra-Dun, Kumaon, and Kangra	4,500,000
Private and native gardens	3,500,000
Total ...	106,941,160

"With this enormous increase in production and Ceylon rapidly increasing its exports, there must be a further fall in prices unless new markets can be opened out. What the prospects are in this direction it is difficult to say. I am informed that the quantity of tea consumed in India by natives is still almost nominal.

"Ceylon continues to make rapid strides, the figures for the past five years being :—

1884.	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.
lbs.	lbs.	lbs.	lbs.	lbs.
2,392,973	4,372,721	7,819,888	13,834,057	23,820,471

"The quality has to some extent deteriorated with the increased outturn, and with lower prices prospects are hardly as brilliant as they seemed to be a year ago."

172. The Divisional Administration Reports for the year 1888-89 contain the following accounts of the tea industry in the Rajshahye, Chittagong, and Chota Nagpore Divisions:—

DISTRICTS.	Number of gardens.			AREA UNDER CULTIVATION IN ACRES.						Gross yield in pounds.			Average yield per acre from mature plants
				Mature plant.			Immature plant.

"It will be observed that there has been an increase in the number of gardens and in the gross yield in both the districts of Darjeeling and Julpigoree"

Chittagong Division.—"The year was a good one for tea up to the time the rains ceased. The yield of leaf was good, and the prices obtained were high as compared with other districts; but the drought of the last five months of the year did much damage among the young tea, and caused the chances of a good outturn in the current year to be very small."

Chota Nagpore Division.—"Tea is manufactured in Hazaribagh and Lohardugga. The statistics for the past year are given below :—

DISTRICTS.	Number of gardens.	AREA UNDER CULTIVATION.			Approximate yield.	Average yield per acre of mature plants.
		Area under mature plants.	Area under immature plants.	Total.
				Tea	lbs.	lbs.
Hazaribagh	6	877	30	907	115,277	131·4
Lohardugga	30	2,070	919	2,989	339,383	163·9

"The year was not favourable for tea owing to the long cessation of rains. Difficulty was also experienced in the supply of labour, as the construction of the Bengal-Nagpore Railway and the emigration to the labour districts drew coolies away from the division."

173. There was an increase in imports of 10·26 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 28·60 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The advance in the imports by inland steamers was 16·12 per cent., while the Eastern Bengal State Railway returns exhibited a decrease of 3·31 per cent. as compared with those of the previous year. The distribution of the imports is classified by provinces in the subjoined statement :—

Regarding the exports of tea to foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks as follows:—

"To the United Kingdom the increase is $10\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. There has fortunately been a large increase in consumption, due no doubt to the extremely low prices ruling for common kinds. For really fine teas there was a good demand, and no fall in price occurred. It would seem to be an open question whether it pays better to produce common teas in large quantities or finer teas in small. A well-known firm of tea-brokers in London writes as follows on this point:—"Opinions may differ: we maintain, however, that in the long run individual producers, no less than the whole industry, will gain by steadily aiming at a high standard of quality. The experience of many seasons shows that whenever supplies of low teas are plentiful, they sink to a price which leaves but little, if any, margin of profit.

	1887. lbs.		1888. lbs.
	Imports.	Deliveries.	Imports.	Deliveries.
Indian	85,218,000	83,112,000	92,387,000	87,211,000
Ceylon	11,325,000	9,942,000	20,325,500	18,652,000
China, &c.	119,432,000	122,416,000	109,285,000	115,592,000

"This table shows that the consumption of Indian and Ceylon teas have both advanced in a most satisfactory manner, while there has been a heavy decline in both the receipts and deliveries of China tea.

"The imports of Indian and Ceylon together have now exceeded China tea, though the quality of the latter was better last year than in 1887. The Chinese are quite alive to the serious effect Indian and Ceylon teas are having on their market in the United Kingdom, and the matter has been officially reported on and remedies suggested in the direction of improving the quality of China tea.

"Notwithstanding the large imports into the United Kingdom, the total stocks indicate no special accumulation at the end of the year; the following are the figures:—

	1887. lbs.	1888. lbs.
Indian ...	34,843,600	40,031,000
Ceylon ...	3,149,000	5,130,000
China ...	65,466,000	59,255,000
Total ...	103,458,000	104,416,000

"The exports to Australia show a further advance. They, however, still represent only a small portion of the tea consumed there. To America there was also an increase, but the total shipments were very small, and the process of ousting China tea from that market would appear to be a very slow one."

179. A deduction of imports from exports shows a deficit of 55,599 maunds during 1888-89, and of 39,779 maunds and 81,544 maunds in 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

180. This article has been valued in the returns appended to this report at the rate of Rs. 40-12 per maund, or 7 annas 11 pies per lb, which is the Calcutta brokers' valuation for the year, against Rs. 44-14 per maund, or 8 annas 9 pies per lb in 1887-88, and Rs 42 per maund, or 8 annas 2 pies per lb in 1886-87.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes—

"The total exports of unmanufactured tobacco declined in comparison with 1887-88 by 61½ per cent.

"The shipments to the United Kingdom were trifling, while they ceased entirely to France, Italy, and Spain. The only country in Europe now taking our tobacco in any large quantity is Holland, the exports to that country being over 1¾ millions of lbs. This tobacco is no doubt worked up into the common cigars sold at low prices in the continent.

"The exports to Mauritius remain fairly regular, this tobacco being for the use of the coolies who have emigrated there. The increasing local consumption is apparently sufficient to carry off the bulk of the crop produced. The quantity and value of the exports, it will be noticed, are the lowest shown in the table.

187. The quantity of tobacco not exported before the close of the year was 1,71,125 maunds, against 1,77,461 maunds in 1887-88, and 1,64,578 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

CHAPTER XI.

INLAND AND SEA-BORNE TRADE OF CHITTAGONG.

The sea-borne trade of Chittagong is dealt with in the report of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, on Trade and Navigation; and it is also noticed in this report for purposes of comparison with the inland trade.

The total quantity of merchandise carried to, and from, Chittagong by country boats, registered during the past three years, was as follows:—

	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Imports	28,91,199	26,07,910	19,54,586
Exports	30,42,702	5,83,032	6,13,248
Total ...	59,33,901	31,90,942	25,67,834

2. It will be seen that the gross quantity of goods carried during the past year was 19·52 per cent. below the trade of the preceding year, and 56·72 per cent. below that of 1886-87. Compared with 1887-88, the import trade showed a falling off of 25·05 per cent., while the export trade increased by 5·18 per cent. The largest decrease in imports occurred under rice (7,43,867 maunds), and paddy (3,84,114 maunds), and the largest increase under firewood (3,33,960 maunds), cocoanuts, oils, mustard seed, metals, coal, raw cotton, tobacco, ghee, and betelnuts. In the export trade, bamboos alone showed an advance of 22,088 maunds, while under timber the increase amounted to 55,071 maunds. The other articles showing an increase were hides, vegetables, oils, spices, and unrefined sugar; while those in which there were decreases were—salt (58,314 maunds), piece-goods, European (Rs. 31,742), gram, metals, and refined sugar.

3. The following statement shows the value of this trade and of the sea-borne trade during the past three years:—

		Imports.	Exports.	Total.
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Inland trade	1886-87	78,11,713	41,25,977	1,19,37,690
	1887-88	63,82,372	33,99,884	97,82,256
	1888-89	59,87,650	37,04,376	96,92,026
Sea-borne trade	1886-87	1,17,93,941	1,12,79,372	2,30,73,313
	1887-88	1,34,89,992	1,55,92,823	2,90,82,815
	1888-89	1,22,94,665	1,42,88,916	2,65,83,581

As compared with 1887-88, the falling off in the value of the inland trade was ·92 per cent., while in the sea-borne trade, it amounted to 8·59 per cent. Regarding the latter trade, the Commissioner of the Chittagong Division writes as follows:—

"In spite of the unfavourable year, the value of the trade of the port has decreased by only Rs. 24,99,234. The higher value of jute and rice has prevented the decrease being greater, and the fluctuation is not more than must be expected in a bad year, and is insignificant when compared with the increase of the two previous years, which came to over 88½ lakhs. In fact in the past year the value of the trade of the port was higher than in any previous year except 1887-88. The nearest approach was in 1883-84, when the value was Rs. 2,47,56,862.

"On the whole, trade has suffered less than might reasonably be expected from the bad harvest. The export trade of all India depends on the nature of the season, the quantity of food-grain produced for export being merely the surplus after provision for the food of the people for the year with a margin and the following year's seed. In the past year Chittagong barely produced enough for its own consumption, and there was a strong drain westwards from Noakholly and Tipperah which reduced the amount sent south for exportation."

4. Lime and Limestone.—Owing to extensive building operations, the lime trade showed great activity during 1888-89, the total quantity sent to Chittagong from Naraingunge amounting to 47,139 maunds, against 20,163 maunds in 1887-88, and 37,412 maunds in 1886-87. Of the past year's traffic, 25,439 maunds against 2,363 maunds were carried by coasting vessels, and 21,700 maunds against 17,800 maunds by country boats.

5. Caoutchouc.—The total value of caoutchouc exported from Chittagong by coasting vessels was Rs. 9,880, which was Rs. 7,004 below the figures for 1887-88, but Rs. 7,955 in excess of those for 1886-87. The falling off during the past year is attributed to political disturbances in the Hill Tracts, which are the main sources of supply of this article.

6. Cotton, raw.—The export of raw cotton from Chittagong was exceptionally large during 1887-88, in which year the crop in the Hill Tracts was an exceedingly large one, whereas in 1888-89, the crop was very poor owing to the unequal distribution of the rainfall and hence the decline in the trade during the year under review. The total quantity exported to Naraingunge amounted to 32,547 maunds, which showed a decrease of 37,119 maunds on the returns of 1887-88, but an increase of 5,624 maunds on those of 1886-87, as will be seen from the details given below:—

To Naraingunge from Chittagong.

Year.	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1886-87	12,880	14,043	26,923
1887-88	8,300	61,366	69,666
1888-89	1,720	30,827	32,547

Besides the quantity given above, 20,190 maunds of raw cotton were sent to Calcutta by country boats, against 10,970 maunds in 1887-88, and 23,840 maunds, against 17,797 maunds by coasting vessels.

7. Cotton twist and yarn.—According to the coast trade returns, the total value of the imports was Rs. 1,45,220, showing a decrease of Rs. 75,625 as compared with the trade of 1887-88, and of Rs. 39,317 on that of 1886-87.

8. Cotton piece-goods, European.—In the past year, the total value of the import trade by coasting vessels under this head was Rs. 14,19,723, against Rs. 15,67,131 in 1887-88, and Rs. 15,81,113 in 1886-87. The value of piece-goods sent by country boats to the interior of the Chittagong district was Rs. 4,09,406, against Rs. 4,47,148 and Rs. 2,55,800 in the two previous years, respectively. Regarding cotton goods, the Commissioner remarks as follows:—

"The decrease in the value of yarn twist and piece-goods imported is the result of the bad harvest in Chittagong, which left the agricultural classes less money to spend on superfluities. The Mugs and Mahomedans continue to use country-woven cloth for the most part, while Hindoos use chiefly imported piece-goods. Even the country cloth is, however, generally woven of imported thread."

9. Jute, raw.—The increase noticed in the two previous reports in the import jute traffic of Chittagong was not maintained during the year under report, the total quantity imported from Naraingunge by coasting vessels being 17,21,926 maunds, against 20,26,925 maunds in 1887-88, and 17,63,758 maunds in 1886-87. The decrease is attributed to a smaller demand for jute cuttings in America. The exports of raw jute to foreign ports from Chittagong during the past three years were as follows:—

Exports to Foreign countries from Chittagong.

The price of jute rose during the year, thus preventing the fall in value from being proportionate to the fall in weight. The remarks made by the Commissioner of the Chittagong Division on the jute trade of that port during the past official year are extracted below:—

"The decrease in jute is partly due to the smaller crop, but is also to a considerable extent owing to one of the great exporting firms not having been able to get sufficient tonnage to convey jute from Naraingunge here. Owing to this several ships were diverted from here to Calcutta, the jute being carried there by river steamers and flats. The decrease is entirely in the trade with America, the value of the jute exported to New York and Salem having fallen from Rs. 18,52.870 to Rs. 5,46,439. The value of exports to the United Kingdom is increased by over ten lakhs. There now appears to be a reasonable hope of the much-needed railway being constructed, which, if properly managed, will prevent such difficulties."

10. Gunnybags.—The imports under this head carried by coasting vessels were valued at Rs. 1,43,870, being 17·57 per cent. below the figures for 1887-88, but 57·42 per cent. in excess of those for 1886-87.

11. Cocoanuts.—Under this head a very large increase of 1,126,400 cocoanuts occurred in the imports into Chittagong by country boats in comparison with the totals for 1887-88, and of 1,233,670 when compared with the trade of 1886-87. The supply received from Noakholly was 1,810,000 against 1,551,600 in 1887-88, and from Burrisaul 1,055,400 against 197,400. The large increase last year is stated by the Collector to be due to increased demand for local consumption.

12. Rice and Paddy.—The aggregate quantities of rice and paddy sent to Chittagong by country boats during the past year, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years, are shown in the following statement:—

	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Rice	12,12,944	13,23,221	5,79,354
Paddy	6,72,549	7,45,148	3,61,034

The decrease under rice amounted to 56·21 per cent. and 52·23 per cent in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, and under paddy, to 51·55 per cent. and 46·32 per cent. The Collector remarks that the falling off was due to bad crops and consequent high prices which restricted exportation.

The following statement shows the principal places in Bengal from which Chittagong imported rice and paddy during the past three years:—

Rice	Cwts.	31,597	217,940	206,105

13. Hides and skins.—The total value of hides and skins exported from Chittagong by coasting boats amounted to Rs. 2,19,269, against Rs. 2,64,451 in 1887-88, and Rs. 2,23,847 in 1886-87. The falling off is attributed to the absence of cattle epidemic during the past year.

14. Oils.—Last year the total value of the import trade by coasting vessels under this head was Rs. 83,887, showing an increase of Rs. 5,849 as compared with the trade of 1887-88, but a decrease of Rs. 22,561 on the figures for 1886-87. The increase was due to large imports of kerosine oil from Bombay and Rangoon in response to demands for local consumption. On the other hand, the boat traffic returns showed an importation of 38,701 maunds of oils, against only 9,478 maunds in 1887-88, and 5,510 maunds in 1886-87. The imports from Naraingunge aggregated 25,010 maunds against only 500 maunds in the year preceding, and from Calcutta 6,002 maunds against 2,869 maunds.

15. Metals and manufactures of metals.—The total quantity imported into Chittagong by country boats aggregated 37,440 maunds, against 22,910 maunds in 1887-88, and 10,970 maunds in 1886-87. The increase under brass and copper was 6,180 maunds in comparison with the total of the year preceding, the chief sources of supply being Calcutta and Dacca. The increase under iron amounted to 7,010 maunds, and was due to the larger importation of building and bridge materials from Calcutta. Under "Other metals," which consisted of steel, lead, etc., imported from Calcutta for local use, the advance amounted to 1,340 maunds on the returns of the previous year. The coasting trade returns also show that Rs 46,150 worth of metals were imported from Calcutta, against Rs. 42,368 in 1887-88, and Rs. 82,491 in 1886-87; the articles received were for building purposes.

16. Salt.—The total quantity of salt imported into Chittagong from foreign ports was 4,99,827 maunds, showing an increase of 1,01,767 maunds as compared with 1887-88, and of 1,48,555 maunds as compared with 1886-87. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division observes:—

"The large increase in the quantity and value of salt is partly due to the necessity of replenishing stocks, which had been allowed to run very low, but is also partly due to increased trade. The increase of duty has had no effect whatever on consumption. The amount of salt removed under bond to Naraingunge increased from 7,500 to 45,700 maunds."

	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
To Chittagong	1,68,566	1,35,624	1,85,082

Total ...	3,48,600	2,71,240	2,12,926

Besides the quantities mentioned in the foregoing statement the supply carried to Naraingunge by coasting vessels was 1,14,679 maunds, against 1,21,657 maunds in 1887-88, and 1,59,412 maunds in 1886-87.

17. Mustard and rape seed.—According to the boat traffic returns, the imports of mustard and rape seed rose from 15,760 maunds in 1886-87, and 11,652 maunds in 1887-88, to 31,040 maunds in 1888-89. Out of the latter quantity, 29,700 maunds against 11,040 maunds were shipped from Naraingunge. The increase is said to have been due to a good demand for crushing purposes.

18. Spices.—The total quantity of betelnuts carried to Chittagong by country boats during the past year was 27,970 maunds, showing an advance of 4,540 maunds on the trade of 1887 88, but a decrease of 12,345 maunds on that of 1886-87. Under the head "Spices, all other kinds," there was a decrease of 1,500 maunds and 7,558 maunds in comparison with the figures of the two previous years, respectively, the falling off being the result of a bad chilly crop. In the coasting trade, the total value of spices was Rs. 24,087, against Rs. 29,614 in 1887-88, and Rs. 48,398 in 1886-87. The Collector explains that this head consists chiefly of curry spices imported from Calcutta, and the decrease is due to smaller demands. In the exports, however, the figures show an improvement, namely, Rs. 12,852 and Rs. 5,334 in comparison with the preceding two years, the increase being due to larger consignments of chillies to Rangoon.

19. Sugar—The total supply of sugar carried to Chittagong by country boats during the past three years was as follows:—

	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Sugar, refined	5,563	3,700	8,030
„ unrefined	43,084	33,925	36,640

Refined sugar was chiefly imported from Calcutta, which supplied 5,340 maunds, against 1,740 maunds in the year preceding. Unrefined sugar came partly from the interior of the Chittagong district, and partly from Jessore, Burrisaul, and Naraingunge. The imports by coasting vessels from Naraingunge and Calcutta during the past year showed a slight decrease, the total value amounting to Rs. 68,208, against Rs. 73,086 in 1887-88, and Rs. 88,270 in 1886-87.

20. Tea (Indian).—The total quantity of Indian tea exported from Chittagong by coasting vessels was 1,222,766lbs., against 1,116,116lbs. in 1887-88, and 1,028,686lbs. in 1886-87. The increase in the past year's trade is attributed to the steady development of this industry in Chittagong. The value of the trade was Rs. 6,28,244, against Rs. 5,97,871, and Rs. 5,82,162 in the preceding two years, respectively. The quantity sent direct to the United Kingdom was 8,988lbs., against 5,165lbs. in 1887-88, and 3,154lbs. in 1886-87. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division observes:—

"The foreign export of tea (which appears under "All other articles") has increased owing to the opening out of new foreign markets direct, chiefly in Australia. The increase was 3,823lbs. The increase in the direct export of tea is very marked In 1886-87 only 3,154lbs. were thus exported. In 1887-88 the amount rose to 5,165lbs., and in the year under report to 8,988lbs. The amount is still small, but the rate of increase is large, and the beginning thus made will probably lead to larger trade."

21. Tobacco.—The total quantity of tobacco imported into Chittagong from Naraingunge showed an advance of 55·05 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, and of 2·07 per cent. on that of 1886-87, as will be seen from the figures given below:—

	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1886-87	10,300	10,478	20,778
1887-88	6,300	7,379	13,679
1888-89	12,050	9,159	21,209

The exports of tobacco to foreign ports aggregated 15,317lbs., against 26,573lbs. in 1887-88, and 1,521lbs in 1886-87. The decrease was due to fewer vessels having cleared for Maldives during the year under report.

These figures show that there was a considerable decrease in this trade, viz., of 17·67 per cent. as compared with the traffic of 1887-88, and of 18·22 per cent. as compared with that of 1886-87. The value of the imports fell off by 20·86 per cent. in comparison with the figures for the year preceding, and the value of the exports by 14·19 per cent. In his administration report for 1888-89 the Commissioner of the Orissa Division observes that the marked decline in the trade was "due chiefly to bad crops and high prices, and the disinclination of the people to part with the money they have acquired by high prices." The trade of Balasore was less by 19·85 per cent. under imports, and by 6·13 per cent. under exports as compared with 1887-88. The Collector remarks as follows :—

"Even with the decrease the trade was better than in some previous years, viz., 1879-80 to 1882-83. We find increase in the trade of subsequent years, viz., 1883-84 to 1886-87, but this was mainly due to the coast canal work which led to large imports of valuable articles of construction, but was so temporary that it does not admit of fair comparison with any subsequent year. After the year 1886-87 we had to revert to the natural state of the trade, and as such we show better than in many previous years, notwithstanding the fact that the year's crop was a bad one and the coast canal was open throughout the year, diverting a portion of our sea-borne trade."

In the case of Cuttack, the decrease in imports is attributed to the opening of the coast canal, and that in exports to the contraction of the rice trade owing to high prices. Regarding the falling off in the exports from Pooree, it is stated that the high price of rice in Ganjam, consequent on the failure of crops, diverted all the trade in surplus grain from the port, and therefore it was not worthwhile for shippers to touch there.

2. The different districts contributing to the trade during the past three years are shown in the subjoined table:—

The trade with other Indian ports was 5·58 per cent. of the whole, against 5·01 per cent. in 1887-88. The exports during the year to foreign ports amounted to 18·46 per cent. of the total supply, against 31·10 per cent. in the preceding year.

4. Cotton twist and yarn.—There was an increase of 8,076 maunds and 12,433 maunds in the imports of European cotton twist and yarn, as compared with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, while there was a decrease of 6,268 maunds and 7,760 maunds in those of Indian twist and yarn. The supply of European twist and yarn sent to Balasore from Calcutta was 45,708 maunds, against 37,632 maunds in 1887-88.

5. Cotton piece-goods.—The trade in European cotton piece-goods showed a decrease of Rs. 5,02,783 in value as compared with 1887-88, and of Rs. 1,61,291 as compared with 1886-87. Last year the supply of Indian piece-goods was trifling. The total value of piece-goods sent to Balasore was Rs. 11,54,542, against Rs. 16,74,985 in 1887-88, and Rs. 13,21,573 in 1886-87.

6. Gunnies.—The falling off under this head amounted to 37·03 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88, and to 33·27 per cent. on those of 1886-87. The decrease is the direct result of the contraction of the rice trade during the year.

7. Metals.—The decrease noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, when the total weight amounted to only 9,287 maunds, against 18,282 maunds in 1887-88, and 31,962 maunds in 1886-87. The falling off is the result of the completion of the coast canal work.

8. Oils.—The trade in oils showed a heavy decrease, the total quantity imported being 9,510 maunds less than in the previous year, and 50,393 maunds less than in 1886-87.

9. Ghee.—The total imports of ghee amounted to 366 maunds, which showed a decrease of 1,108 maunds and 864 maunds on the figures for 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively.

10. Spices, betelnuts, and tobacco.—The traffic in spices was almost the same as in the previous year, but it was still below the figures for 1886-87 by 13,424 maunds. In betelnuts, however, there was an increase from 55,118 maunds in 1887-88 to 62,021 maunds in 1888-89. There was no trade whatever in tobacco by sea during the year, the traffic having probably been diverted to the canal route.

11. Salt.—The total quantity imported showed an increase of 27,906 maunds in comparison with 1887-88, and of 43,357 maunds as compared with 1886 87.

12. Treasure.—There has been little or no improvement under this head during the past two years.

The decrease in the exports of rice aggregated 3,58,815 maunds, or 24·12 per cent., as compared with 1887-88, and 3,80,448 maunds, or 25·21 per cent., as compared with 1886-87. The exports of paddy as compared with 1887-88 showed a reduction of 61,891 maunds, or 68·95 per cent., but in comparison with 1886-87 the falling off amounted to 1,57,194 maunds, or 84·94 per cent. The Collector of Balasore writes:—

"The exports of paddy and rice fell short owing to the poor harvest of the year, hence the decrease in both foreign and coasting trade taken together. The following comparative statement of the past two years shows that there was an increase in the export of food-grain to home ports alone:—

	Home Ports.		Foreign Ports.		Total.

Regarding the increase in Cuttack, it is stated that owing to the high prices which ruled at the coast ports, larger shipments were made to Allify, Cochin, and Telicherry during the year under report than in the year preceding. The cause of the falling off in Pooree has already been explained. The destination of the exports, port by port, during the past three years, is shown in the subjoined statement:—

15. Hides.—The hide trade fell off by 58,350 pieces in comparison with 1887-88, but it exceeded the figures for 1886-87 by 16,083 pieces. The decrease is attributed to the very large exportation of previous years which left a large balance in the Calcutta market.

16. Lac.—The trade in lac was almost on a level with that of 1886 87; but compared with 1887-88, it showed a decrease of 31·86 per cent.

17. Oilseeds.—The trade in oilseeds recovered to some extent, but the figures were still much below those of 1886-87, as will be seen from the statement annexed to this paragraph. With the coast canal now open, the sea-borne trade in this article, as well as in others, must suffer from competition.

18. Timber.—The exports of timber rose from 7,786 maunds in 1886-87, and 10,282 maunds in 1887-88, to 18,099 maunds in 1888-89. This article of trade consists for the most part of sleepers for railway purposes.

19. Silver.—Under this head a decrease of 8·73 per cent. is shown in the returns of 1888-89 in comparison with those of the previous year, but the figures showed an advance of 2·43 per cent. on the returns of 1886-87.

REPORT

ON THE

RIVER-BORNE TRAFFIC OF THE LOWER PROVINCES OF BENGAL

AND ON THE INLAND TRADE OF CALCUTTA,

AND ON THE TRADE OF CHITTAGONG AND THE ORISSA PORTS,

FOR THE YEAR 1888-89.

EXPLANATION OF THE SYSTEM OF REGISTRATION.

THIS report, the thirteenth of a series published by the Government of Bengal since the year 1876-77, deals with the trade registered on the rivers and canals of the Lower Provinces of Bengal, with the inland trade of Calcutta, and with the trade, inland and sea-borne, of Chittagong and the Orissa ports. It is based on the returns and reports noted on the margin.

1. Fortnightly return of traffic carried by country-boats along the Bhagiruthee, the Jellinghee, and the Matabhanga, commonly called the Nuddea rivers.
2. Fortnightly returns of traffic carried by country-boats on the Midnapore, Hidgellee, and Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.
3. Fortnightly returns of traffic carried to, and from, Calcutta by country-boats and carts registered at a cordon of 25 stations around Calcutta and Howrah.
4. Monthly statements of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company.
5. Quarterly statements of traffic carried on the Megna river by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal State Railway.
6. Monthly statements of traffic carried along the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, the Jellinghee, and the Hooghly rivers to and from Calcutta, by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Calcutta Steam Navigation Company.
7. Quarterly statements of traffic carried by country-boats between Bengal and Assam registered at Bhoyrub bazar on the Megna river, and at Dhubri on the Brahmaputra.
8. Monthly and quarterly returns of traffic carried to, and from, Calcutta by the East Indian Railway, the Eastern Bengal State Railway, and connected lines.
9. Annual statements of the sea-borne trade of Calcutta.
10. Annual statements of the inland and sea-borne trade of Chittagong.
11. Annual statements of the sea-borne trade of Balasore, Pooree, and Cuttack.
12. Quarterly, half-yearly, and annual statements showing the wholesale prices per maund of all articles of trade received from 12 selected district officers, and also from the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, and the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces.
13. General Administration Reports submitted to Government by Commissioners of Divisions.
14. Special reports on trade submitted to Government by district officers.
15. Annual statement of the sea-borne trade and navigation of the Bengal Presidency published by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta.
16. Annual Report by the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, on the administration of the Salt Department.
17. Special reports submitted to Government by the local officers on the condition of the trade on the Nuddea rivers, the Calcutta, Midnapore, Hidgellee, and the Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.

Statistics relative to the rail-borne traffic of these provinces since 1884-85 are reviewed in a separate report entitled the "Report on the Rail-borne Traffic of Bengal." That report, besides furnishing an account of the rail-borne trade, internal and external, under the block system of registration, gives also statistics of the total traffic carried by the State Railways in these provinces, but the present compilation takes no account of rail-borne traffic except in Chapter X, which deals with the trade of Calcutta.

2. During the year under report, no change was made in the system under which the internal trade of the province is registered on some of the rivers and canals, and the mode of registration of the trade of Calcutta, Chittagong, and the Orissa ports also remained unaltered.

Trade along the chief routes.

3. The statistics which are furnished in Chapters II to IX of this report include—

The boat traffic registered on the Nuddea rivers.
The boat and steamer traffic registered on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers.
The steamer traffic on the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, the Jellinghee, and the Hooghly rivers.
The boat traffic registered on the Midnapore and Hidgellee canals.
The boat traffic registered on the Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.
The boat traffic registered on the Calcutta canals.

4. The boat traffic on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers, which crosses from Bengal into Assam and vice versâ, is registered at Bhoyrub Bazar and Dhubri under arrangements made by the Assam Administration, and the figures thus obtained have, as usual, been incorporated with the statistics now submitted. The boat traffic on these rivers, which does not cross from one province to another, is unregistered. The steamers plying on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers between Bengal and Assam belong to the India General Steam Navigation Company, the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, and the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

The steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company continued to ply on the Ganges between Calcutta and the North-Western Provinces during the year under report. No steps have yet been taken to register the intermediate trade; but, in order to render the statistics of the trade of Calcutta as complete as possible, particulars of the traffic carried by these steamers to and from Calcutta since 1886-87 have been regularly obtained from the steamer offices, and statistics for those years are embodied in this report.

The steamers of the Calcutta Steam Navigation Company run between Calcutta and marts in the Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Nuddea, and Moorshedabad districts, and statistics of this trade also for the past three years have been obtained by Government from the records of the Company, and are published in this report.

The acknowledgments of the Lieutenant-Governor are again due to the Agents of all the Companies above named, for the courtesy with which they have invariably permitted their trade statistics to be used by Government.

Trade of large towns and commercial centres.

5. The inland trade of Calcutta, and the inland and sea-borne trade of Chittagong and of the Orissa ports, is described separately in Chapters X to XII. The entire inland traffic of Calcutta, imports as well as exports, carried by rail, by river steamer, by boat, and by road, is shown in this report. Comparative figures relating to the sea-borne trade of Calcutta in all the articles enumerated in the returns of internal trade are also given, but the sea-borne trade of Calcutta, coasting and foreign, is more fully dealt with in the annual report of the sea-borne trade and navigation of the Bengal Presidency published by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta. As regards the chief staples, the details furnished show how the imports into Calcutta by sea are distributed over the country, and from what parts of India the goods exported by sea came. The boat and road traffic of Calcutta is registered by means of a cordon of registering stations, 25 in number, placed on the Hooghly and on the canals and roads around Calcutta and the suburbs and Howrah. For Chittagong, the returns exhibit the sea-borne trade, foreign and coasting, as well as that carried by country boats, while for the Orissa ports, the sea-borne trade only is registered.

Classification of commodities.

6. The classification of trade articles followed in this report is that which was prescribed in the revised list referred to in paragraph 6 of the last report, and is in accord with the classification list which is adopted for the registration of the rail-borne trade of India.

7. For the year 1888-89, the values of all the articles of trade specified in the valuation statement appended have been assigned according to the revised system explained in the previous year's report, i.e., Valuation of commodities.

(1) For the following articles of European merchandise exported inland, the value rates have been obtained from the Calcutta Custom House invoices:—

Dyes ...	Aniline.	Paper and pasteboard.
Leather ...	Manufactured.	Salt.
Liquors ...	Beer.	Silk, raw ...	Foreign.

(2) For the other articles enumerated in the classification list, with the exception of those mentioned below, the value rates have been fixed on the basis of local prices from selected districts, and of prices prevailing in the chief markets:—

(3) In the case of opium and other intoxicating drugs and chemicals, the actual cost of the articles as manufactured for Government or the trade, as the case may be, has been obtained from the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces and adopted.

(4) For articles included under the sub-head "Others," value rates have been ascertained once for all and standard rates adopted.

In the trade returns for all articles of import into Calcutta from British Provinces, the value rates of the exporting provinces have been taken, while in the case of exports from Calcutta, the value rates have been assigned according to the valuation statement mentioned above, which has also been adopted in the valuation of the internal trade, import and export, of the Lower Provinces of Bengal.

CHAPTER II.

GENERAL SUMMARY OF THE SEASONS AND RESULTS OF THE HARVESTS AND NOTICE OF PRICES.

General summary of the season.

The total rainfall during the year was ample everywhere, except in the northern districts of the Patna Division, in parts of the Orissa Division, and in the Rajshahye Division, where it was considerably below the average. The weather was not, however, on the whole, favourable to agriculture, as the rain was unfavourably distributed, being deficient at sowing time, excessive during July and August, and stopping early.

In the northern districts of the Patna Division, and in parts of the Presidency, Chittagong, and Orissa Divisions, the crops suffered from drought, while the unusually heavy rainfall in July and August caused floods in parts of the Burdwan, Presidency, Chittagong, Bhagulpore, and Orissa Divisions, and the Southern Gangetic districts of the Patna Division, which seriously injured, and in some cases entirely destroyed, the crops.

2. The outturn of rice for the whole province was much below the average, except in the Dacca Division and in parts of the Chittagong Division, where the yield was an average one. The wheat harvest in the Patna and Bhagulpore Divisions was also very poor, the average outturn being 10 annas in each. Pulses yielded a good outturn in Bengal, but not in Behar. The indigo crop, although affected by drought, was slightly larger than in 1887-88 in the Bhagulpore Division, and in parts of the Patna and Presidency Divisions, and also in Rungpore. The jute crop, like other crops, deteriorated in many districts from drought and deficient rainfall. The crop was a poor one in the Tipperah and Hooghly districts, an average one in Purneah and Maldah, smaller than that of last year in the Dacca district, and better than usual in Furreedpore, Jessore, the 24-Pergunnahs, and in all the districts of the Rajshahye Division, except Julpigoree, where it suffered from excessive rainfall during sowing time. The area under cultivation in some districts had, however, increased, and the total yield was, on the whole, larger than in 1887-88. The outturn of oil-seeds generally fell short of the average. Mustard seed, however, "was particularly fine in Rungpore," and "really good on the tract bordering the Kosi in the Bhagulpore district." The sugarcane crop was indifferent in the Durbhunga, Chumparun, and Shahabad districts, but in the Gya district it was a splendid crop, the yield being at least 10 per cent. better than in the preceding year. In Rungpore and Bogra the cane yielded an average outturn. The tobacco crop was smaller than last year in Rungpore and Julpigoree, and also in Tirhoot, where it was damaged by hailstorms.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF AGRICULTURAL STAPLES.

3. The average wholesale prices ruling in Bengal during 1888-89 for the principal agricultural staples are compared below with the figures of the previous year:—

4. The rise in the price of raw cotton is ascribed to a short crop. The outturn of indigo was on a level with that of the previous year, but the quality of the crop varied, and this accounts for the slight fall in price. The area under jute cultivation was extended, and there was a larger crop than in the previous year. Prices at the same time were higher, and the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that "the cultivation of jute last year should have proved very remunerative." Owing to a small crop of wheat in the producing districts there was a slight advance in the price of this staple. The increase in the price of rice, paddy, gram and pulses, and other spring and rain crops was also due to the indifferent harvests of the year under report. Last year there was a short crop of stick lac, and the result was an advance in the price of shell lac. The linseed crop was poor during the year and prices advanced in consequence, while as regards mustard seed, the failure in the continental crop stimulated exports and tended to keep up prices in the Bengal market. The fluctuations in the price of ghee, sugar, and tobacco are slight and need no explanation. Regarding the fall in the price of Indian tea, it is stated that the crop last year was of poor quality and below the average, owing partly to climatic causes, and partly to a more general sacrifice of quality to quantity.

6. As compared with the average price ruling in the three years ending in 1887, the rise in the price of wheat was 16·79 per cent., of barley 4·19 per cent., of best rice 5·03 per cent., of common rice 4·10 per cent., of marwa 14·25 per cent., of Indian-corn 17·83 per cent., and of gram 6·67 per cent. The following explanations have been given by the Commissioners of Divisions regarding the causes of fluctuations in the prices of food-grains during the past official year :—

Burdwan Division.—"The figures show a rise in prices, but not to the extent that might have been expected. There is evidently plenty of grain still in stock. The Magistrate of Burdwan thinks that the market has been more influenced by export than by actual failure of crops. The bulk of the people are not affected by fluctuations in the price of wheat, which is consumed by a limited class only."

Presidency Division.—"Owing to unseasonable rain and also flood there was a considerable failure of the bhadoi or early rice crop, and prices were affected. In every district the price of coarse rice rose. The outturn of the late, i.e., the amun or winter rice crop, was again affected by early cessation of the rains, and prices have thus continued high. In the 24-Pergunnahs specially the rise was considerable, the prices varying from 12½ to 17½ seers a rupee. In Nuddea the prices varied from 14½ seers in June to 22½ seers in September. In Moorshedabad the prices ranged from 22½ seers in April to 16 seers in October and March. In Khulna the price at the sudder was 22 seers in May, but it was only 16 seers from January to March. In Jessore also it was 22 seers in May, but in March the price rose to 16 seers a rupee. The price of wheat also rose in all districts except in Jessore, where it was sold cheap owing to large import from Calcutta."

Rajshahye Division.—"Common rice was dearer in every district than in the preceding year, but, compared with the average of the previous five years, it was cheaper everywhere except in Julpigoree and the Darjeeling Terai. Compared with the previous year, pulses sold cheaper in Rajshahye and Rungpore; but compared with the average of the preceding five years, they were dearer everywhere except Rungpore. During the year the price of wheat rose in every district except Julpigoree; but compared with the average of the preceding five years, it was slightly lower in Dinagepore, Rajshahye, and Julpigoree, and higher in Pubna, Bogra, and Rungpore. In Darjeeling there was a rise in the price of Indian corn, chiefly owing to its short outturn and a greater demand on account of the Sikkim Field Force."

Dacca Division.—"Except wheat and barley in Dacca, the prices of all other food-grains were generally higher during the year under report than they were in the previous year. In Dacca the average price of common rice was 18 seers 14 chittacks per rupee, against 20 seers 10 chittacks in 1887-88; in Furreedpore, 19 seers against 21 seers; in Backergunge, 17 seers against 19 seers 14 chittacks; and in Mymensingh, 18 seers 12 chittacks against 19 seers 1 chittack in the previous year. As in 1887, it is noteworthy that rice sold cheaper in Dacca and Furreedpore than in the two great rice-growing districts of Backergunge and Mymensingh.

"It is explained that the rise in the price of rice in Dacca and Backergunge is not due to any difference in the harvests of the districts during the year, but to its rise elsewhere in Bengal. Dacca being a rice-importing district, the price rose with the rise in the exporting districts. The prospect of short crops in other parts of Bengal stimulated exportation from Backergunge, and prices began to rise from July. August and September showed that the crops here were not likely to be anything near as good as last year; and with a great demand for export prices rose, till in November only 13½ seers of common rice could be bought for a rupee. When the crops were cut, however, the outturn was found to be somewhat better than was expected, and prices fell somewhat in the next three months, though they rose again towards the end of the year, which closed with common rice selling at a little under 15 seers per rupee—the highest price at the close of a year for several years.

"The lowest prices recorded were in the months of July in Dacca, of May in Furreedpore, of April and May in Backergunge, and of June, December, and January in Mymensingh, when common rice was sold at the rate of 21 seers 11 chittacks, 22 seers 2 chittacks, 20 seers 8 chittacks, and 20 seers, respectively, in each of those districts. In all districts the price was the highest in November 1888, viz., 15 seers 11 chittacks in Dacca, 16 seers 2 chittacks in Furreedpore, 13 seers 7 chittacks in Backergunge, and 17 seers in Mymensingh."

Chittagong Division.—"Prices were higher than in the previous year everywhere except in the Fenny sub-division and the Hill Tracts."

Patna Division.—"Prices were very high throughout the last half of the year. Good communications and rapid information equalised them very much, so that while the whole Division felt a failure that was very unevenly distributed, the worst tracts were never without sufficient stores."

Bhagulpore Division.—"The rise in price is general, and is the natural result of deficient outturn of the crops generally."

Orissa Division.—"There were considerable fluctuations during the year in the prices of food-grains in all the principal centres of trade. In 1887-88 the agricultural results were poor, but the price of rice, the staple crop of this Division, generally remained low; but in 1888-89 prices rose everywhere and remained high till the close of the year."

"The Collector of Cuttack says that the high price of food-grains was due chiefly to the smaller outturn of the sarud rice crop on account of the insufficient rainfall, and partly to exports to other parts of the country and to foreign ports. In Pooree prices rose gradually, with occasional fluctuations, till the end of March, when they were 34 per cent. higher than at the commencement of the year. The Collector says:—'The fluctuating rise up till October may be ascribed to the varying fortunes of the paddy crop. As soon as that was safe there was a marked fall in Khoorda, but subsequently the extraordinary demand from Ganjam again raised prices. The Ganjam dealers were scattered all over the district, and simply killed the sea-borne export from the Pooree ports. Even the merchants sold off their rice stored in the port godowns and had it carted off to the Chilka, whence it was sent on by boat to Ganjam.' The Collector of Balasore says that in the mofussil there were some marked fluctuations in prices of rice, and the rise as compared with last year's figures was more decided. In the sudder subdivision the rise commenced in July, and continued with variations throughout the year. In the Bhuddruck sub-division, however, prices rose in October and continued high till December."

Chota Nagpore Division.—"Owing to the deficient harvests of the past year there has been a marked rise in prices of all sorts of food-grains in every part of the Division. In Lohardugga alone barley and gram were somewhat cheaper than in the preceding five years, except 1887-88. In Manbhoom and Singbhoom the rise in prices is also ascribed to the influx of labourers to the railway works."

7. It has been already stated that the average price of common rice throughout the province was 19 seers to a rupee. In the following districts the price was below this average. Figures have also been given, comparing the past year's prices with those of 1887:—

PRICES OF OTHER STAPLES.

8. Of the other staples shown in the valuation statement appended to this report, the prices of the undermentioned articles cannot properly be compared with those quoted in the previous year's return because their value rates last year were, under the orders of the Government of India, obtained from the Calcutta Custom House, whereas the values assigned in 1887-88 were based on the rates prevailing in the chief local markets:—

Cotton twist and yarn, European.
Dyes, aniline.
Leather, manufactured.
Liquors.
Metals.
Oil, kerosine.
Paper and pasteboard.
Silk, raw, foreign.
Silk piece-goods, foreign
Spices, pepper, and cardamoms.
Tea, foreign.
Woollen piece-goods, European.

Last year the prices of opium and other intoxicating drugs, i.e., ganja, bhang, and charas, were obtained from the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, while in previous years local rates were quoted, hence the variations under these heads. Besides these, there were noticeable fluctuations in the value rates of the following articles:—

	Article	Fluctuations in prices compared with 1887-88. Per cent.
Articles showing a rise in price ...	Cutch	12·50
	Gunny-bags and cloth ...	10·45
	Castor oil	3·53
	Silk, raw, Indian	2·77
Articles showing a fall in price ...	Stone and lime	57·14
	Cinchona bark	52·50
	Saltpetre	32·26
	Wool, raw	29·03
	Dried fruits and nuts	28·16
	Silk piece-goods, Indian ...	23·99

prices were lower than in 1887-88. The rise in the price of gunny-bags and cloth was due to the prosperous condition of the jute-manufacturing industry. The high price of castor oil is attributed to smaller production during the year. Regarding Indian silk, it is stated that "for a greater part of the year there was very little business doing, and prices fell, but at the close of 1888 a strong demand arose, and prices advanced considerably. The high rates demanded by sellers were paid in some instances, but at the close of the year prices had fallen again." The sudden fall in the price of cinchona bark requires explanation. During 1887-88 the value quoted for this article was based upon the rates reported by the local officers of Nuddea, Rajshahye, Chittagong, and Calcutta, but during the past year it was decided to adopt the price of this article ruling in Calcutta alone. The rate quoted in the statement appended to this return is accordingly that reported by the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, and it has been ascertained from the Superintendent of the Royal Botanical Gardens, Howrah, that it corresponds approximately with the price at which the bark was supplied to the public during 1888-89. As regard saltpetre, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that there was a good demand in the Calcutta market for part of the year, with an advance in prices which, however, was partly lost at the close of the year. Concerning Indian silk piece-goods, the Customs Report for 1888-89 also shows that the average price was lower than in the previous year, being As. 15-2 per yard, against As. 15-11½ per yard. The exports of dressed skins by sea are never very large, and the fall in their price is, therefore, due to local causes. The decline in the price of raw skins may be attributed to the slackness of the local demand, but the Customs Report shows that "there was throughout nearly the whole of the year a good demand for goat skins, and all supplies received were, as a rule, disposed of at once. Prices were high, and at one time reached a point that had never been known before in this market." The trade in myrabolams was on a very small scale during the past year, and it is stated that there is evidently no market in the United Kingdom for the Bengal article, although its price is lower than that of the same article shipped from other ports in India. For the fluctuations in the price of the other articles mentioned in the above table, no satisfactory explanation can be furnished.

COUNTRY BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE NUDDEA RIVERS.

The total quantity and value of the country boat traffic carried down wards and upwards on the Nuddea rivers during the past three years, were as follows :—

The aggregate quantity carried last year by this route showed a decrease of 6,10,325 maunds, or 6·46 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 9,96,030 maunds, or 10·12 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. Both the down and the up traffic showed a falling off during the year, the decrease in the former amounting to 4,48,876 maunds, or 6·05 per cent., and in the latter to 1,61,449 maunds, or 7·93 per cent., as compared with the returns for the previous year. The condition of the Bhagiruthee and the Matabhanga rivers was far from satisfactory. The former is said to have been closed for through traffic from the Ganges for more than half the year, and the Collector of Tolls remarks that "the mahajans are getting less inclined to use this river and are taking more and more to the railways. The Railway Companies are also reducing their rates very considerably and this is telling very heavily on the toll collections." As regards the Matabhanga route, it is stated that in consequence of the unsatisfactory state of the entrance to the river, large quantities of seeds and pulses were sent down by the Eastern Bengal State Railway, and jute by the Sunderbuns route.

2. The chief staples in the down traffic which showed the largest decrease during the past year as compared with 1887-88 were wheat (3,90,627 maunds), mustard seed (2,28,915 maunds), and linseed (1,02,701 maunds); and the articles which showed the largest increase were raw jute (1,90,981 maunds) and gunnies (116,838 bags). As regards the up traffic, a slight improvement is noticeable in European piece-goods and gunny-bags, while gunny cloth shows a decrease of 397,167 pieces, coal and coke of 79,472 maunds, paddy of 60,721 maunds, and salt of 37,916 maunds.

The following statement shows the number of laden boats the cargoes of which were registered during the past three years:—

The difference between the down and up-going boats is explained by the fact that empty and passenger boats are not included in the trade returns.

The details of the Calcutta trade, which are shown in the foregoing statement, will be separately dealt with in chapter X of this report, and the following paragraphs notice briefly the chief articles of traffic by this route.

4. Jute, raw.—The jute trade rose by 1,90,981 maunds as compared with 1887-88, but fell off by 72,127 maunds as compared with 1886-87. Last year the traffic viâ the Jellinghee river showed an increase of 2,40,879 maunds, due chiefly to larger shipments from Dulalgunge in the Purneah district, which sent 2,64,200 maunds to Bhuddressur, against 1,81,430 maunds in 1887-88, and 2,37,803 maunds in 1886-87. Last year the quantity of raw jute carried to Calcutta by this route was 5·09 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 5 29 per cent. in the previous year.

5. Gunnies.—The increase shown during 1887-88 was further extended during the year under report, the total quantity registered showing an advance of 116,838 bags and 193,236 bags in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. Last year the despatches to Calcutta showed a rise of 99,853 bags, and to other places of 16,985 bags. Under the latter head the supply sent to Bhuddressur from Dulalgunge was 48,862 bags, against 21,300 bags in the previous year.

6. Wheat.—The total traffic in wheat showed a falling off of 3,90,627 maunds on the returns of 1887-88, and of 4,88,514 maunds on those of 1886-87. The following statement shows the different trade blocks from which wheat was exported during the past three years by the Nuddea rivers :—

The decrease in the consignments from Behar is attributable to short shipments from Monghyr (1,08,868 maunds against 1,87,485 maunds), and Bhagulpore (1,43,862 maunds against 2,10,541 maunds), while the falling off under the Western and Eastern Bengal blocks represents decreases in the supplies drawn from Moorshedabad (1,42,319 maunds against 2,22,211 maunds) and Nuddea (2,81,134 maunds against 3,79,190 maunds), respectively.

Out of the total supply during the past year, Calcutta received 9,37,540 maunds, and the remainder (9,468 maunds) was distributed among the different marts in Burdwan (4,164 maunds), Hooghly (2,306 maunds), Nuddea (1,473 maunds), and other places (1,525 maunds). The supply of wheat carried to Calcutta by this route formed 16·99 per cent. of the total quantity imported by all routes during 1888-89, against 18·22 per cent. in the previous year.

7. Gram and pulse.—The total traffic during the past year very closely approximated that of 1887-88, but the figures show an increase of 2,62,189 maunds in comparison with those of 1886-87. In the following statement the total quantity carried down stream during the past three years is distributed according to the different trade blocks from which the supplies were exported:—

By far the largest increase occurred in the consignments from the Behar block. Compared with 1887-88, the exports from Monghyr increased by 42,411 maunds, those from Bhagulpore by 30,600 maunds, and those from Shahabad by 29,757 maunds. The falling off under the Eastern Bengal block was chiefly owing to short supplies from Nuddea (4,74,508 maunds against 5.67,142 maunds), while the decline under the Northern Bengal block is in the main accounted for by an increase of 40,005 maunds from Maldah against a decrease of 37,188 maunds from Rajshahye, and 30,114 maunds from Pubna. After deducting the supply sent to Calcutta, there remained 20,051 maunds, out of which 6,590 maunds were consigned to the different marts in Moorshedabad, 5,308 maunds to Nuddea, 3,502 maunds to Hooghly, 3,285 maunds to Burdwan, and 1,366 maunds to other places. The quantity shipped for Calcutta by this route was 28·61 per cent. of the total imports, against 85·33 per cent. attracted to the East Indian Railway, and 172·27 per cent. to the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

8. Other spring and rain crops.—The increase noticed in the last report was maintained and also slightly extended during 1888-89. The entire supply during the past three years was shipped from the different trade blocks mentioned in the following statement :—

Owing to indifferent crops, Behar was not able to contribute more than about a third of what it supplied during 1886-87. The deficiency, however, was made up by larger exports from the Eastern Bengal block, which consisted of supplies from the Nuddea district alone. Practically the entire trade was with Calcutta.

9. Rice and paddy.—The following figures indicate the trade in rice and paddy carried down stream during the past year as compared with the figures of the preceding two years :—

The chief fluctuation was an increase of 1,35,512 maunds in the shipments from Northern Bengal. The Dinagepore supply rose from 3,62,087 maunds to 4,68,743 maunds, while the consignments from Bogra aggregated 1,09,673 maunds, against 82,715 maunds in 1887-88. The quantity imported into Calcutta was 9,45,988 maunds of rice and 2,002 maunds of paddy, and that sent to other places, 42,705 maunds of rice and 11,701 maunds of paddy. The details of the latter traffic are shown below:—

Last year the quantity of rice carried to Calcutta by this route was 6·22 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 5·43 per cent. in the previous year.

10. Ghee.—The quantity registered was 24,752 maunds, which showed an increase of 5,936 maunds as compared with 1887-88, and of 8,880 maunds as compared with 1886-87. Almost the entire supply was sent to Calcutta with the exception of 337 maunds, of which 307 maunds were consigned to Moorshedabad, and 30 maunds to Hooghly.

11. Saline substances other than saltpetre.—Under miscellaneous saline substances there was an increase of 13,077 maunds on the returns of 1887-88, and of 56,125 maunds on those of 1886-87. This trade also was almost entirely with Calcutta.

12. Oilseeds.—The aggregate quantity of oilseeds carried was 3,31,111 maunds and 5,18,275 maunds below the trade of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, as the following figures will show:—

There was a decrease under all the blocks mentioned in the above table. Of the chief exporting districts, there was a falling off of 27,993 maunds in the supplies from Durbhunga, 19,878 maunds from Monghyr, 26,181 maunds from Moorshedabad, 15,370 maunds from Purneah, 12,978 maunds from Maldah, and 28,463 maunds from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh. Last year, the quantity of linseed carried to Calcutta by this route was 10·81 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 11·44 per cent. in the previous year.

As regards mustard seed, there was a considerable decrease of 2,28,915 maunds and 5,19,039 maunds in the quantity registered during the year as compared with the two years 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. In the following statement the total quantity carried down stream during the past three years, is distributed according to the different trade blocks from which the supplies were exported:—

The falling off in the exports from Behar is due to short shipments from Bhagulpore, (86,994 maunds against 1,42,673 maunds), Durbhunga, 23,606 maunds against 80,540 maunds), Monghyr, (27,104 maunds against

54,584 maunds), and Chumparun, (6,526 maunds against 24,978 maunds), while Purneah, in the Northern Bengal block, contributed 58,231 maunds against 88,693 maunds, and Pubna 1,925 maunds against 10,545 maunds. The consignments from Assam diminished by 27,367 maunds in comparison with the year preceding. Out of the total supply during the past year, Calcutta imported 2,80,507 maunds, and the remainder, 29,311 maunds, was distributed among the different districts named in the subjoined table:—

The quantity shipped for Calcutta by this route was 13·83 per cent. of the total imports, against 22·97 per cent. attracted to the East Indian Railway, and 191·28 per cent. to the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

13. Silk, raw.—The total quantity rose from 141 maunds in 1886-87 and 255 maunds in 1887-88, to 2,327 maunds in 1888 89. This traffic last year was entirely with places other than Calcutta, the chief exporting district being Moorshedabad, and the chief importers Azimgunge, Jungypore, and Jeagunge, all in the Moorshedabad district.

14. Silk manufactured.—Under this head there was an increase of Rs. 19,389 over the figures of 1887-88, and of Rs. 10,189 in comparison with those for 1886-87. This, however, was all local traffic between Shibgunge in Maldah and Khagra in Moorshedabad.

15. Sugar, refined.—The quantity registered was 17,649 maunds against 10,348 maunds in 1887-88, and 7,190 maunds in 1886-87. The increase last year was due to larger supplies from Ghazipore, which exported by this route 11,785 maunds against 7,464 maunds in 1887-88. The traffic outside Calcutta amounted to 4,202 maunds, out of which 3,946 maunds were sent to Moorshedabad and 256 maunds to other places. The supply of refined sugar carried by the Nuddea rivers forms but a small fraction of the total quantity imported into Calcutta by all routes.

16. Sugar, unrefined.—The total quantity of unrefined sugar, or goor, was 36,422 maunds, showing a decrease of 4,869 maunds, and 20,573 maunds on the totals of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The quantity consigned to Calcutta was 20,879 maunds, while 15,543 maunds were despatched to other districts to meet local demands in the interior. Of this latter supply, 6,420 maunds were taken by Khagra in Moorshedabad.

17. Tobacco.—There was a slight recovery in the total trade as compared with 1887-88, but the figures are still below those of 1886-87 by 37,863 maunds. The quantity carried to Calcutta was 51,389 maunds, and the remainder (1,12,577 maunds) found its way to the different marts noted below:—

18. Timber.—The weight of timber registered was almost the same as in the previous year, but the figures were below the trade of 1886-87 by 1,04,765 maunds. The Collector of Tolls writes:—"The felling of timber appears to have been stopped for a time, and when the mahajuns got a supply, they had to use other routes, as the rafts could not proceed down this river." Last year Durbhunga supplied 20,519 maunds, Purneah 12,952 maunds, Bhagulpore 11,898 maunds, and other districts 10,826 maunds. The supply consigned to Calcutta was 52,513 maunds, and of the remainder (3,682 maunds,) 2,459 maunds went to Nuddea, and 1,223 maunds to other districts.

19. Up-stream traffic.—The chief articles of up-stream traffic registered during 1888-89, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years, are shown in the following statement:—

20. Coal and coke.—The increase shown during 1887-88 was not maintained during the year under report, the total quantity registered being 79,472 maunds less than in the previous year, and 41,454 maunds below the totals of 1886-87. The detailed distribution of coal by this route, district by district, during 1888-89 is shown below:—

21. Cotton piece-goods, European.—The figures under European piece-goods show an increase of Rs. 39,703 in value as compared with 1887-88, and of Rs. 29,225 as compared with 1886-87. The following statement shows all the exporting marts, and the places of destination:—

The smallness of the supply from the Calcutta market is due to the fact that as a rule piece-goods are exported from the metropolis by rail.

22. Gunny cloth.—There was a heavy falling off in the exports of gunny cloth, of which only 150,573 pieces were exported from Calcutta and elsewhere during the past year, against 547,740 pieces in 1887-88, and 669,728 pieces in 1886-87. The different districts to which the supplies were carried during 1888-89 are named below.

Out of the past year's supply, 30,484 maunds were exported from Calcutta, and 3,349 maunds from other places. The exports from Calcutta amounted to 7,83,029 maunds against 8,14,708 maunds in 1887-88, and from other places to 68,494 maunds against 74,731 maunds. CHAPTER IV.

TRAFFIC ON THE GANGES, THE BHAGIRUTHEE, THE JELLINGHEE, AND THE HOOGHLY RIVERS, CARRIED BY INLAND STEAMERS.

As in the two preceding years, statistics have been collected to show the import and export traffic of Calcutta carried by the steamers of the India General and the Calcutta Steam Navigation Companies plying on the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, and the Hooghly. Since March, 1889, the steamers of the latter Company have also been running on the Jellinghee, and the figures of this trade have also been embodied in this report. The principal stations opened by these Companies are named below :—

The decrease noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, when the gross quantity of traffic carried both ways was 11·77 per cent. less than that of the previous year. In the import traffic, the falling off was 19·91 per cent., but in the export trade there was a slight increase of 6·37 per cent. The figures of the Behar block, where the crops were poor, showed the largest decline, namely, 72·32 per cent. under imports, and 44·53 per cent. under exports. In the Western Bengal block, however, there was a rise of 58·66 per cent. in the import trade, and of 71·83 per cent in the export trade. The advance under the former head occurred in the shipments of rice, and that under the latter head in European piece-goods. As regards the trade with the North-Western Provinces, the exports from Calcutta during the past year were nil, and hence the decrease shown above.

The Midnapore canal returns during the past year show a decrease of 6·76 per cent. compared with 1887-88, and a trifling increase of ·59 per cent. compared with 1886-87. The Panchkoorah Locks were closed to traffic during the greater part of the month of August, 1888, owing to the excessive accumulation of silt in the entrances. The traffic on the Hidgellee canal shows an increase of 34·56 per cent. compared with 1887-88, and of 6·78 per cent. in comparison with 1886-87; the revival in trade is owing to this route having been kept open for traffic throughout the year under report. Of the entire traffic, 77·17 per cent was carried to, and from, Calcutta against 85·13 per cent in the preceding year.

2. The principal staples which contributed to the increase in the traffic of the year as compared with its predecessor were rice (1,84,856 maunds), salt (42,105 maunds), jute, raw (18,368 maunds), sugar, unrefined (17,329 maunds), vegetables and all other kinds of fresh fruits (14,573 maunds). On the other hand, there was a decrease of 52,367 maunds in gram and pulse, 45,997 maunds in rice in the husk, 28,041 in number of hides, 20,392 maunds in timber, and 10,239 maunds in cotton twist and yarn, European. The number of laden boats registered at the several toll stations on the canals during the past three years, was as follows:—

Last year the imports into Calcutta were 22·57 per cent greater than in the previous year. The supply carried to Midnapore, however, showed a decrease of 14·59 per cent., while in the case of Hooghly there was a slight decrease of 10·44 per cent. As regards the exports, the figures under Midnapore showed but little change compared with the preceding year, but the quantities shipped from Hooghly and Balasore were 34·73 per cent. and 46·25 per cent. above the trade of 1887-88, respectively, the Calcutta figures remaining almost stationary.

8. Sugar, unrefined.—The increase noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, the total quantity amounting to 1,23,782 maunds, against 1,06,453 maunds in 1887-88, and 91,666 maunds in 1886-87. The amount of the Calcutta trade during the past year was 1,18,202 maunds, while 2,650 maunds represent the local trade of the Midnapore district, and 2,930 maunds the trade between Midnapore, Hooghly and the 24-Pergunnahs.

9. Tobacco.—The total of the tobacco trade amounted to 95,917 maunds against 85,123 maunds in 1887-88, and 91,666 maunds in 1886-87. The Calcutta portion of the trade amounted to 92,855 maunds, and of the remainder 2,169 maunds represent the local trade of the different marts in the Midnapore district.

10. Timber.—The trade in timber was 20,392 maunds below the total of 1887-88, and 48,751 maunds less than in 1886-87. The amount of the local trade of the Midnapore district was 38,698 maunds. The quantity of timber imported into, and exported from, Calcutta by this route was 24,543 maunds, while 2,022 maunds represent the trade between Midnapore, Hooghly, the 24-Pergunnahs, and Balasore.

CHAPTER VII.

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE ORISSA CANALS.

The total quantity and value of the trade passing along the Orissa canals during the past three years, were as follows:—

The traffic upon this route during the past year showed a decrease of 16·38 per cent. when compared with 1887-88, and of 15·90 per cent. when compared with 1886-87. The following statement is taken from the report of the Executive Engineer, Brahmini-Byturni Division:—

"During the year 1888-89, no new navigation canals were opened in this Division, and the total number of miles open is 108.

"There has been a falling off under all heads under private traffic excepting building materials and passengers. The falling off in grain and seeds is due chiefly to the deficient harvest resulting from a scanty rainfall in October last. The decrease under salt and piece-goods is probably due to the people being unable to buy to the same extent as before owing to the poor harvest."

2. The total number of laden boats registered on these canals during the past three years was as follows:—

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE ORISSA COAST CANAL.

Last year there was very little change in the gross weight in comparison with 1887-88, but the figures were 5,34,699 maunds, or 70·50 per cent. above those of 1886-87. An interesting report on the traffic of the Orissa Coast Canal for the year 1888-89 has been submitted by Mr. A. Hayes, Executive Engineer, Balasore Division, and from it the following extracts have been taken:—

"The past year having been the first year during which it may be said there was continuous and uninterrupted navigation throughout the entire length of the Hidgellee Tidal Canal and the Orissa Coast Canal, a somewhat more detailed investigation into the traffic which passed through the latter canal than the Annual Revenue Report will allow space for, seems desirable with a view of showing how far the anticipations of traffic have been realized up to date, and what probability there is hereafter of the complete realization of the financial forecast made by Mr. Apjohn in his report accompanying the revised estimate of the Coast Canal.

"It is first necessary to ascertain for the past year how much of the total export and import of the principal ports of the Balasore district has passed along the canal, and how much has gone by sea.

"Food-grains make up by far the greatest portion of the exports of the district, and the following return will show the quantities despatched along the canal from the Muttai towards Calcutta (assuming half the quantities despatched from Baliaghye viâ Jharesaree and Masagaon to be from the northern portion of the Balasore district, and half from the southern portion of Midnapore district), and consequently omitted from these returns as entering into port returns of the district; and the corrected exports for 1886-87, 1887-88, and 1888-89 will stand as follows:—

* "Canal" measured cargo reduced in the proportion of $\frac{1\cdot39}{1}$ to bring to "actual" cargo. (Mr. Vertannes, assumption.)

"As regards the grain export trade of the district, and its bearing on the future welfare of the canal, these figures show a very satisfactory result. Last year was a year of bad crops generally owing to a late season and unequally distributed rainfall which first caused a heavy general inundation, followed subsequently at the end of the season by a drought which seriously affected the yield of all the crops that the flood had spared; yet in spite of this we see that the total grain export of the district reached a total of 12,13,240 maunds, of which amount about 50 per cent. went up to Calcutta by the canal, and for the last three years the average grain export of the district stands at 13,20,897 maunds.

"The export to other places than Calcutta was very small last year. Only one sea-going ship came for cargo to the Balasore roads. An analysis of the port returns further shows that for the past year while $4\frac{3}{4}$ lakhs maunds of grain left the port of Balasore (excluding canal traffic), only two lakhs left Chandbally (the amount from the other ports being too insignificant to mention).

"The grain traffic, as already stated, comprises by far the greater bulk of the canal traffic. The table below shows the grain traffic passing each station, and the total of each range for each month in the past year:—

* Note.—The very insignificant returns from these two stations were lumped under Charbettia.

"This table shows very extraordinary results, the traffic in Range III being nine times that of all the other ranges put together, and reaching already, although Range III of the canal has only been open five years, the mileage receipt rate (gross) of Rs. 1,266 per mile, or nearly half that assumed by Mr. Apjohn for the seventeenth year of its existence, 1896-1897, viz. Rs. 2,714 per mile (gross), and this with practically no assistance from traffic lower down the canal from the more southern parts of Balasore district, which, the return will show, may up to date be practically said scarcely to exist. It will further be noted that it measured in 1887-88 1,20,901 maunds over the previous year, and again in 1888-89 the increase in a very bad year was 44,780 maunds over 1887-88.

"These figures for Range III cannot but be considered eminently satisfactory, and it now remains to enquire why with such a splendid route open to it the traffic returns from the Cuttack side of Bhograi show such poor returns for the past year, and why practically none of the heavy export traffic in grain to Calcutta from the lower portion of the Balasore district, amounting to 33,005 maunds, elected to take the canal route by steamer and sloop.

"Although the novelty of the route, the absence of proper boats, and the extra length of time occupied, the difficulties with the Hidgellee tidal canal, absence of feeder roads, may all be factors in the marked disinclination to adopt the canal route as yet, where it comes into competition with the sea, it would be only reasonable to suppose that the question of relative cheapness and convenience must also weigh with the exporters; and this is tantamount to saying that the relative cost of carriage by sea and canal has not been accurately gauged by the canal authorities, and the sea route is still the cheaper and more convenient for the exporters, notwithstanding that freights by steamer have fallen, since Mr. Vertannes wrote, from four annas and nine pie to four annas per bag of two maunds, reducing his steamer freight rate from Calcutta to Chandbally from Rs. 7-13 to Rs. 7-3 per ton, which rate may also be taken for Balasore. As regards the sloop trade, it is declining; no new sloops are apparently being built in the port, nor heavy repairs executed to the existing vessels, the number of which is diminishing.

"The preference given by the traders of Balasore and Chandbally to the sea route is due, it is believed, to the following causes:—

"First and mainly, the unsatisfactory nature of the Hidgellee Tidal Canal, which every two years has to be closed for silt-clearing. This frequent blocking of the route naturally would prevent merchants investing capital freely in building cargo-boats of a proper kind for the canal route, and the closures have got it a bad name, which every effort should be made to remove.

"2. The novelty of the route and the backwardness of the country on the Cuttack side of the Subarnarekha.—Proper inland boats are practically unknown between the latter river and the Muttai, and with the decline of the sloop trade the boat-builders seem to have vanished, while boats on English lines, of splendid model and workmanship, are being turned out all over Contai and Tumlook, and replacing the 'panswey' class. Across the Subarnarekha, in the Balasore district, the most wretchedly primitive small crafts are the only boats available. With the exception of the sea trade, Balasore has always been a non-boating district, and the river fishing-boats are of the clumsiest unstable order. The Cuttack boats are good measuring boats and well suited enough to the class of rivers they use, where poling is often required. They are not so well adapted to the Hooghly and similar waters.

"3. Absence of feeder roads.—For a great part of the year there are no means of communication with the canal. The required communications partly exist, and for an expenditure of probably less than Rs. 90,000 would be completed and the reproach removed.

"4. The convenience and quick despatch of the steamer route, which does not necessitate any expensive outlay of capital on boat building.—The exporters, as has been already noted, are practically entirely without any suitable canal boats of their own between the Subarnarekha and the Muttai, nor can they hire them, as such boats are non-existent in the Balasore district between the Dhamrah and the Subarnarekha, and the boat-owners in Hidgellee appear to have quite sufficient work to occupy all their craft on their own side of the latter river.

"5. Disinclination to move out of existing lines.—This, a general Indian feature, is enormously intensified in Orissa, as any officer who has served in Bengal and in Orissa must have noticed.

"Of the above probable causes for the slowness in taking up canal lines by exporters, No. 1, which is by far the most serious, it is believed, is to be remedied at an early date. When this is done and the Hidgellee Tidal Canal is put into equal order with the Coast Canal, a very excellent route from Orissa to the chief mart will exist and will surely be largely utilized.

"Cause No. 2, greatly dependent on No 1, will disappear gradually as the merchants find it to their advantage to build proper boats for the canal route. That the condition of the Balasore river will force them ere long to adopt the latter may be taken as a foregone conclusion.

"No. 3.—Early means should be found for the completion of these roads.

"No. 4.—See No. 2.

"No. 5.—Time and improved communications must be depended on to wake up Orissa.

"Reduced through rates.—Suggestions have been made in previous communications that it would be desirable to encourage traffic from the Cuttack side of the Subarnarekha by offering, as is done on railways, reduced rates to those exporters who use the whole length or greater portion of the length of the route. That such reduction is generally equitable is undeniable, and more especially so on Indian canals, where the cost of water-carriage is high. It seems hard that an exporter using large boats of a good measuring type, such as cargo flats, measuring largely when empty and travelling, say, on a return journey empty or with a return load under the assumed proportions, should be mulcted the more the farther the distance he uses the canal, and with boats of a worse measuring type the penalty for travelling back empty is still heavier. No doubt experience will teach the owners of such boats in time to arrange for full and return cargoes whenever possible; but the question seems to be, is it not a better policy with all new enterprises, with competition existing, to popularise the route, putting as few restrictions on traffic as possible?

"Should any reduction of rate on long-distance journeys be considered desirable with a view to popularise the canal route, the same should take effect only from those parts of the canal where sea competition comes into play, that is to say, on the Cuttack side of Nulcool. Only boats taking tickets from Gewankhally to Nulcool or from Gewankhally to Charbettia and vice versâ would get the reduction. It might be desirable perhaps hereafter to extend the concession subsequently to Cuttack; but for the present the interests of the Coast Canal only are under consideration, and the Cuttack authorities, not having sea competition, would probably object to cheaper rates. We shall be very well content if we can secure at an early date the greater portion, if not all, of the 5½ lakhs of maunds of grain at present leaving the district by sea for Calcutta between Nulcool and Alba. The reduction would not apply to steamers carrying passengers, which already get special reductions."

7. The number of loaded boats registered during the past three years, was as follows :—

It will be observed that the import trade of Midnapore showed a falling off of 17·17 per cent. in comparison with the previous year. In the case of Calcutta, there was a rise of 6·70 per cent. under imports, and a decrease of 21·11 per cent. under exports, while the Balasore trade was 14·30 per cent. less under imports, but 19·56 per cent. more under exports than in 1887-88.

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE CALCUTTA CANALS.

In the following statement the total quantity and value of the trade of Calcutta carried by country boats along the Calcutta canals during the past year, are compared with the figures of the two previous years:—

Boats which have been loaded, or are to be unloaded, at the Port Commissioners' wharves on the Hooghly, are registered by the Port Commissioners, and consequently are not registered at the canal stations.

2. Last year the increase in the gross quantity was 7·78 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, and 19·43 per cent. in comparison with 1886-87. The largest improvement, occurred in the import trade, which rose by 8·84 per cent. on the total of 1887-88, the most important items which contributed to the advance being firewood (5,76,560 maunds), rice (2,75,162 maunds), raw jute (2,67,461 maunds) and lime and limestone (1,96,066 maunds), while gram and pulse fell off by 2,74,610 maunds, and other kinds of provisions by 1,42,975 maunds. In the export trade, there was an increase of 2,10,275 maunds in paddy, and 73,790 maunds in salt, against a decrease of 91,637 maunds in oils. Detailed statements of this traffic will be found among the appendices to this report.

CHAPTER IX.

TRAFFIC ON THE BRAHMAPURTA AND MEGNA RIVERS, INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL (WITH ASSAM).

The statistics of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers re limited to a record of the trade under the following heads.—

(1) Traffic carried by the River Steamer Companies;
(2) Traffic carried by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal State Railway; and
(3) Trade of Bengal with Assam carried by country boats.

2 A statement is appended to this report showing the river-borne trade f Bengal with the Brahmaputra and Surma valleys of the Province of Assam arried by steamer, as well as by country boat during the past three years. n analysis of the trade carried by inland steamers and country boat is, however, given below separately under each of the heads above mentioned.

RIVER-BORNE TRAFFIC CARRIED BY THE RIVER STEAMER COMPANIES

3. The amount of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and the Upper Megna rivers by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company nd the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, during the past official year, is ompared in the following table with the trade of the two preceding years:—

These figures show that there was considerable expansion of traffic, the otal quantity registered being 16·52 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1887-88, and 25·31 per cent. over those for 1886 87. The greatest improvement ccurred in the upward traffic, the gross weight of which exceeded that of 1887-88 and 1886-87, by 8,96,821 maunds and 6,98.912 maunds, respectively. Compared with the previous year, the increase on the Brahmaputra route was 16·97 per cent., and that on the Megna route, 15·91 per cent. In the case of

Bengal, the imports showed a rise of 3·22 per cent., and the exports of 140·41 per cent., while as regards Assam, the imports increased by 19·02 per cent., and the exports by 13·35 per cent.

4. The following are the staples in which the increase during the past year, as compared with 1887-88, was most important. European piece-goods (Rs. 16,87,644), coal and coke (4,74,649 maunds), raw jute (2,49,367 maunds), leather manufactured (Rs. 1,79,378), tea (1,88,854 maunds), Indian woollen manufactures (Rs. 1,01,109), oils (82,129 maunds), and salt (65,191 maunds), whilst the largest falling off occurred under liquors (Rs. 5,50,853,) non-intoxicating drugs and chemicals (Rs. 1,50,730), rice (1,16,883 maunds), mustard seed (1,06,686 maunds), and betelnuts (38,669 maunds). 5. Since October, 1886, both the India General Steam Navigation Company and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company have opened a "despatch service," i.e., they receive in Calcutta goods intended for transmission to Assam and places in Bengal, and despatch these goods by rail to Goalundo, and thence by steamers to Assam and places in Bengal. These steamer companies also undertake to land in Calcutta goods sent by this service to Goalundo from Assam and places in Bengal. Such traffic is returned as steamer-borne traffic between the Eastern Bengal block and Assam, and in this way the Assam trade with Eastern Bengal is very largely, but fictitiously, increased at the cost of that with Calcutta, which shows less traffic than is really the case.

6. Caoutchouc or India-rubber.—The imports of caoutchouc into Bengal from Assam showed a slight increase of 869 maunds on the trade of the previous year. Only 63 maunds were carried to Calcutta direct, while 8,024 maunds against 7,202 maunds were landed at Goalundo, no doubt for conveyance by rail to Calcutta.

7. Coal.—There was a considerable recovery in the coal trade. The total quantity sent to Dacca and Serajgunge from Calcutta rose from 62,702 maunds in 1887-88 to 4,23,903 maunds in 1888-89, while the shipments therefrom to Assam showed an increase of 1,03,900 maunds. In the supplies received from Assam, there was very little change in comparison with the figures for the two previous years as shown below:—

		1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
		Mds.	Mds.	Mds.

The Calcutta imports came all the way by steamer, and none by rail viâ Goalundo as in previous years.

8. Cotton twist and yarn, European.—Under this head an increase is shown of 4,824 maunds in the exports to Assam from Bengal. Last year only 831 maunds were shipped from Calcutta direct, while 11,658 maunds were carried viâ Goalundo. The total quantity of the internal trade remained the same as in the previous year.

9. Cotton piece-goods, European.—The total value of the exports of European piece-goods from Bengal increased by Rs. 16,87,644 or 25·19 per cent, in comparison with the returns of the previous year. The value of the supply carried to Assam from Bengal rose by Rs. 13,30,371, or 29·60 per cent., while in the internal trade the figures showed an advance of Rs. 3,57,273, or 16·26 per cent. Last year Rs. 30,56,634, against Rs. 21,69,468 worth of goods were shipped for Assam from Calcutta direct, and Rs. 27,68,157 against Rs. 23,25,3?0 worth were carried viâ Goalundo, the consignments being of course originally made from Calcutta by rail.

10. Jute, raw.—The total traffic showed an advance of 2,49,367 maunds or 8·43 per cent., as compared with 1887-88, and of 4,20,643 maunds, or 15·11 per cent., on the totals of 1886-87. The quantity sent to Calcutta from the internal blocks, showed a rise of 1,89,850 maunds, and that shipped from Assam of 59,489 maunds.

11. Gunnies.—An increase of 66,182 bags is shown in the total traffic under this head as compared with 1887-88, and of 59,691 bags as compared with 1886 87. Last year the exports from Calcutta to the internal blocks rose from 4,473 bags to 16,940 bags, while the consignments to Assam from all blocks aggregated 75,600 bags, against only 17,045 bags in 1887-88.

12. Lac—stick and other kinds.—Owing to a short crop of stick lac in Bengal, a large supply, amounting to 33,606 maunds against 17,887 maunds in 1887-88, was sent from Assam to meet the requirements of the Calcutta market.

13. Gram and pulse.—Trade under this head is important in so far as the exports from Bengal to Assam are concerned. Last year the quantity shipped from Calcutta was below the figures of 1887-88 by 8,635 maunds, and that from Northern Bengal by 5,047 maunds, but the despatches from Eastern Bengal increased by 1,921 maunds.

14. Rice.—A falling off of 1,16,883 maunds, or 27·54 per cent., occurred in the quantity of rice registered during the past year as compared with 1887-88, but the figures were in excess of the trade of 1886-87 by 44,568 maunds, or 12·66 per cent. The decrease was chiefly in the exports to Assam from Bengal, as the following statement will show:—

Last year Assam supplied Bengal with 8,705 maunds of rice, of which 6,029 maunds came viâ the Megna, and 2,676 maunds viâ the Brahmaputra. In 1887-88, no rice was imported.

15. Iron.—Iron showed a large advance of 34,182 maunds, or 24·37 per cent., on the trade of 1887-88, and of 60,785 maunds, or 53·62 per cent., on that of 1886-87. The exports from Calcutta to the internal blocks aggregated 29,088 maunds, against 5,542 maunds in 1887-88, while the consignments from Bengal to Assam rose from 1,33,660 maunds to 1,43,778 maunds.

16. Oils.—There was a great recovery in the total trade as compared with 1887-88, and the figures were also higher than those of 1886-87 by 11,422 maunds, or 5·17 per cent. The supply carried to the internal blocks from Calcutta showed an advance of 64,939 maunds in comparison with the year preceding, while the exports from Bengal to Assam increased from 59,048 maunds to 76,234 maunds.

17. Salt.—The total trade in salt amounted during the past year to 4,38,570 maunds, showing an increase of 65,191 maunds, or 17·46 per cent., on the traffic of 1887-88, and of 1,48,208 maunds, or 51·04 per cent., on that of 1886-87. In the despatches to the Bengal blocks from Calcutta, there was an improvement of 13,547 maunds, while shipments to Assam from Calcutta advanced from 2,33,982 maunds in 1887-88 to 2,85,423 maunds in the year under report.

18. Mustard seed.—The increase shown during 1887-88 was not maintained, the total quantity registered being 1,06,686 maunds, or 26·28 per cent. less than in the preceding year, but it was still in excess of the figures for 1886-87 by 30,779 maunds, or 11·47 per cent. The largest falling off is observable in the shipments from Assam to Bengal (2,77,614 maunds against 3,38,965 maunds), while the consignments to Calcutta from the internal blocks which aggregated only 21,506 maunds were about one-third those of the previous year.

19. Til seed.—The total traffic under this head rose from 6,404 maunds in 1886-87 and 9,698 maunds in 1887-88, to 35,676 maunds in 1888-89. By far the largest increase occurred in the supplies carried from Assam to Calcutta, which received 28,886 maunds against only 8,026 maunds in the previous year.

20. Silk, raw.—The strong demand for raw silk in the Calcutta market at the close of 1888 stimulated exports of this article from Assam, which supplied 4,270 maunds during the past year, against 2,181 maunds in 1887-88, and 946 maunds in 1886-87.

21. Woollen goods, Indian.—A very large business was done in Indian woollen goods, the total value of which amounted to Rs. 2,12,676 against Rs. 1,12,383 in 1887-88, and Rs. 30,252 in 1886-87. Practically the whole of the past year's supply went to Assam from Calcutta and the Eastern Bengal block.

30. It will be seen that the imports showed a slight falling off of 4·19 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88, but they were still so much as 40·98 per cent. over the figures for 1886-87, while in the exports, there was a decrease of 20·43 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, and of 70·13 per cent. on that of 1886-87. In the Dacca block, which carries on the largest trade with Assam, the decrease under imports amounted to 12·99 per cent., and under exports to 35·49 per cent. as compared with the figures for the year preceding. In the Calcutta block there was little or no change under imports, but under exports there was an advance of 49·77 per cent. The trade of the Northern Bengal block exhibited a rise of 12·70 per cent. under imports, and a large decline of 35·76 per cent. under exports. In the Eastern Bengal block there were similar fluctuations, the imports showing an advance of 30·93 per cent, and the exports a considerable reduction of 65·82 per cent.

31. It may be explained that the figures given against the Calcutta block in the foregoing statement will not bear comparison with those shown in chapter X of this report. In the returns of Bhoyrub Bazar and Dhubri, through-trade viâ Goalundo between Assam and Calcutta is shown as trade between Assam and Calcutta; but as on the Eastern Bengal State Railway there is no through-booking of goods between Calcutta and Assam viâ Goalundo, the Railway returns show this trade as between Eastern Bengal and Calcutta. On the other hand, the registration of the Calcutta traffic is effected by a cordon of stations, and under this system the actual quantity carried by country boats to and from Assam is correctly recorded.

32. The following statement shows the quantities and values of all the chief articles of trade between Bengal and Assam during 1888-89, compared with the totals of the preceding two years :—

As regards the import traffic, the articles which showed a marked increase over the trade of the previous year were rice, paddy, raw jute, and timber, and the staples in which the largest decrease occurred were oranges, lime and limestone, mustard seed, potatoes, tilseed, and shell-lac. In the export traffic, there were large increases under gunnies, oils, and salt, while European piece-goods, rice, gram and pulses, betelnuts, and tobacco showed heavy decreases. The particulars of these fluctuations are given below:—

33. Imports from Assam.—The total quantity of lime and limestone showed Lime and limestone. a decrease of 1,95,490 maunds in comparison with the trade of 1887-88. The decrease occurred in the supplies carried to Dacca, which imported 4,02,281 maunds against 7,11,086 maunds in the previous year. The imports into all other blocks showed an increase. In raw jute the figures showed an increase of 37,477 maunds, chiefly in Jute, raw. the imports into Northern Bengal, which is credited with 1,11,868 maunds against 71,808 maunds in the preceding year. The decrease under oranges was large, namely, Oranges. 38,692,190 in number. The falling off in the number despatched to Eastern Bengal was 3,393,920; to Calcutta 20,954,390; to Dacca 13,714,920; and to other blocks 628,960. The traffic in potatoes fell off from Potatoes. 41,652 maunds to 25,788 maunds; the imports into Calcutta alone showed a decline of 17,747 maunds, against an increase of 2,059 maunds in the Dacca block. The total quantity of paddy showed a Paddy. considerable increase of 3,85,807 maunds when comparison is made with the figures from 1887-88. Out of the total traffic, 6,50,736 maunds against 3,32,190 maunds were sent to the Dacca block, 56,?84 maunds against 8,574 maunds to Northern Bengal, and 26,191 maunds against 7,570 maunds to Eastern Bengal. The increase under rice was still Rice. larger, namely, 5,48,524 maunds. The greatest improvement is shown in the despatches to the Dacca block, which received 5,22,318 maunds against only 5,880 maunds in 1887-88. The total quantity of shell-lac showed a decrease of 8,582 maunds, which occurred Shell-lac. chiefly in the supplies sent to Calcutta (644 maunds against 7,332 maunds). The quantity of mustard seed registered was less than the trade of 1887-88 by 48,240 maunds. The Calcutta imports Mustard seed. showed a decrease of 17,018 maunds, while the falling off under the Northern Bengal block amounted to 20,929 maunds, and under other blocks to 10,293 maunds. In the case of til seed, the figures showed a decline of 12,656 maunds, chiefly in the supply despatched to Calcutta, which imported 6,095 maunds against 17,037 maunds in the preceding year. The trade in timber showed a rise of 26,050 maunds on the returns of 1887-88. The consignments to the Dacca block increased from 3,92,518 maunds to 4,26,792 maunds, but those despatched to Northern Bengal exhibited a decline of 15,638 maunds.

34. Exports to Assam.—The export trade in cotton piece-goods of European manufacture showed a decrease of Rs. 6,23,320 in value as compared with the year preceding. The consignments from Calcutta showed an advance of Rs. 1,26,441, but in those from the Dacca block, there was a considerable falling off of Rs. 3,78,000. The trade in gunnies rose by 252,770 bags, owing chiefly to larger supplies carried from Calcutta (281,470 bags against 25,795 bags). The exports of gram and pulse showed a heavy decrease of 1,05,810 maunds. In the despatches from Northern Bengal, the figures indicated a falling off of 62,863 maunds, and in those from the Dacca block of 29,705 maunds. The rice trade fell off by 4,06,802 maunds. The Eastern Bengal block, which contributed 1,24,090 maunds in 1887-88, despatched merely 875 maunds during the year under report. Similarly Dacca sent to Assam only 37,143 maunds against 2,69,560 maunds in the previous year, and Northern Bengal 18,573 maunds against 62,799 maunds. The increase of 1,16,047 maunds under oils was mainly caused by larger despatches of this article to Assam from the Calcutta market, namely, 2,56,059 maunds against 1,22,810 maunds in 1887-88. In the trade in salt there was an increase of 45,834 maunds. The supply despatched from Calcutta showed an advance of 1,05,515 maunds, but there was a decrease of 20,086 maunds in the consignments from Northern Bengal, of 18,643 maunds in those from the Eastern Bengal block, and of 20,942 maunds in those from the Dacca block. The figures under betelnuts rose from 23,621 maunds in 1887-88 to 30,141 maunds in 1888-89, the increase being due to larger exports from the Dacca block, which contributed 24,501 maunds against 18,804 maunds in the previous year. The tobacco trade fell off from 1,42,652 maunds to 1,20,404 maunds. The chief fluctuations occurred in the quantities exported from the Northern Bengal and Dacca blocks, which sent 12,627 maunds and 6,481 maunds, respectively, less than in the previous year.

These articles alone covered nearly 58 per cent. of the entire import traffic of Calcutta during 1888-89, against 61½ per cent. in the previous year.

The total traffic in the three staples specified above represents 43·26 per cent. of the entire exports from Calcutta during the year under report, against 45·63 per cent. in the year preceding.

4. The value of the Calcutta trade during the past year has been compiled in accordance with the revised system prescribed by the Government of India, as explained in Chapter I of this report. No comparison can, therefore, be instituted between the figures of 1888-89 and those of the two previous years.

5. The circumstances affecting the trade of Calcutta during the past year may be thus enumerated and described :—

Causes, external to the Lower Provinces, which affected the trade of the year.

(1) The cotton crop was poor in the Upper Provinces, and this led to higher prices. On the other hand, much of the cotton which used to find its way out by sea from Calcutta, now goes to Bombay for spinning purposes.

(2) The imports of piece-goods from the United Kingdom were the largest ever yet recorded, but notwithstanding that fact the trade for the year has been characterised as un-satisfactory to both spinners and manufacturers. The previous year was a fairly good one for manufacturers, and the result was an increase in production. In the year under report, spinners, however, obtained better prices for their production, while manufacturers were unable to obtain a corresponding advance for their article. Spinners, too, had to cope with small supplies of cotton during the latter half of the year, and the consequent rise in prices, besides which they had to concede an increase in wages to their operatives. The quality of American cotton was not up to the average, and to keep up the quality of their yarn, higher classes had to be used than formerly.

(3) The trade in the coarse numbers of grey yarn is now almost entirely in the hands of the Bombay mills, and the Lancashire spinners have had virtually to abandon it.

(4) In the United Kingdom the demand for aniline substitutes is perceptibly increasing, and will continue to increase unless the price of indigo keeps low. Prices were, however, low last year; in fact the quotation for good Bengal indigo at the close of 1888 was the lowest known for the past ten years.

(5) The decline in the exports of gram from Calcutta was partly due to a smaller crop, and partly to larger shipments from other ports.

(6) The consumption of rice in Europe is now said to have reached one million tons. The partial failure of the Continental potato crop may have stimulated the consumption of rice, but the enormous quantity that is now consumed must indicate its growing popularity as a staple article of food.

(7) The price of wheat in the United Kingdom fluctuated considerably during 1888. At one time it rose beyond the point which is admitted to be the limit at which wheat growing is profitable to the British farmer, viz., 35*s*. per quarter. Large importations of foreign wheat, however, reduced prices. With improved mechanical appliances and lower rents, the prospects of English wheat are not as gloomy as they have been, and the area under wheat has been increased. Last year the wheat crops in Belgium and France had partially failed, while Russia, owing to two large harvests, had supplanted the United States and taken the first place, her exports to the United Kingdom being far ahead of any other country. The growers of wheat in the United State are said to have been discouraged by the low prices which have ruled so long.

(8) The jute trade in Dundee was in a fairly prosperous condition. With the higher prices ruling on this side, there was a considerable advance in values. To the United States, our second largest customer for jute, the decline is 22·6 per cent. The falling off was only in jute butts and cuttings, said to be due to "Trusts" having been formed by the mills using cuttings, and by the paper mills using butts in that country to manipulate prices and buy at a low price here. Legitimate exporters had to operate with caution, and did not ship their usual quantities.

(9) The hide market was dull during the greater part of the year, and supplies were small throughout.

(10) The trade in unwrought copper suffered owing to the high prices which ruled in the European markets for the greater portion of the year in consequence of the action of the French Syndicate. The operations of this company were of a gigantic nature; but though it had an immense command of capital, being backed by some of the wealthiest houses of business, the control of the world's production of copper was too much for it, and it collapsed at the close of the year.

(11) The trade in nitrate of soda largely influences the trade in saltpetre with the United Kingdom; it improved and the exports of saltpetre increased, though not to the same extent, and prices were on the average very slightly higher than in the previous year.

(12) The linseed crop was damaged by unseasonable rains: difficulties in obtaining freight and the high rates ruling also had a depressing effect upon exports at one part of the year. The United States drew 4 per cent. more than last year. Large exports to that country are only made when there is a bad crop of flax seed there, and probably this was the case during the past year. A linseed oil Trust or Syndicate has been formed in the United States to control prices, and probably the operations of this body have had something to do with the larger exports from here. It is stated that crushers of this seed who have not entered the ring are upholding the ring's prices.

(13) Owing to poor crops there was a heavy decrease in the exports of mustard seed from Calcutta. There was a failure in the Continental crop, which was made up by exports from other parts of India.

(14) For a greater part of the year there was very little business doing in raw silk, chussum, and cocoons, and prices fell, but at the close of 1888, a strong demand arose and prices advanced considerably. So long as there are fair crops of Italian, China, and Japan silks at low prices as there were last year, Bengal silk will be at a discount.

(15) With Europe the trade in Bengal sugar is practically extinct. With the immense production of beet sugar on the Continent, much of it bounty fed, it is not to be expected that our exports will rise again.

(16) There have been extensions, and new tea gardens have been opened out in the Dooars, which is, comparatively speaking, quite a new tea-growing district, and has sprung into importance only within the last few years. The exports to the United Kingdom advanced by over 10 per cent., and it is stated that there has been a large increase in consumption due to the extremely low prices ruling for the common kinds. For really fine teas there was a good demand, and no fall in price occurred.

Causes, internal to the Lower Provinces, which affected the trade of the year.

(1) The indigo crop in Bengal and Behar was much the same as in the previous year. The quality of the crop varied: in some cases it is said to have been decidedly better than in the previous year, while in others it was inferior.

(2) The crop of rice was inferior to that of the previous year, and the margin for export consequently smaller.

(3) The wheat crop, too, was a poor one.

(4) The outturn of pulses was very good in Bengal, but below the average in Behar.

(5) There was a larger area under jute cultivation, and consequently a larger crop than in the preceding year. Prices at the same time were higher, and the cultivation of jute last year should have proved very remunerative.

(6) The jute-manufacturing industry has had another prosperous year. The working of short time continued, and was further extended, the mills now working only nine days in the fortnight.

(7) There was a short crop of stick lac, resulting in high prices, which at the close of the year were nearly double those at the beginning.

(8) The quantity of mineral-oil and cheap glass lamps that are now imported indicate a vast improvement in lighting for the native community generally.

(9) The advance in the imports of unwrought iron is indicative of a tendency on the part of engineering firms here to cast their own machinery in the country instead of importing it from England.

(10) The actual consumption of salt has been slightly higher than in 1887-88, in spite of the increase in duty and the higher prices brought about by the Salt Syndicate. Some native merchants here are setting up machinery for pounding the kurkutch salt so as to bring it into the same form as Liverpool salt.

(11) The linseed crop was poor both in Bengal and Behar.

(12) The outturn of mustard seed was, on the whole, below the average.

(13) There was an extension of sugarcane cultivation in these provinces.

(14) There were increases in the production of tea in all the growing districts except Chittagong and Chota Nagpore. The quality, however, was poor and below the average, partly owing to climatic causes, and partly to a more general sacrifice of quality to quantity.

(15) The tobacco crop was indifferent in Behar, but good in Northern Bengal. The increasing local consumption is apparently sufficient to carry off the bulk of the crop produced.

(16) In Calcutta, the cotton goods trade during the past year was in an uncertain state, importers having had to contend with difficulties which do not ordinarily arise. The prices at home had necessarily advanced on account of the inferiority of the American cotton crop, but the market here refused to respond, and it is stated that goods could be purchased in Calcutta at from three to six annas per piece below that for which they could be bought in Manchester. Then the scarcity of money led to a high bank rate of interest, and this for four months considerably checked transactions, dealers not being able to take delivery of goods. With large stocks in hand and a low rate of exchange, the condition of the market at the close of the year was unsatisfactory.

6. As in the previous year so in 1888-89, the low rates of exchange coupled with the low rates of freight operated unfavourably on the Calcutta trade.

COTTON, RAW.

7. The total quantity of raw cotton carried to, and from, Calcutta by all routes during the past three years, is shown in the following statement:—

As in 1887-88, so in the year under report, the rainfall was not favourable to the cotton crop in the Upper Provinces and hence the large decrease in the imports by the East Indian Railway. In explaining the fluctuations in the exports by sea, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that the falling off can only be attributed to the smaller crop and the demand for it for spinning purposes in Bombay.

Imports.

8. The total trade under imports showed a decrease of 17·98 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88, and of 37·91 per cent. when compared with 1886-87. The imports by the East Indian Railway were 30·88 per cent. below the previous year's figures, but the traffic carried by sea advanced by 16·83 per cent. The sources of supply, province by province, were as follows:—

The largest decrease occurred in the consignments from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, where the cotton crop had partially failed, Agra, the chief exporter, showing a decrease of 98,393 maunds, and Cawnpore of 97,200 maunds. The next largest decline was in the despatches from the Punjab, and was due to the imports from Umballa and Delhi having fallen off by 40,922 maunds and 25,772 maunds, respectively. The improvement under Bengal is chiefly due to an increase of 19,485 maunds in the supplies from Dacca, notwithstanding the fact that the crop in the Chittagong Hill Tracts was deficient.

Principal railway stations.

9. The railway stations from which the largest quantities were consigned during 1888-89 are shown in the subjoined table, in which also the figures of the past year are compared with those of the two previous years:—

The steamer service of the Eastern Bengal State Railway carried 45,268 maunds of raw cotton to Calcutta from Naraingunge, against 25,748 maunds in 1887-88, and 9,704 maunds in 1886-87.

Imports by sea.

10. As regards the imports by sea, the principal markets from which consignments were made during the year were Bombay (160,587 maunds against 1,49,285 maunds), Chittagong (23,840 maunds against 17,797 maunds), Burma (20,338 maunds against 8,514 maunds), and Madras (7,752 maunds against 17,366 maunds).

Exports.

11. The export trade of the past year was 36·56 per cent. and 49·62 per cent. less in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The sea-borne exports were distributed as follows:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, gives the following account of the fluctuations in the exports to foreign countries:—

"There has been a heavy fall in the exports of raw cotton of 39·3 per cent. during the past year as compared with 1887-88.

"The United Kingdom has taken 105,365 cwts., or 49 per cent. less than in the previous year; Austria 61·1 per cent., France 62·6 per cent., Germany 10·5 per cent., Italy 66·6 per cent., and other countries 50·9 per cent., the only increase being to China, the exports to which have advanced by 26·3 per cent.

"There has been no decline in the production of cotton goods in the United Kingdom during the past year, and the falling off can only be attributed to the smaller crop and the demand for it for spinning purposes in Bombay. The decreases to Austria, France, Germany, and Italy may be ascribed to the same causes. These countries have, however, taken larger supplies from Bombay. The expansion in exports to Germany, which has gone on for some years, has received a check, the fall being about 10 per cent. This is probably only temporary, and with a larger crop and the greater facilities now afforded for direct shipment, these exports will probably go on increasing. For several years past China has drawn its principal supplies of cotton from Bombay, but in the past year the demand has apparently reverted to this market, for, with an increase in the exports from Calcutta of 26·3 per cent., the total shipments from India show a decline."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

12. After deduction of the exports from the imports, there remained 4,12,311 maunds, against 3,05,499 maunds in 1887-88, and 4,57,020 maunds in 1886-87.

COTTON TWIST AND YARN.

13. The following statement shows the total trade of Calcutta in cotton twist and yarn registered during the past three years:—

Imports.

European twist and yarn.

14. The imports remained practically unchanged, the fluctuation being only 1·35 per cent. below the figures of 1887-88, and 0·27 per cent. above those of 1886-87. The figures relating to the imports by sea represent the total clearances for consumption from boardship and from bond. The different ports which contributed to the trade during the past three years, are shown in the following statement:—

Regarding this trade, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"Yarns, grey and white, turkey red and other colours, show a small decline of about 400,000 lbs in quantity, and slightly over ¼ lakh of rupees in value.

"The trade in grey yarns was on an average scale. That in the coarse numbers of yarn is now almost entirely in the hands of the Bombay mills, and the Lancashire spinners have had virtually to abandon it. The increase in the low counts from 15s. down is no indication of increased competition with the country spun twist, as the importations were all of doubled yarns used in jute mills, and these doubled yarns are not supplied by the mills out here.

"The most largely imported count is 40s., the figures for which are the highest ever shown. The finer counts from 43s. upwards all show decreases, but they are still quite up to the average of previous years."

15. There has been very little change during the past three years in the aggregate quantity of the imports of twist and yarn manufactured in this country. The imports by sea were chiefly from Bombay, and the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks as follows:—

Indian twist and yarn.

"The importations of grey cotton yarn from Bombay continue to advance, and were last year the highest known, being nearly one million lb. beyond 1887-88. This country-spun twist of coarse counts has now quite ousted the Lancashire article. There has been an immense expansion in the cotton spinning industry in Bombay of late years, and enormous quantities of yarn are shipped to China and Japan, and Calcutta also has received a share of the greater outturn."

16. The boat traffic which comprises for the most part the outturn of the cotton mills in the vicinity of Calcutta, showed a trifling increase of 0·37 per cent. as compared with 1887-88. The following statement shows the supplying districts and their marts during the past three years:—

17. The Administration Report of the Presidency Division of the past year contains the following account of the working of the cotton mills in the 24-Pergunnahs district:—

"It appears from the returns received from the managers or owners of the four cotton mills that 9,357 tons of cotton were worked up during the year, against 7,685 tons in the previous year, showing an increase of 1,672 tons. The trade in cotton yarn spun locally is also said to have prospered. The price of the raw material was higher than for some years past, but an active demand for yarns was experienced by all the agents of the companies connected with the cotton trade.

"The managing agents of the Bengal Cotton Mills are of opinion that there has been an important increase in the offtake for local and up-country consumption, and the mills have been able to get quit of surplus stock to China buyers at fairly remunerative rates. The satisfactory profits realised by the mills at present working in Bengal have induced the formation of two new companies, and one of the older mills has doubled the number of its spindles. Cotton has been plentiful and of good quality, and a decided improvement is apparent in the staple of Agra and Tonk district cotton. Delhi, Khoorjah, and other Bengal descriptions, however, are still of irregular and short staple, and are in consequence not much used by the mills."

The cotton mills in the Burdwan Division also are said to be doing a rising business. It was stated in the last report that the mills had continued to work short time, the market being glutted by overproduction, but during the year under report they have, it is said, been again working full time.

18. The consignments by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed an increase of 1,024 maunds on the totals of 1887-88, but a decrease of 9,175 maunds on those of 1886-87. As usual, the bulk of the imports was derived from Shamnugur, where the Dunbar Cotton Mill is situated. The quantity of raw material worked up during the year in that mill was 84,311 maunds, against 80,666 maunds in the year preceding.

19. As regards the road traffic, which also represents part of the outturn of the mills in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, the imports showed a falling off of 11,496 maunds and 9,856 maunds on the trade of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively.

EXPORTS.

European twist and yarn.

20. There was very little change in the total exports of these goods of European manufacture from Calcutta during the past three years. The distribution of the export trade during those years was as follows:—

22. In addition to these supplies, the returns of the Midnapore canals show that 4,767 maunds of twist and yarn were sent during the year to the Midnapore district direct from the local cotton mills without passing the Port Commissioners' wharves. The gross imports of that district, therefore, amounted to 27,979 maunds as shown below:—

The noticeable increase in the exports to foreign ports was due to large quantities having been shipped for China and Japan.

28. The exports balance the imports with a deficit amounting to 54,210 maunds, against 57,800 maunds in 1887-88, and 28,361 maunds in 1886-87.

30. The values given in the foregoing statement are declared values in all cases, save as regards goods carried by railway and by inland steamers, in which cases they are registered by weight only. In the case of imports by rail, the value of these goods has been calculated according to the value rates of the different exporting provinces. In all other cases values have been calculated at Rs. 63 per maund, which has been taken to represent the average value of a maund of European piece-goods of all sorts in Bengal.

EUROPEAN PIECE-GOODS.

Imports.

31. The figures given above against the imports by sea represent the total clearances for consumption from shipboard and from bond. The supply during the year showed a considerable increase of 15·28 per cent. and 8·06 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The different ports from which the supplies were received during the past three years are shown in the subjoined statement :—

32. There was a great recovery in the imports from the United Kingdom, in comparison with the previous year. The Customs report for the past year contains the following account regarding the trade in cotton goods :—

"The importations of cotton goods were much larger in the past year as compared with 1887-88, and the figures are the highest yet reached. Grey cotton piece-goods advanced by 74½ millions of yards with an increased value of 116½ lakhs of rupees; white piece-goods by 28½ millions of yards and 45 lakhs; coloured, printed or dyed piece-goods by 19 millions of yards and about 32 lakhs, against a decline of about 1½ lakhs in other cotton goods.

"The advance in grey cotton piece-goods is large, and brings them above those of any previous year. It would seem doubtful, however, whether this large trade has been profitable to either manufacturers or importers. In Lancashire, spinners have done comparatively well, while manufacturers have fared badly. The previous year was a fairly good one for the latter, and as a consequence there was an increase in the number of looms followed of course by an advance in production. In the past year spinners have obtained better prices for their production, while manufacturers have been unable to obtain a corresponding advance for the manufactured article. The spinners too had to cope with small supplies of cotton during the latter half of the year, and the consequent rise in prices, besides which they had to concede an increase in wages to their operatives. The quality of the American cotton was not up to the average, and to keep up the quality of their yarn higher grades had to be used than formerly. Speaking generally, the trade for the year has not been satisfactory to either spinners or manufacturers.

"In Calcutta the cotton goods trade was in an uncertain state, importers having to contend with difficulties which do not ordinarily arise. The prices at home had necessarily advanced on account of the inferiority of the American cotton crop, but the market here refused to respond. Then the scarcity of money led to a high bank rate of interest, and this for four months considerably checked transactions, dealers not being able to take delivery of goods.

"For the first half of the year, speaking generally, there was a steady trade in goods already in the market and in those for arrival. Exchange was low, but comparatively steady for several months, and when the fluctuations began they had generally an upward tendency, which helped importers. In the second half the money market was tight, and great difficulty was experienced by dealers in clearing their previously purchased goods, stocks of which accumulated in importers' godowns. When the money market became easier these goods were delivered to the dealers, who now have in hand large stocks. With advancing prices at home and these large stocks in the bazar, it became an impossibility for importers to obtain prices to cover the cost, and it is stated that goods could be purchased in the Calcutta bazar at from three to six annas per piece below what they could be bought for in Manchester. So with these large stocks in hand and a low rate of exchange, the condition of the market at the close of the year was unsatisfactory.

"A special feature in the year's trade is the increase in direct imports from Manchester by native firms. There is no doubt that the less expensive establishments of native houses give them an advantage over European importers, and that imports by native houses direct are likely to still further increase."

33. The advance last year in the export trade was 5·10 per cent. on the figures of 1887-88, and 3·24 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The supply carried by rail, which formed 86·39 per cent. of the total trade, was 6·36 per cent. and 4·62 per cent. greater than in 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. In the case of the East Indian Railway, the figures rose by 8·06 per cent., and in the case of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, by 2·44 per cent. in comparison with the previous year. The steamer figures are 26·03 per cent. more than those of 1887-88, but the exports by country boats, and by road routes declined by 24·78 per cent. and 16·29 per cent., respectively. The different provinces to which European piece-goods were carried during the past three years are shown in the following table :—

The value of the excess of imports over exports, therefore, amounted to Rs. 3,35,94,623, against Rs. 1,67,71,873 in 1887-88, and Rs. 2,47,58,109 in 1886-87.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The supplies of grey piece-goods have been very plentiful, as the figures show, and in some cases, particularly in that of grey shirtings, they have been in excess of the demand. The market had to struggle with these heavy importations, coupled with a smaller demand from some of the consuming districts, and stocks accumulated, which at the close of the year have acted as a drag on it. The demand for Behar, generally a large and steady consumer of grey piece-goods, failed almost completely in the autumn, and for Cawnpore it set in very late, though large quantities were then forwarded.

"In dhooties the imports have been large, and there has been a steady demand for full sized dhooties of good cloth, especially for fine mulls, and the demand for the latter points in the direction of prosperity.

"In white goods there were plentiful imports with a fairly steady business. White shirtings were, however, too largely imported and stocks accumulated; also the prices realized did not cover the cost, and there must have been losses. The importations of printed goods were larger than in the previous year, but far below those of 1886-87. Old stocks were partly worked off notwithstanding the large receipts in the first quarter of the year."

47. The imports showed a decrease of 3·82 per cent. and 9·62 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. Compared with the previous year, the increase in the imports by the East Indian Railway was 11·79 per cent., and that by inland steamer 74·03 per cent.; but as regards the sea-borne trade, the figures showed a falling off of 7·08 per cent. On this subject, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes :—

"The receipts of grey cotton piece-goods from Bombay declined in both quantity and value last year. This market was heavily supplied by piece-goods from Lancashire, which may have deterred importers of the country-made goods. Dhooties and chudders comprise the bulk of the importations."

The export trade during the past year was practically the same as in the year preceding, but it was below the figures for 1886-87 by 25·36 per cent., there being no recovery in the exports by sea during the past two years. The sources of supply and the places of destination were as follows :—

Progress of local manufacture by steam and by hand.

49. The number of cotton mills in Bengal was 7, namely, 3 in Howrah and 4 in the 24-Pergunnahs district, against 2 and 4, respectively, during the preceding two years. They manufacture yarn only. Concerning the hand-weaving industry, the information furnished by some of the Divisional Commissioners in their annual administration reports for the year 1888-89 is extracted below :—

Burdwan Division.—Cotton cloth is manufactured in all the districts. The principal places of manufacture are Chandrakona in Midnapore and certain parts in the district of Hooghly. The weavers work at a disadvantage, being generally undersold by cheap Manchester goods. Mr. Oldham remarks, however, that this class of people are better off than he supposed, and do very well when in full work, but are liable to periods of depression. He estimates that the total outturn of the year under review was 806,979 yards (valued at Rs. 1,07,572), against 997,996 yards (valued at Rs. 1,43,161) in the previous year. No explanation is given of the falling off in production.

From what the Collector of Hooghly says, it appears that the weavers of cotton cloth in Serampore manage to hold their own even against Manchester. The cloths, he says, "are of fine texture, and of a much higher price and more esteemed than European articles. Their merits are undeniable when they can compete successfully with machine-made goods at places accessible by rail from Calcutta, the place of import for European piece-goods. This survival affords a contrast to the fate of weaving in many other parts of Bengal."

PRESIDENCY DIVISION—Nuddea District.—"Santipore still maintains the high position which it has attained for its cotton fabrics. Its looms produce exceedingly fine specimen of cloth which is highly prized by the people of Bengal for the fineness of its texture, and the artistic skill and workmanship displayed in the borders in which flowers and other fancy figures are embroidered with silk. In spite of the neatness of the English machine-made cloths and the cheap price at which they are sold, the cotton fabrics of Santipore are not in the least depreciated, but rather increased in value, whereas the weavers of other places being unable to compete with the former, have almost left their hereditary avocation and have betaken themselves to other business for their livelihood"

RAJSHAHYE DIVISION.—There was an increase in the manufacture of country cloth in Pubna. The Dagatchee dhooties are specially valued. These dhooties are largely exported to the different districts of Bengal. Urni chaddars manufactured at Chotadhul and also at Dagatchee are of a very fine texture, and are much appreciated by the richer classes.

CHITTAGONG DIVISION.—Chittagong District.—"The Hindus have nearly all left off wearing country-made cloths. The Mughs chiefly, and to a certain extent the Mahomedans, still use country-made cloth considerably, but the fabric is generally made of foreign yarn twist which has nearly driven the country-made yarn out of the market.

"The system of weaving and the quality produced by the native weavers show no improvement."

Tipperah District.—"English piece-goods have almost entirely driven the country-made cloths out of the market, and the weavers have generally taken to cultivation and manual labour. There are, however, a few weavers in the Brahmunberiah sub-division and in the Sudder thanah who still earn their livelihood by their ancestral profession. The 'chudders' made by some of these weavers at Brahmunberiah have a reputation among the natives as being superior to those imported from England. The weavers make their cloth by hand, and mostly use English yarn, but the manufacture of cloth by steam is unknown in this district."

PATNA DIVISION.—Mozufferpore District.—"In the northern part of this district a kind of cloth is manufactured called 'Koktee' which is highly esteemed by the Hindus, and is exclusively used for the purposes of pooja, &c."

Chumparun District.—"The local manufacture of cloth has been superseded almost entirely by machine-made articles."

BHAGULPORE DIVISION.—There is nothing new to report under this head. The Collector of Bhagulpore reports that the cotton-weavers of his district are not well off, but in the north, they derived benefit from an increase in the Nepal demand for country cloth from Rs. 2,647 to Rs. 11,923.

ORISSA DIVISION.—Pooree District.—"Cotton piece-goods of country manufacture are imported from the south, and the value is estimated to be Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 60,000. They fetch a high price on account of their durability and variety of their colour. The price of a pair of dhooties and a sari varies from Re. 1-12 to Rs 4-8 each."

INDIGO.

50. The total quantity of indigo imported into, and exported from, Calcutta during the past three years, was as follows:—

The season's crop was about the same as in the previous year. There were increases in the outturn in Lower Bengal and Behar, with decreases in Benares and the Doab. The quality of the crop varied. In some cases it was decidedly better than in the previous year, while in others it was inferior. The average price per Indian maund shown in the Custom House returns was Rs. 232, against Rs. 231 in the preceding year. Regarding the consumption of East Indian indigo in the United Kingdom itself, the Customs Collector, observes :—

"The consumption in the United Kingdom showed a falling off compared with the two previous years, though it was in excess of 1885, and it has been stated that the demand for aniline substitutes is perceptibly increasing, and, unless the price of indigo keeps low, will increase. Prices were, however, low last year : in fact, the quotation for good Bengal at the close of 1888 was the lowest known for the past ten years."

Imports.

51. The total import trade during the year showed a decrease of 2·08 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, but it was 2·02 per cent. in excess of the figures of 1886-87. In the case of the East Indian Railway, the figures advanced by 1·87 per cent. in comparison with the previous year, while the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a falling off of 26·20 per cent. The following statement shows in detail the different provinces from which indigo was consigned to Calcutta during the past three years :—

The indigo crop in Chumparun and Sarun, and in the Bhagulpore Division generally, was slightly better than in the previous year, while of the Bengal districts, only Midnapore and Nuddea show a better outturn. In Rungpore also there was a larger outturn, but the industry in the Rajshahye Division is on the decline. The decrease in the imports from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh is due to smaller despatches from Etawah, Farukhabad, and Cawnpore.

Exports.

52. In the export trade there was very little change in comparison with the figures of the two previous years. The quantity exported by sea during the past three years was distributed as follows :—

The fluctuations noticed in the foregoing statement have been explained by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, who writes as follows:—

"The exports of indigo show a small decline in the past year. The United Kingdom and Austria have taken about the same quantity as in the previous year, while to France there has been a heavy decline, against increases to Germany and the United States.

"The United States have received 17¾ per cent. more than in 1887-88 direct from India, instead of buying it in London. The description principally shipped was Oudh indigo, of which the United States was the chief consumer last year. The exports to the continent of Europe, except to France, which country probably obtained a portion of what it required in London, were about the same as in the previous year, while to Germany there was an increase in direct shipments of 26½ per cent, due to greater facilities for direct shipment. Stocks in continental Europe, including all kinds, are higher than they were in the previous year, and were estimated at 4,000 chests at the close of 1888 The total consumption of Europe is said to be 33,500 chests. The direct shipments to Russia continue to advance the figures for the past year being 2,087 cwt., value Rs. 7,23,280, against 1,623 cwt., value Rs. 5,03,924, in 1887-88."

53. The surplus of imports over exports amounted to 8,699 maunds, against 11,153 maunds in 1887-88, and 5,337 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

55. The import trade showed a steady increase, the figures for the past year being 17·85 per cent. and 39·12 per cent. in excess of those for 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The supplies carried by country boats showed a large increase of 20 08 per cent. on the trade of the previous year, that by inland steamers of 8·76 per cent., that by the Eastern Bengal State Railway of 9·67 per cent, that by the East Indian Railway of 154·07 per cent., and that by road routes of ·112·28 per cent. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, reports that a larger area was under cultivation and consequently the outturn was larger than that of the previous year. Prices at the same time were higher, and the cultivation of this staple last year should, therefore, have proved very remunerative. At one time of the year freights were very high, and consequently business was restricted to a certain extent

Imports.

56. The Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division makes the following remarks on the condition of the jute crop during the past official year:—

"The outturn of jute was better in every district, except Julpigoree, where it suffered from the excessive rainfall at the sowing time. The high price of jute that ruled during the year has in a great measure helped the ryots to meet the deficient rice crop."

In Dacca, though the outturn of jute was less than usual, the ryots, it is aid, were compensated by the high price which it commanded in the market.

In Furreedpore the crop was good both in quality and quantity. Regarding Mymensing, the Commissioner writes:—

"In Jamalpore, jute was slightly damaged for want of rain, but on the whole business in this article was brisk all over the district. Messrs. Ralli Brothers, David and Company, and some native firms of Calcutta, sent out agents for purchase of jute at local centres; and in consequence of this competition, the price went up, the average being about Rs. 5 a maund."

The Administration Report of the Presidency Division shows that in the 24-Pergunnahs district jute yielded a full crop in Bussirhat, where it is largely cultivated, and fetched a good price; in the Baraset sub-division also the crop was excellent. In the Jessore district the outturn in Bongong was affected by scanty rainfall in May and by floods in September, while in Jhenidah, the jute cultivated on high lands suffered owing to the scantiness of rain, but in the Magoorah sub-division it is said to have been one of the important sources of income to the cultivators during the year. In the district of Khoolna this staple yielded an average outturn.

Jute was a poor crop in the Tipperah district, but the price it fetched was high and quite made up for the deficiency in quantity. In Purneah, in the Bhagulpore Division, jute cultivation was extended during the year.

The following account of the jute trade with foreign countries is given in the report of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, for the year 1888-89 :—

"The exports of jute have again advanced, and the figures are for a second year the highest tabulated.

"To the United Kingdom the shipments increased 22·4 per cent., to Austria 10·8 per cent., and to Germany 86·5 per cent., against decreases to the United States of 22·6 per cent., and to Australia of 23 per cent. The increase in the total shipments amounts to 12·6 per cent. The jute trade in Dundee was in a fairly prosperous condition. With the higher prices ruling on this side there was a considerable advance in values, the quotations in a trade circular for good medium jute during the past five years there being—

1884	...	12	1885	...	12	1886	...	12	1887	...	13	1888	...	16

"To the United States, our second largest customer for jute, the decline is 22·6 per cent. This decline is noticeable, especially with a large jute crop available. The figures shown under this country include jute and jute butts and cuttings. The falling off is only in the latter, and, I am informed, due to 'Trusts' having been formed by the mills using cuttings and by the paper mills using butts in that country to manipulate prices and buy cheap here. Legitimate exporters had to operate with caution, and did not ship their usual quantities. Stocks accumulated there notwithstanding the smaller shipments, the figures being as follows for three years:—

	Bales.		Bales.		Bales.
1887 ...	21,000	1888 ...	32,000	1889 ...	97,700

"The increase under other countries is due to larger shipments to France, China, and Japan, with smaller exports to Italy."

64. During the year under report, the surplus of imports over exports was 42,01,090 maunds, against 30,05,194 maunds in 1887-88, and 23,77,718 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

In the sea-borne trade also, the supplies during the past year showed a decrease of 70·72 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that the jute-manufacturing industry has had another prosperous year. The working of short time

continued, and was further extended, the mills now working only nine days in the fortnight. Regarding hand-made gunnies in the Rajshahye Division, the Commissioner observes:—

"In Dinagepore, jute cloth is manufactured to a considerable extent. This industry is chiefly carried on by females, especially the polias, and contributes a substantial addition to the earnings of the family. Gunny bags are manufactured in almost every district of the Division, and are largely exported."

Concerning this trade with foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes these remarks—

The exports of gunny bags increased during the past year in comparison with 1887-88 by 33 per cent., and they were the highest yet reached.

"The principal advance was to the United Kingdom, the exports to which showed the marked increase of 473 per cent. Notwithstanding the efforts of Dundee to keep out Indian-made goods, with any rise in prices, exports from here increase, and we take a share of the trade. The jute-manufacturing industry in Dundee was fairly prosperous, and with a gradually improving state of trade the manufacturers there must have had a satisfactory year.

"To Egypt the advance was 102·4 per cent., but the exports were not up to the average of previous years. These goods are principally corn sacks. The United States direct have taken 14·4 per cent., less than in the previous year, but the exports to Hong-Kong are largely for the United States. The exports of wheat from the United States were much smaller than in previous years, and therefore such large supplies of bags were not required. To the Straits Settlements there was an increase of 2 per cent., while to Australia there was a decline of 4·6 per cent., with an increase in the total value. The exports to the latter were on a large scale and much above the average owing to larger requirements for the exports of corn and wool. Under other countries the principal increases were to Cape Colony, Japan, and South America (Talcahuano)."

71. Of the total exports by internal routes, the East Indian Railway carried 18,793,565 bags, of which Delhi received 2,273,740 bags, Patna 2,169,475 bags, Cawnpore 1,822,835 bags, Sonthal Pergunnahs 789,075 bags, Burdwan 784,840 bags, Bhagulpore 596,645 bags, Fyzabad 591,290 bags. Beerbhoom, 586,285 bags, Shahabad 554,260 bags, Durbhunga 519,155 bags, Monghyr, 439,075 bags, Amritsur 425,880 bags, and other districts 7,241,010 bags. Of the supply exported by country boats, 686,192 bags were consigned to Hooghly, 305,126 bags to the 24-Pergunnahs, 138,786 bags to Nuddea, 93,469 bags to Burdwan, 83,058 bags to Bhagulpore, 51,520 bags to Midnapore, and 218,331 bags to other districts.

Comparison of imports with exports.

72. If imports be deducted from exports, a deficit of 133,226,917 bags will be found, against a similar deficit of 110,353,813 bags in 1887-88, and of 101,370,823 bags in 1886-87. This result is due to the large manufacture of gunny bags in Calcutta and the Suburbs.

GUNNY-CLOTH.

73. The registered trade of Calcutta in gunny-cloth, carried by internal routes during the past year, as compared with the totals of the two previous years, was as follows:—

It has been explained in previous reports that gunny-bags and gunny-cloth are shown together in the railway returns. Moreover, in the case of the trade by road and river, this article is registered in pieces, while in the sea-borne trade returns it is shown in yards. For the purpose of converting pieces into yards, a machine-made piece is taken as equal to 80 yards and a hand-made piece as equal to 22 yards. The foregoing figures, therefore, do not represent the actual extent of the transactions in Calcutta under this head, part of the trade in gunny-cloth having been included under the next preceding head "Gunny-bags."

74. The sea-borne trade of Calcutta under this heading during the past three years is shown below:—

Imports.

75. The quantity imported by internal routes increased by 6·72 per cent. over those of 1887-88, but it was 8·54 per cent., below the trade of 1886-87. Last year there was a great recovery in the imports by road routes as compared with the preceding year, but the figures were still less than those of 1886-87 by 18·27 per cent. The total trade of the past year comprised 4,639 pieces of power-loom manufacture, and 35,813 hand-made pieces. The sources of supply were as follows:—

Exports.

76. The total quantity exported by sea during the year showed an advance of 6·48 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88, and of 9·68 per cent. on those of 1886-87. The subjoined statement has been prepared to indicate its destination:—

On this subject the Customs report for 1888-89 gives the following explanation:—

"The increase in gunny cloth is principally due to larger exports to the United Kingdom, the demand there for hessians being fairly good. To the United States the shipments were the smallest in the five years tabulated."

Comparison of imports with exports.

77. The surplus of exports over imports amounted to 19,301,900 yards, against 18,001,485 yards in 1887-88, and 16,978,481 yards in 1886-87. This represents part of the outturn of the steam mills in and around Calcutta.

Outturn of the mills in the vicinity of Calcutta.

78. Besides the registered supplies detailed above, the traffic returns of the Nuddea rivers also show a large quantity of power-loom gunny cloth, amounting to 150,573 pieces, sent up-country direct from the jute mills without passing the Port Commissioners' wharves. The destination of these exports, as compared with the figures of the two preceding years, was as follows:—

79. The number of jute mills worked by steam in the vicinity of Calcutta during each of the past two years was 22 against 21 in 1886-87. The quantity of jute worked up in 1888-89 was 48,16,445 maunds, against 44,29,382 maunds in 1887-88, and 36,21,578 maunds in 1886-87. Separate figures to show the quantity of the raw material used in the manufacture of gunny bags and gunny cloth are not given in the returns. The following statement shows the number of looms and spindles at work, and the quantity of raw jute consumed in the different mills in the districts of Hooghly, Howrah, and the 24-Pergunnahs, during the past year as compared with the totals of the two preceding years:—

FOOD-GRAINS.

80. Owing to the poor outturn of crops, the food-grain traffic of Calcutta showed a falling off during the past year. Under imports, the aggregate quantity was 13·39 per cent. below that of 1887-88, and 13·83 per cent. less than that of 1886-87, while in the export trade, the figures exhibited a fall of 19·51 per cent. and 15·66 per cent., respectively. The details of the trade under each class of food-grains during the past three years, are given below:—

Exports	3,57,470	2,21,457	1,52,880

The following remarks have been extracted from the Customs Report for the past official year :—

"There was a smaller crop on this side to account for our smaller exports; also freights were at one time very high from Calcutta, and this may have been discouraging, and sent wheat, which would otherwise have gone from here, elsewhere.

"The price of wheat in the United Kingdom fluctuated considerably during 1888. At one time it rose beyond the point which is admitted to be the limit at which wheat-growing is profitable to the British farmer, viz. 35*s*. per quarter. The Gazette price quoted on the 1st September was 36*s*. 4*d*. per quarter, while on the 15th of that month it had reached 38*s*. 1*d*. Then there were large importations of foreign wheat, and prices fell. It would appear that with improved mechanical appliances and lower rents the prospects of English wheat are not as gloomy as they have been, and the area under wheat has been increased.

"The growers of wheat in the United States are said to have been discouraged by the low prices which have ruled so long."

84. The decrease in imports noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, when the figures fell off by 24·09 per cent. and 49·88 per cent. in comparison with the trade of the two years 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. By far the largest decrease occurred in the quantities carried by the East Indian Railway, the figures for which fell off by 22·01 per cent. on those of 1887-88. The consignments by boat exhibited a decrease of 26·54 per cent., those by the Eastern Bengal State Railway of 27·29 per cent., and those by inland steamers of 66·82 per cent. The distribution of the imports is classified according to provinces in the following statement:—

Of the Behar districts, the largest decrease was in the exports from Monghyr and Patna, each of which sent upwards of 4 lakhs of maunds less than in 1887-88. Next come Bhagulpore and the Sonthal Pergunnahs, each with over 2½ lakhs of maunds less, and then Durbhunga and Chumparun, each with more than 1¼ lakhs below last year's trade.

In consequence of indifferent harvests during the year under report there was a falling off in the supplies received from all the Behar districts except Shahabad and Sarun. As regards the former district, the Collector makes these remarks:—

"The increase in the exports of wheat is remarkable in view of what has been stated elsewhere as to the short crops and the straitened circumstances of the people during the year. But it must be borne in mind first, that we have no figures for the exports by river; and secondly, that a large portion of the crops is not exported in the same official year in which it is grown, but in April, May, and June, and even later. At the same time this large increase in exportation by rail during the year does not look as if people had any apprehension of a scarcity of food-grains, especially as wheat is ordinarily quite as cheap as rice."

"There was a decline in the exports of wheat in the year 1887-88, and in the past year there has been a further fall amounting to 32 per cent.

"To the United Kingdom the fall has been over one million cwts., while to Belgium and France there was more sent. The total exports from India to all these countries were considerably larger than in the previous years, for Bombay and Kurrachi exported much larger quantities.

"The quantities of wheat imported into the United Kingdom from the different countries are shown in the following table:—

"India continues to occupy the third place, but in the past year Russia, owing to two large harvests, has supplanted the United States and taken the first place, her exports to the United Kingdom being far ahead of any other country. When supplies fell short from America, large quantities were immediately forthcoming from other markets, including Germany, Roumania, and Australasia.

"The exports to Belgium were double those of the previous year, while to France there was an increase of over 35 per cent These larger exports were due, I believe, to the wheat crops in these two countries having partially failed. Holland has taken no wheat from India during the past year, while to Malta the shipments have been nil for many years. The practice of storing wheat in granaries in that island in view of any scarcity in the neighbouring markets appears to have been abandoned so far as Calcutta-shipped wheat is concerned. The exports to other countries were not of any importance, the principal being to Egypt—no doubt 'for orders.'

"There were large shipments to Italy from Calcutta during 1886-87 and 1887-88, but in the past year they were very trifling. I notice also there was a heavy fall in the exports from Bombay. The large imports of wheat meal and flour into the United Kingdom, referred to in last year's report, though smaller, continued in the past year, as the following figures show:—

"India takes no part as yet in this trade, though there are mills both in Calcutta and Bombay which are provided with the latest milling machinery, so I conclude the country demand is sufficient to take off the outturn. A check has certainly been given to the imports of flour into India, which have shown a steady decline for the past two years, the figures being—

92. The imports balanced the exports with a surplus amounting to 13,57,185 maunds, against 12,41,630 maunds in 1887-88, and 12,80,337 maunds in 1886-87.

94. In the import trade, which fell off by 25·34 per cent. and 5·65 per cent. on the returns of the two years 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, the largest decrease, namely 5,59,461 maunsd, occurred in the quantities carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway, the supply brought by country boats also showing a considerable decline of 6,37,008 maunds as compared with 1887-88. By far the largest fall was in the imports from Bengal, and was due to the despatches from Furreedpore having declined by 3,65,683 maunds, from Nuddea by 2,90,600 maunds, from Jessore by 1,95,776 maunds, from Pubna by 1,05,942 maunds, from Moorshedabad by 76,289 maunds, and from Rajshahye by 74,666 maunds. In the case of the supplies from Behar, the principal fluctuations were an increase of 85,509 maunds from the Sonthal Pergunnahs, 18,683 maunds from Maldah, 15,275 maunds from Sarun, and 10,081 maunds from Purneah, against a decrease of 1,07,897 maunds from Patna, and 69,728 maunds from Monghyr. The districts which contributed to the falling off in the supplies from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh were Allahabad (1,57,533 maunds) and Cawnpore (83,054 maunds); while Delhi which sent 90,050 maunds in excess of the previous consignment was the chief district in the Punjab which showed an increase.

97. Of the steamer stations, Santipore in Nuddea exported by far the largest quantity to Calcutta, viz., 11,979 maunds against 12,942 maunds in 1887-88, (and 4,090 maunds in 1886-87. The imports from Patna are rapidly declining, being only 3,304 maunds in the past year, against 4,540 maunds in 1887-88, and 31,405 maunds in 1886-87.

Principal stations on steamer routes.

98. In the case of the road traffic, Baraset was the only mart which despatched large quantities of gram and pulse to Calcutta, viz., 13,681 maunds, against 29,299 maunds in 1887-88, and 9,750 maunds in 1886-87.

Principal marts on road routes.

99. The decrease in the export trade during the past year was 36·49 per cent. and 5·98 per cent. on the figures for the two previous years, respectively. The details of the sea-borne trade are given in the following statement:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks under this head:—

"The exports of gram show a falling off in comparison with 1887-88 of 26 per cent.

"To the Mauritius the large exports of the previous year, which probably were in excess of requirements, were followed by a fall of 36 per cent. Ceylon also took a smaller quantity, while the Straits Settlements, the United Kingdom, and Réunion all received larger supplies.

"The considerable decline in exports of gram from Calcutta was due, no doubt, to a smaller crop and to larger shipments from other ports, as the total exports from India show only a small decline. There were very much smaller exports to coast ports during the past year, and there is no doubt that the sources from which our supplies of gram are drawn had a smaller surplus for export than they had in the previous year."

100. Last year the total quantity not exported before the close of the year was 17,83,901 maunds, against 18,71,850 maunds in 1887-88, and 18,82,588 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

The boat traffic, which amounted to 75·42 per cent. of the total trade, was 7,35,808 maunds, or 6·02 per cent. less than in the previous year. The traffic carried by rail showed a decrease of 18·59 per cent., namely, 4,07,146 maunds, or 21·31 per cent. on the East Indian line, and 1,18,094 maunds, or 13·07 per cent., on the Eastern Bengal line. The quantity carried by road routes exhibited a decrease of 1,54,871 maunds, or 19·59 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, but in the supplies imported by inland steamers, there was an increase of 1,51,365 maunds, or 144·29 per cent., and in the sea-borne imports of 1,42,296 maunds, or 34·14 per cent.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks on the condition of this trade during the past official year:—

"Ceylon is the principal consumer of Bengal rice, and the shipments to it were large and above the average, though less than in the previous year. The population of Ceylon must have increased of late years with the extension of tea-growing and the consequent influx of coolies who require Bengal rice.

"The United Kingdom is the second largest consumer of our rice, and the exports to that country were large. The consumption of rice in Europe is now said to have reached the very large quantity of one million tons. The partial failure of the continental potato crop may have done something to stimulate the consumption of rice, but the enormous quantity that has come to be absorbed must indicate its growing popularity as a staple article of food. There were no great fluctuations in prices during the year, and those concerned in the trade—shippers, millers, and speculators—are all said to have done well.

"In view of the above, the following table, showing the exports of rice to Europe from the various sources of supply for the past five calendar years, and the position of our competitors, at the end of 1888, may be found interesting:—

"The heaviest decline was to Mauritius, but the shipments of the previous year had been very large ones. Less was shipped also to South America, the West Indies, and Arabia. To Germany there was a considerable decline, with an advance to France of 46,698 cwt. To the eastern coast of Africa there was a decline, which, however, was more than made up by larger shipments from other ports.

"The exports of paddy declined in the past year in comparision with 1887-88 by 30 per cent. Ceylon is the only country that has taken this grain in quantity, and the shipments to that island advanced by 39 per cent., the decline shown being due to a falling off to 'other countries.'"

111. The imports during the past year were nearly the same as those of 1887-88, but they show a falling off of 88,135 maunds, or 19·12 per cent. on the returns of 1886-87. Compared with 1887-88, the boat traffic shows a falling off of 28·19 per cent., while the consignments by the East Indian Railway rose by 13·42 per cent. The sources of supply, classified by provinces, are specified below :—

The decrease in the supply from Behar was chiefly due to the consignments from the Bhagulpore district having fallen off by 59,045 maunds. Of the increase under Bengal, the Nuddea district contributed 23,508 maunds, and Burdwan 3,407 maunds, while Moorshedabad exported 7,338 maunds less than in the preceding year.

112. The different river marts and railway stations which contributed largely to the trade during the past three years are detailed below :—

113. The quantity exported during the last year showed a decrease of 28·93 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 24·24 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The supply exported by sea was distributed in the following way :—

HIDES.

115. The hide trade of Calcutta during the past year, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years, was as follows:—

The hide trade again showed a falling off during the past year. The Customs report states that the market was dull during the greater part of the year, and supplies small throughout.

116. The import trade fell off by 11·36 per cent. and 26·47 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. The supplies attracted to the railways showed a decrease of 9·72 per cent. as compared with the previous year, while the road traffic was less by 52·81 per cent., and the sea-borne imports by 10 99 per cent. The different provinces which contributed to the trade, were as follows:—

In his General Administration Report for the past year, the Commissioner of the Dacca Division remarks that the falling off in the export of hides "is stated to be due to the severe competition of Madras and the dealers of the English hide market."

The consignments from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh were chiefly drawn from the following districts:—

The steamer service of the Eastern Bengal State Railway carried 720,040 pieces from Dacca, against 1,002,352 pieces in 1887-88.

118. The bulk of the imports by country boats during the past three years was consigned from the following marts:—

120. The imports by sea during the past year were shipped from Balasore (266,241 pieces, against 276,781 pieces in 1887-88), Chittagong (70,520 pieces, against 88,430 pieces), Burma (29,330 pieces, against 69,546 pieces), and Madras (75,233 pieces, against 60,593 pieces).

Imports by sea.

121. In the export trade there was a decrease of 5·63 per cent. and 23·95 per cent. in comparison with the two previous years. The destination of the exports by sea is shown in the following statement:—

On this subject, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks:—

"The United Kingdom is our principal market for hides, taking more than half of our entire exports. The decline to this country was 12·2 per cent., and this although there were larger exports from the United Kingdom of articles made of leather and of boots and shoes. The imports from other countries into the United Kingdom also show a fall in dry against an increase in wet hides. A large proportion of the hides imported from India are re-exported principally to the continent of Europe, the following figures showing the total re-exports to Europe:—

1887 ... Cwts. 387,188 1888 ... Cwts. 404,555

"In dressed hides there was an increase in quantity with an increase in value. This trade, however, is not large."

Comparison of imports with exports.

122. The surplus of exports over imports amounted to 448,189 pieces against 116,217 pieces in 1887-88, and 353,206 pieces in 1886-87.

SALT.

123. The total quantity of salt imported into, and exported from, Calcutta during the past three years, was as follows:—

Year.	Imports into Calcutta by sea.			Exports from Calcutta and Hooghly.
				Inland exports.
	From Foreign ports.	From Indian ports.	Total.	By the East Indian Railway.	By the Eastern Bengal State Railway.	By inland steamer.	By boat.	By road.	Total.	Exports by sea.	Grand total.

It will be seen that there was a falling off both under imports and exports as compared with 1886-87, during which year the figures reached the highest limit since 1876-77. The customs duty on imported salt was raised from Rs. 2 to Rs. 2-8, with effect from the 19th January, 1888. The condition of the import salt trade of Calcutta during the past year is thus explained by the Collector of Customs:—

"The importations of salt advanced during the past year as compared with 1887-88 by 5 per cent. This increase is principally from the United Kingdom, Egypt, Aden, and Persia. Again no salt has come from France and Italy.

"The stocks in bond were larger at the close of the year than in 1887-88. They were as follows for the past five years:—

1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
Tons.	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.

"The actual consumption has, however, been slightly higher than in 1887-88, in spite of the increase in duty and the higher prices brought about by the Salt Syndicate. This Syndicate has gradually raised the price of Liverpool salt from 6*s*. 6*d*. per ton to 16*s*., which taking the exchange at 1*s*. 4*d*., adds 4½ annas to the cost per maund. It will be interesting to watch how far it will be feasible to run up the price of Liverpool salt without bringing in salt from other sources in place of it. Some native merchants here are setting up machinery for pounding the kurkutch salt, so as to bring it into the sameform as Liverpool salt, and it will be interesting also to watch the results of this experiment. There would seem to be no reason why unlimited supplies of kurkutch should not be manufactured at Aden and Perim."

124. According to the published fortnightly prices-current returns, the average retail price of salt in the Lower Provinces during 1888-89 was one seer and twelve chittacks, or 15·64 per cent. above that of 1887-88, and two seers and one chittack or 17·93 above that of 1886-87. The following comparative

Imports.

125. There was a recovery in the salt trade, the total quantity imported by sea being 3,40,705 maunds, or 3·53 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1887-88, but it was still below those for 1886-87 by 49,432 maunds, or ·49 per cent. The following extract is taken from the Report on the administration of the Salt Department for the year 1888-89:—

"The importations to Calcutta from the United Kingdom, Bombay, Aden, and Mozambique show an increase, those from Hamburg and Arabian and Persian Gulfs a falling off. The most marked increase was in the importations from the United Kingdom, being about 7 lakhs of maunds over that of the previous year. A trade in duty-paid salt from Madras was started during the year, 33,360 maunds of this salt having been imported for the first time. On the application of a Cocoonada firm, the Board have, with the approval of Government, agreed to duty-paid salt imported from Madras being cleared from shipboard without re-weighment at Calcutta, on condition that the quantity paying duty was certified to by the Madras authorities, and the importers waived all claim to wastage allowance."

126. The total quantity of indigenous salt imported into Calcutta by the East Indian Railway during 1888-89 was 730 maunds, against 353 maunds and 300 maunds in 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. Of the past year's supply, 297 maunds were received from the Punjab, and 433 maunds from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

Exports.

127. It will be seen that the exports during the past year were much the same as in 1887-88, but they fell off by 3,71,364 maunds, or 4·21 per cent., as compared with the figures for 1886-87. As regards the several routes followed by the trade, the traffic on the East Indian Railway decreased by 5·06 per cent.; while that carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway increased by 2·66 per cent., that carried by inland steamers by 19·24 per cent., that on road routes by 1·97 per cent., and that by boat by ·69 per cent. The exports by sea also exceeded the figures for the previous year by 37·84 per cent. The following statement illustrates the distribution of the exports, province by province, during the past three years:—

Comparison of imports with exports.

128. According to the foregoing figures, the exports balance the imports with a surplus amounting to 15,25,860 maunds, against 11,83,596 maunds in 1887-88, and 12,03,498 maunds in 1886-87.

Clearances from boardship and bond.

129. The aggregate quantity of salt on which duty was paid in Calcutta and the 24-Pergunnahs during the past three years, as compared with the quantity sent to the interior from Calcutta, was as follows:—

SALTPETRE.

Saltpetre is brought to Calcutta chiefly for export to Europe. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, states that there was a good demand for it in the Calcutta market for part of the year, with an advance in prices, which, however, was partly lost at the close of the year. On the other hand, it is satisfactory to notice that the large supplies of nitrate of soda carried to the United Kingdom have not interfered with the saltpetre trade.

Imports.

140. The total increase in the import trade was 7·23 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and 6 71 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The advance occurred in the quantities carried by the East Indian Railway, the figures showing a rise of 7·64 per cent. on those of the previous year. The following are the different provinces which contributed to the trade during the past three years.—

The year under report was favourable for the manufacture of saltpetre, and the outturn was larger than in 1887-88. The advance in the imports from Behar is made up of an increase of 51,633 maunds from Sarun, 20,485 maunds from Durbhunga, and 12,979 maunds from Chumparun, against a decrease of 22,771 maunds from Patna, and 5,810 maunds from Bhagulpore.

Exports.

142. The total exports of saltpetre from Calcutta during the past year exceeded the figures for 1887-88 and 1886-87 by 8·59 per cent. and 4·51 per cent., respectively. The destination of this traffic by sea was to the following places:—

The following extracts regarding the fluctuations in the foreign trade are taken from the Calcutta Custom's Report for the year 1888-89:—

"The exports of saltpetre show a recovery after the fall in 1887-88 of 8·8 per cent.

"The two principal countries that take saltpetre are the United Kingdom and China, the shipments to which advanced by 9 and 15·8 per cent. respectively. The trade in nitrate of soda largely influences the trade in saltpetre with the United Kingdom; it improved and the exports of saltpetre increased, though not to the same extent, and prices were on the average very slightly higher than in the previous year.

"To the United States the shipments were on about the same level as in the previous year. They were, however, small compared with the exports of five years ago. China has taken over 14,000 cwt in excess of the previous year, and the figures are now approaching what they were five years ago. Exports to the Straits Settlements show a considerable advance, while to Australia there was a falling off."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

143. Last year the imports balanced the exports with a surplus amounting to 1,16,474 maunds, against 1,15,296 maunds in 1887-88, and 83,204 maunds in 1886-87.

The Customs report of the past year states that the crops at, and about, Patna were damaged by unseasonable rain: difficulties in connection with obtaining freight, and the high rates ruling, also had a depressing effect upon exports at one time of the year.

Imports.

145. As regards the imports, the result of the last year's traffic showed a falling off of 5·61 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 2·42 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The decrease was most marked in the supplies carried by the East Indian Railway (5·66 per cent.) and by boat (10·03 per cent.), the imports by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showing a rise of 28·43 per cent. The following statement shows the different provinces from which linseed was imported into Calcutta during the past three years:—

The chief districts in Behar which sent smaller supplies than in 1887-88 were Patna, Durbhunga, Bhagulpore and Chumparun, the exports being 5,83,806 maunds, 1,66,142 maunds, 83,216 maunds, and 55,204 maunds, respectively, below last year's figures. The principal districts which contributed to the increase in the imports from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh were Fyzabad (1,50,601 maunds), Gorruckpore (93,835 maunds), Baraich (86,294 maunds), and Bara Banki (74,995 maunds). The decline in the supplies from the Central Provinces and Rajputana was chiefly in the exports from Sutna, which fell off by 54,218 maunds.

146. The imports of linseed by rail during the past three years came chiefly from the following stations:—

148. It will be seen that the decrease last year in the export trade amounted to 4·06 per cent. in comparison with 1887-88, but when compared with 1886-87 the figures exhibit a trifling increase of ·71 per cent. The destination of the seaborne trade was as follows:—

Concerning the exports to foreign ports the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The decline to the United Kingdom was 7·3 per cent. There was, however, no falling off in exports from other ports of India, the decline being only from Calcutta. The supplies of flax and linseed received by the United Kingdom were the highest ever known, as the following figures of imports show:—

	1886.	1887.	1888.
	Qrs.	Qrs.	Qrs.
From Russia ...	227,133	628,382	719,197

„ Other countries ...	180,244	346,375	212,821

"These figures show that Russia has sent larger supplies and the River Plate smaller, owing to a poor crop. India, notwithstanding the large supplies from other countries increased her shipments.

"There was a higher range of prices in the United Kingdom notwithstanding the large supplies. Large purchases were made here for America, which sent up prices both in Calcutta and other markets. The quotations for Calcutta linseed in London for the two years 1887 and 1888 were:—

Year.	January.		April.		July.		October.		December.
	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.

"There was an enormous production of linseed oil in the United Kingdom during the year.

"To the United States the increase was 4 per cent, which following a year of large exports shows how strong a demand prevailed in that country. Large exports to the United States are only made when there is a bad crop of flax seed there, and probably this was the case during the past year. A linseed oil trust or syndicate has been formed in the United States to control prices, and probably the operations of this body have had something to do with the larger exports from here. It is stated that crushers of this seed, who have not entered the ring, are upholding the ring's prices. The United States does not receive any linseed from Bombay, but draws all its supplies from Calcutta. There was an advance to France of 29·1 per cent., probably an ordinary fluctuation, and also to Egypt, no doubt "for orders." The proportion of the exports of linseed from Calcutta as compared with the total shipments from India has slightly fallen off, as the following figures show:—

149. During the year under report, the imports were 1,64,412 maunds below the exports. In 1887-88, however, the deficit of imports over exports was 42,914 maunds, against a surplus of imports over exports of 72,311 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

MUSTARD SEED.

150. The total quantity of mustard seed carried to, and from, Calcutta during the past three years, was as follows:—

151. The importation of mustard seed was below the figures for 1887-88 and 1886-87 by 11·39 per cent. and 25·59 per cent., respectively. The boat traffic fell off by 27·37 per cent., and the traffic attracted to the inland steamers by 31·03 per cent.

Imports.

On the other hand, the quantity carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a large increase of 64·43 per cent. on the total of the year preceding. In the following statement the total imports of mustard seed into Calcutta from the different provinces are arranged according to the volume of the trade :—

	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.

Total ...	27,25,680	22,88,451	20,28,008

Though the decrease in the imports from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh amounted to only 68,907 maunds, the fluctuations in the exporting districts were very great; the despatches from Moradabad, Baraich, Gonda and Allighur declined by 2,11,418 maunds, while those from Hurdai, Sitapur, Bulandshar, Busti, Bara Banki, Fyzabad, Meerut, Cawnpore, Shahjehanpore, and Allahabad, increased by 1,39,706 maunds. Of the Behar districts in which the crop was poor, all showed diminished exports, especially Durbhunga (37,962 maunds), Sarun (26,030 maunds), Purneah (18,431 maunds), Monghyr (11,613 maunds), and Shahabad (11,017 maunds). Of the Bengal districts, Hooghly and Moorshedabad showed decreases of 21,128 maunds and 10,324 maunds, respectively, against increases of 10,728 maunds from Pubna, 4,482 maunds from Dacca, 2,925 maunds from Mymensingh, and 2,689 maunds from Jessore. The decrease under Assam is due chiefly to the consignments from Kamroop and Goalpara having fallen off by 42,278 maunds and 29,478 maunds, respectively.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks regarding this trade during the past year:—

"There has been a decrease in the exports of this seed of 34·7 per cent. There was a falling off to the United Kingdom of 19·2 per cent., and to France of 49·6 per cent. The figures under other countries represent larger shipments to Belgium. There was a failure in the continental crop, which was made up for by exports from other ports of India, the total shipments from this country showing a very heavy advance in comparison with the previous years."

156. After deducting the gross exports from the total quantity imported into Calcutta, there remained 11,59,166 maunds, against 11,72,221 maunds in 1887-88, and 12,15,445 maunds in 1886-87.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following observations on this trade with foreign countries:—

"The advance, was in chussum and cocoons, as the exports of raw silk show a decline. For a greater part of the year there was very little business doing, and prices fell, but at the close of 1888 a strong demand arose, and prices advanced considerably. The high rates demanded by sellers were paid in some instances, but at the close of the year prices had fallen again.

"So long as there are fair crops of Italian, China, and Japan silks at low prices as there were last year, Bengal silk will be at a discount."

158. Last year the imports showed a slight increase of 13·19 per cent. as compared with the figures of 1887-88, and of 11·48 per cent. when compared with 1886-87. The improvement was chiefly in the consignments carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway. The condition of the silk industry in the Lower Provinces is thus described in the Divisional Administration Reports for the past official year:—

Imports.

Silk (mulberry).

"Burdwan Division.—The subdivision of Bishenpore in Bankoora produces a durable silk cloth that finds a market in Calcutta. There is always a keen demand for the stuff called kutni, which is mostly used by up-country women. It is estimated that fabrics valued at Rs 9,000 were exported to Calcutta during the year. In Midnapore silks of the finest texture are manufactured at Ghatal, Radhanagore, and Nimtola, and are largely exported to the North-Western Provinces, Punjab, Madras, and Bombay. In Hooghly there is a considerable manufacture of silk cloths in the Serampore subdivision. In Beerbhoom the value of silk turned out is reported to have improved 10 per cent.

Silk (tussur).

"Tussur silk is manufactured in all districts except Howrah. In Bankoora the principal centres are Bankoora, Rajgram, Beersingpore, Sonamukhi, and Bishenpore. Business is reported to have been bad during the past year, cocoons having risen in price owing to a deficient supply* from Chota Nagpore and increased demand for Europe. It is reported that 20,000 kahuns of cocoons, valued at Rs. 2,80,000, were imported, and cloths valued at Rs. 15,000 manufactured during the year and mostly exported to Calcutta. In Burdwan, Mankor is the chief manufacturing centre. The total outturn during the year is reported to have been 335,325 yards (valued at Rs. 1,61,671), against 322,505 yards (worth Rs. 1,52,603) in 1887-88. In Beerbhoom the value of tussur turned out improved nearly 25 per cent.

"Presidency Division.—The silk season in the Moorshedabad district was on the whole a fair one. Climatic influences being favourable, disease amongst the silkworms was not so prevalent as usual. The March bund, which comprises the crops from March to June, was very good—better than for some years past. From July to September, or in the rainy bund, the weather was very unfavourable and considerably damaged what otherwise would have been a good crop. The November bund, i.e., from November to February, was a very good one. The mulberry crop was very good during the year, and the prices obtained for cocoons remunerated the rearers well.

"The outturn of silk-thread was much the same as in the previous year, though the prices were better. During the year under report there were 91 filatures in the district, against 77 in the previous year. They produced about 285,567 lb of silk, valued at Rs. 23,43,341. In the year 1887-88 the quantity of silk produced was 284,473lb, the value of which amounted to Rs. 21,06,134. It may be noted that during the year six filatures were closed and three new ones started. The value of outturn from three of the filatures at work during the year was not furnished by the managers.

"Experimental silk-worm rearing at Berhampore was carried on through a portion of the year by Mr. N. G. Mukherjee, under the direction of the Agricultural Department. The Director of Agriculture has expressed the following opinion:—

"There is no longer any doubt that silk-worms in Bengal are suffering from pebrine, nor in the light of Mr. Mukherjee's reports can there any longer be any doubt as to the method by which pebrine can be eradicated, namely, by microscopic examination and rejection of diseased moths. The operations have now been transferred to the committee of silk merchants. Worms are being reared on a large scale with a view to supplying the villagers with healthy seed. Endeavours are also being made to induce the villagers to adopt improved methods of rearing, viz., in boxes covered with wire netting to protect the worms from the ravages of the silk fly."

An exhibition of local arts and industries was held at Moorshedabad in February, 1888, and proved a great success. The Nawab Bahadoor of Moorshedabad lent a building for the purpose, and subscribed handsomely. All the local zemindars and other chief residents of the district co-operated. There was a good collection of ivory objects, silk cocoons, silk fabrics, bidri-work, and other articles. Agricultural products, animals, and poultry, were also exhibited.

"Rajshahye Division.—Silk is manufactured in Rajshahye to a large extent. The estimated outturn is 88,985 pounds in 1888 as compared with 99,440 pounds in the previous year. In Bogra the silk industry has been almost driven out by competition, and the weavers have mostly become agriculturists. Endi silk is manufactured in Dinagepore, Bogra, Rungpore, and Julpigoree, and is much used by the lower classes.

"Bhagulpore Division.—The tusser silk industry in Bhagulpore still struggles on, but the price of cocoons was high, and silk thread sold at 5 tolahs per rupee, against 8 tolahs in the previous year. Twenty-four thousand three hundred and eleven pieces, valued at Rs. 80,197, are said to have been exported this year, against 39,948 pieces, valued at Rs. 1,00,356, in the previous year. In Maldah the two silk factories of Bholahat and Baragharia, with two out-offices of the former at Mahdipore and Jalalpore, worked throughout the year. The manufacture of silk started at Kaliachuck indigo factory during the previous year was abandoned. The outturn of the factories was—

"Besides these factories there are numerous native silk filatures. The large manufactories export directly to Calcutta and the North-Western Provinces, but the produce of the small filatures finds an extensive sale in the Sadullapore and Amaniguuge hâts held in the district. The manufacture of silk fabrics is gradually decaying owing to the competition of European-made fabrics of a better and cheaper quality.

"Chota Nagpore Division.—In Manbhoom the total value of the outturn of tussar silk amounted to Rs. 5,500, against Rs. 9,000 in 1887-88, and Rs. 10,762 in 1886-87. In Palamow the attempt of Messrs. Hodges and Radford to start a filature for reeling tussar cocoons has proved a failure. In Hazaribagh tussar silk reeling is now carried on only by native methods in some half-a-dozen villages by a class of men called Patwas."

Principal railway stations.

159. The largest despatches made by the railway stations during the past year were from Goalundo (6,767 maunds against 2,681 maunds), Azimgunge (5,636 maunds against 5,866 maunds), Rampore Beaulcah, (3,473 maunds against 312 maunds), Damookdeah (2,618 maunds against 4,425 maunds), and Mooraroee (2,506 maunds against 1,766 maunds in 1887-88).

Principal river marts.

160. The imports by country boats were consigned from Ghatal (1,355 maunds against 2,397 maunds), and Midnapore (654 maunds against 1,455 maunds).

Exports.

161. Compared with the transactions of 1887-88 and 1886-87, the past year's exports showed an advance of 11·45 per cent. and 10·09 per cent., respectively. The destination of the sea-borne trade during the past three years is shown below—

The Customs Report for 1888-89 gives the following explanation of the causes of fluctuation—

"The total exports of silk have increased in comparison with 1887-88 by 25·8 per cent. and the figures are the highest shown.

"The United Kingdom and France have taken larger quantities, while there has been a reduction to Italy. "The imports of Bengal silk into London were trifling compared with the total quantity of raw silk received there, and though deliveries were larger, stocks at the close of the year showed an increase, as will be seen from the following figures :—

	1887.	1888.		1887.	1888.		1887.	1888.

Bengal " ...	132,600	91,200	do.	62,550	......	do.	93,750	1,00,200

"France is our largest consumer of silk, and the advance to that country was 31·7 per cent. The principal portion of this was chussums. The exports to Italy have further declined by 60 per cent. The crop in that country was a good average one, prices were low, and owing to the change in the French tariff less silk was wanted in Italy."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

162. The result of the past year's traffic was a surplus of imports over exports, amounting to 3,748 maunds, against 2,929 maunds in 1887-88, and 3,050 maunds in 1886-87.

SUGAR.

164. The imports of refined sugar during the past year were 24·19 per cent. below the trade of 1887-88, and 2·28 per cent. below that of 1886-87. On the other hand, unrefined sugar showed an advance of 10·35 per cent. and 32·95 per cent. as compared with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively. While the boat traffic showed an increase of 10,516 maunds under refined, and of 10,820 maunds under unrefined, sugar, the road traffic exhibited a decrease of 16,259 maunds, and 47,190 maunds, respectively The consignments by the East Indian Railway remained practically unchanged, but in the figures of the Eastern Bengal State Railway there was an increase of 51,493 maunds under unrefined sugar. As regards the sea-borne trade, a falling off of 1,17,369 maunds is shown under refined, and an increase of 1,20,289 maunds under unrefined, sugar. The total supply brought to Calcutta from each province is shown in the following statement:—

165. Last year the imports of refined sugar by sea were much below the figures of the previous year. The cause of the fluctuations which characterized the trade of the year is explained by the Customs Collector as follows:—

"We do not now grow sugar in Bengal in sufficient quantity to meet our home demand, for, as in the past few years, large supplies were received from foreign countries as well as from coast ports.

"The following were the importations from foreign countries :—

	1887-88. Cwts.	1888-89. Cwts.
United Kingdom	35,292	113
Austria	4,080	1
Mauritius	52,584	98,446
Hong-Kong	61,520	9,426
Straits Settlements	19,291	10,175
Java	33,935	Nil.

"The total importations were smaller than in the previous year, but they were still large. The most important were those of cane sugar from Mauritius. Sugar from Europe has declined to insignificance, after reaching for several years large figures.

"From Indian ports the importations amounted to 54,497 cwt., against 38,742 cwt. in 1887-88. A considerable quantity of this was Mauritius sugar transhipped at, or sent on from, Bombay."

166. The remarks made by some of the Divisional Commissioners on the general condition of the sugar industry in their Divisions during the past year, are extracted below :—

Presidency Division.—In the 24-Pergunnahs molasses (goor) and sugar made from the cane and date-palm juice continue to form an important local industry, especially in the Bussirhat and Baraset subdivisions. During the year under report the approximate outturn of goor from date-juice in the Bussirhat subdivision was 3,25,000 maunds, of which about 1,95,000 maunds were converted into sugar, 96,000 maunds were exported to Calcutta and elsewhere, and the rest locally consumed. The outturn of goor from both date-palm and cane in the Baraset subdivision is estimated at 1,50,000 maunds, of which about one-third was locally consumed, the rest being converted into sugar.

"The area under sugar-cane in the Bussirhat subdivision is estimated at about 16,000 bighas.

"Prices in the two years ranged as follows :—

		1887-88. Price per maund.			1888-89. Price per maund.
		Rs. A.		Rs. A.	Rs. A.		Rs. A.
Date-palm	Goor	2 8	to	2 14	2 4	to	3 0
	Sugar	5 12	,,	6 0	6 4	,,	6 8
Cane ...	Goor	3 0	,,	3 8	3 0	,,	3 8
	Sugar	8 0	,,	8 8	7 8	,,	8 0

"The sugar mills at Cossipore turned out 1,15,200 maunds of sugar, valued at 11 lakhs of rupees, as compared with 86,000 maunds and 8 lakhs of rupees in the year 1887-88. The manufacture of sugar according to native process continues in the Baraset and Bussirhat subdivisions.

Sugar is manufactured almost all over the Jessore district. the principal place of manufacture being Kotechandpore in the Jhenidah subdivision. There is one manufactory at Kotechandpore, belonging to Mr. Newhouse, where refined sugar is manufactured by machinery The outturn from this factory and its value as noted below were :—

	1887-88. Outturn.	1887-88. Value.	1888-89. Outturn.	1888-89. Value.
	Mds.	Rs.	Mds.	Rs.
Refined sugar	14,833	1,22,238	20,809	1,62,857

	Mds.	Value. Rs.
1887-88	3,19,225	17,27,023
1888-89	3,61,274	17,81,393

"Prices in the sugar market were lower than in 1887-88, and many of the manufacturers suffered loss in consequence. There were about 187 sugar factories at work during the year, against 200 in the previous year. About 100 of them are in the Jhenidah subdivision.

"A new factory has lately been started in the district by Mr. A. H. Newhouse for expressing mustard oil by machinery.

"In Khulna, sugar is the only important industry, and is carried on in all parts of the district. This industry is, however, now in a declining condition, imported sugar being more largely consumed than before. About 50,000 maunds of sugar were produced during the year under report and exported to various local markets and to Calcutta. In the previous year the outturn was about the same. The price of sugar varied from Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per maund. The other manufactures of the district, such as molasses, etc., are purely local, as stated in the reports of previous years."

Rajshahye Division.—"The cultivation of sugarcane is carried on more or less in every district. The Behea sugarcane mills are extensively used in Rajshahye, Bogra, and Rungpore, and are greatly appreciated by the people. In Darjeeling a very small quantity of molasses is manufactured for home consumption only."

Bhagulpore Division.—"The cultivation of sugarcane is increasing rapidly in Banka, and is also growing in North Bhagulpore. The kind of sugarcane most cultivated is that which bears a flower. It grows rapidly and yields more juice.

The Annual Administration Report of the Dacca Division shows that the manufacture of coarse sugar in the Furreedpore district decreased from 13,191 maunds to 9,080 maunds, the number of factories having fallen from 20 to 13.

Exports.

168. The exports of refined sugar were 11·94 per cent. less than the trade of 1887-88, but 0·59 per cent. in excess of that of 1886-87. Under unrefined sugar there was an increase of 17·18 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 49·48 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The details of the sea-borne trade are shown in the following statement:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks regarding refined sugar:—

"The exports of refined sugar were small in 1887-88, but in the past year they were smaller still, and the figures are insignificant. To Europe the trade is practically extinct, for the only shipments were those to the United Kingdom. With the immense production of beetroot sugar on the Continent, much of it bounty-fed, it is not to be expected that our exports will rise again. Prices were slightly higher in the home markets than they were in the previous year, but not to an extent to attract imports from here. Bengal sugar is now so completely out of the home market that the Economist, in its annual list of prices of commodities, has not quoted it for the past five years."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

169. After converting refined into unrefined sugar at the rate of one maund of the former to 2½ maunds of the latter, the total of the year's traffic aggregated 22,18,755 maunds under imports, and 9,43,206 maunds under exports, leaving a balance of 12,75,549 maunds not exported before the close of the year, against a similar surplus of 14,90,629 maunds in 1887-88, and of 11,54,301 maunds in 1886-87.

171. The increase shown in 1886-87 and 1887-88 was fully maintained, and still further extended during the year under report, but the average price per lb. according to the Calcutta Customs return fell from 9 annas 6 pies in 1886-87, and 9 annas 5 pies in 1887-88, to 8 annas 6 pies in 1888-89. The prospects of the tea industry are thus described by the Collector of Customs, in his report for 1888-89:—

"There were increases in the production of tea in all the growing districts except Chittagong and Chota Nagpore, the figures, compared with the previous year, being as follows:—

	lbs.	lbs.
Assam	37,849,202	41,865,499
Cachar and Sylhet	27,156,689	27,343,505
Darjeeling, Terai, and Dooars	14,997,805	18,950,822
Chittagong and Chota Nagpore	1,538,249	1,148,458
Dehra-Dun, Kumaon, and Kangra	3,750,000	4,000,000
Private and native gardens	1,500,000	3,000,000
Total ...	86,791,845	96,308,284

"The largest increases appear in the Assam and Darjeeling, Terai and Dooars districts, where there have been extensions and new gardens have been opened out. This has been especially the case in the Dooars, which is comparatively speaking quite a new tea-growing district and has sprung into importance only within the last few years."

"The crop of tea last year was of poor quality and below the average, partly owing to climatic causes and partly to a more general sacrifice of quality to quantity. From its consisting to a large extent of ordinary and common qualities, the prices for these were very low, while for the scarcer good qualities they remained about the same, and were even in some cases higher than in the previous year: the general result, however, was a serious contraction of about 1*d*. per lb. in the average price obtained. Speaking generally, the past year has not been a bad one for tea proprietors, notwithstanding the lower prices, though of course many gardens have done badly. Old and worn out, or expensively opened out, or extravagantly managed gardens cannot compete at these prices with new gardens made and worked in the most economical manner.

"The estimate for the current year shows a further advance of over ten millions, the General Committee of the Indian Tea Association giving the figures as follows:—

	lbs.
Assam	44,953,400
Cachar and Sylhet	31,990,400
Darjeeling, Terai, and Dooars	20,460,620
Chittagong and Chota Nagpore	1,536,740
Dehra-Dun, Kumaon, and Kangra	4,500,000
Private and native gardens	3,500,000
Total ...	106,941,160

"With this enormous increase in production and Ceylon rapidly increasing its exports, there must be a further fall in prices unless new markets can be opened out. What the prospects are in this direction it is difficult to say. I am informed that the quantity of tea consumed in India by natives is still almost nominal.

"Ceylon continues to make rapid strides, the figures for the past five years being :—

1884.	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.
lbs.	lbs.	lbs.	lbs.	lbs.
2,392,973	4,372,721	7,819,888	13,834,057	23,820,471

"The quality has to some extent deteriorated with the increased outturn, and with lower prices prospects are hardly as brilliant as they seemed to be a year ago."

172. The Divisional Administration Reports for the year 1888-89 contain the following accounts of the tea industry in the Rajshahye, Chittagong, and Chota Nagpore Divisions:—

Districts.	Number of gardens.			Area under cultivation in acres.						Gross yield in pounds.			Average yield per acre from mature plants
				Mature plant.			Immature plant.

"It will be observed that there has been an increase in the number of gardens and in the gross yield in both the districts of Darjeeling and Julpigoree "

Chittagong Division.—"The year was a good one for tea up to the time the rains ceased. The yield of leaf was good, and the prices obtained were high as compared with other districts; but the drought of the last five months of the year did much damage among the young tea, and caused the chances of a good outturn in the current year to be very small."

Chota Nagpore Division.—"Tea is manufactured in Hazaribagh and Lohardugga. The statistics for the past year are given below :—

Districts.	Number of gardens.	Area under cultivation.			Approximate yield.	Average yield per acre of mature plants.
		Area under mature plants.	Area under immature plants.	Total.
				Tea.	lbs.	lbs.
Hazaribagh	6	877	30	907	115,277	131 4
Lohardugga	30	2,070	919	2,989	339,383	163·9

"The year was not favourable for tea owing to the long cessation of rains. Difficulty was also experienced in the supply of labour, as the construction of the Bengal-Nagpore Railway and the emigration to the labour districts drew coolies away from the division."

173. There was an increase in imports of 10·26 per cent. as compared with 1887-88, and of 28·60 per cent. as compared with 1886-87. The advance in the imports by inland steamers was 16·12 per cent., while the Eastern Bengal State Railway returns exhibited a decrease of 3·31 per cent. as compared with those of the previous year. The distribution of the imports is classified by provinces in the subjoined statement:—

Regarding the exports of tea to foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks as follows:—

"To the United Kingdom the increase is 10¾ per cent. There has fortunately been a large increase in consumption, due no doubt to the extremely low prices ruling for common kinds. For really fine teas there was a good demand, and no fall in price occurred. It would seem to be an open question whether it pays better to produce common teas in large quantities or finer teas in small. A well-known firm of tea-brokers in London writes as follows on this point:—"Opinions may differ: we maintain, however, that in the long run individual producers, no less than the whole industry, will gain by steadily aiming at a high standard of quality. The experience of many seasons shows that whenever supplies of low teas are plentiful, they sink to a price which leaves but little, if any, margin of profit.

"The following statement gives the total importations in the United Kingdom, with the deliveries:—

	1887. lbs.		1888. lbs.
	Imports.	Deliveries.	Imports.	Deliveries.
Indian	85,218,000	83,112,000	92,387,000	87,211,000
Ceylon	11,325,000	9,942,000	20,325,500	18,552,000
China, &c.	119,432,000	122,415,000	109,285,000	115,592,000

"This table shows that the consumption of Indian and Ceylon teas have both advanced in a most satisfactory manner, while there has been a heavy decline in both the receipts and deliveries of China tea.

"The imports of Indian and Ceylon together have now exceeded China tea, though the quality of the latter was better last year than in 1887. The Chinese are quite alive to the serious effect Indian and Ceylon teas are having on their market in the United Kingdom, and the matter has been officially reported on and remedies suggested in the direction of improving the quality of China tea.

"Notwithstanding the large imports into the United Kingdom, the total stocks indicate no special accumulation at the end of the year; the following are the figures:—

	1887. lbs.	1888. lbs.
Indian	34,843,600	40,031,000
Ceylon	3,149,000	5,130,000
China	65,466,000	59,255,000
Total ...	103,458,000	104,416,000

"The exports to Australia show a further advance. They, however, still represent only a small portion of the tea consumed there. To America there was also an increase, but the total shipments were very small, and the process of ousting China tea from that market would appear to be a very slow one."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

Average price of tea.

180. This article has been valued in the returns appended to this report at the rate of Rs. 40-12 per maund, or 7 annas 11 pies per lb, which is the Calcutta brokers' valuation for the year, against Rs. 44-14 per maund, or 8 annas 9 pies per lb in 1887-88, and Rs. 42 per maund, or 8 annas 2 pies per lb in 1886-87.

The quantity brought to Calcutta by the Eastern Bengal State Railway was 7·06 per cent. in excess of the imports by that route during the preceding year, but in the case of all other routes, the figures showed a decrease. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes—

"The total exports of unmanufactured tobacco declined in comparison with 1887-88 by 61½ per cent.

"The shipments to the United Kingdom were trifling, while they ceased entirely to France, Italy, and Spain. The only country in Europe now taking our tobacco in any large quantity is Holland, the exports to that country being over 1¾ millions of lbs. This tobacco is no doubt worked up into the common cigars sold at low prices in the continent.

"The exports to Mauritius remain fairly regular, this tobacco being for the use of the coolies who have emigrated there. The increasing local consumption is apparently sufficient to carry off the bulk of the crop produced. The quantity and value of the exports, it will be noticed, are the lowest shown in the table.

187. The quantity of tobacco not exported before the close of the year was 1,71,125 maunds, against 1,77,461 maunds in 1887-88, and 1,64,578 maunds in 1886-87.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

CHAPTER XI.

INLAND AND SEA-BORNE TRADE OF CHITTAGONG.

The sea-borne trade of Chittagong is dealt with in the report of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, on Trade and Navigation; and it is also noticed in this report for purposes of comparison with the inland trade.

The total quantity of merchandise carried to, and from, Chittagong by country boats, registered during the past three years, was as follows:—

	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Imports	28,91,199	26,07,910	19,54,586
Exports	30,42,702	5,83,032	6,13,248
Total ...	59,33,901	31,90,942	25,67,834

2. It will be seen that the gross quantity of goods carried during the past year was 19·52 per cent. below the trade of the preceding year, and 56·72 per cent. below that of 1886-87. Compared with 1887-88, the import trade showed a falling off of 25·05 per cent., while the export trade increased by 5·18 per cent. The largest decrease in imports occurred under rice (7,43,867 maunds), and paddy (3,84,114 maunds), and the largest increase under firewood (3,33,960 maunds), cocoanuts, oils, mustard seed, metals, coal, raw cotton, tobacco, ghee, and betelnuts. In the export trade, bamboos alone showed an advance of 22,088 maunds, while under timber the increase amounted to 55,071 maunds. The other articles showing an increase were hides, vegetables, oils, spices, and unrefined sugar; while those in which there were decreases were—salt (58,314 maunds), piece-goods, European (Rs. 31,742), gram, metals, and refined sugar.

3. The following statement shows the value of this trade and of the sea-borne trade during the past three years:—

		Imports.	Exports.	Total.
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Inland trade ...	1886-87	78,11,713	41,25,977	1,19,37,690
	1887-88	63,82,372	33,99,884	97,82,256
	1888-89	59,87,650	37,04,376	96,92,026
Sea-borne trade ...	1886-87	1,17,93,941	1,12,79,372	2,30,73,313
	1887-88	1,34,89,992	1,55,92,823	2,90,82,815
	1888-89	1,22,94,665	1,42,88,916	2,65,83,581

As compared with 1887-88, the falling off in the value of the inland trade was ·92 per cent., while in the sea-borne trade, it amounted to 8·59 per cent. Regarding the latter trade, the Commissioner of the Chittagong Division writes as follows:—

"In spite of the unfavourable year, the value of the trade of the port has decreased by only Rs. 24,99,234. The higher value of jute and rice has prevented the decrease being greater, and the fluctuation is not more than must be expected in a bad year, and is insignificant when compared with the increase of the two previous years, which came to over 88½ lakhs. In fact in the past year the value of the trade of the port was higher than in any previous year except 1887-88. The nearest approach was in 1883-84, when the value was Rs. 2,47,56,862.

"On the whole, trade has suffered less than might reasonably be expected from the bad harvest. The export trade of all India depends on the nature of the season, the quantity of food-grain produced for export being merely the surplus after provision for the food of the people for the year with a margin and the following year's seed. In the past year Chittagong barely produced enough for its own consumption, and there was a strong drain westwards from Noakholly and Tipperah which reduced the amount sent south for exportation."

4. Lime and Limestone.—Owing to extensive building operations, the lime trade showed great activity during 1888-89, the total quantity sent to Chittagong from Naraingunge amounting to 47,139 maunds, against 20,163 maunds in 1887-88, and 37,412 maunds in 1886-87. Of the past year's traffic, 25,439 maunds against 2,363 maunds were carried by coasting vessels, and 21,700 maunds against 17,800 maunds by country boats.

5. Caoutchouc.—The total value of caoutchouc exported from Chittagong by coasting vessels was Rs. 9,880, which was Rs. 7,004 below the figures for 1887-88, but Rs. 7,955 in excess of those for 1886-87. The falling off during the past year is attributed to political disturbances in the Hill Tracts, which are the main sources of supply of this article.

6. Cotton, raw.—The export of raw cotton from Chittagong was exceptionally large during 1887-88, in which year the crop in the Hill Tracts was an exceedingly large one, whereas in 1888-89, the crop was very poor owing to the unequal distribution of the rainfall and hence the decline in the trade during the year under review. The total quantity exported to Naraingunge amounted to 32,547 maunds, which showed a decrease of 37,119 maunds on the returns of 1887-88, but an increase of 5,624 maunds on those of 1886-87, as will be seen from the details given below:—

To Naraingunge from Chittagong.

Year.	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1886-87	12,880	14,043	26,923
1887-88	8,300	61,366	69,666
1888-89	1,720	30,827	32,547

Besides the quantity given above, 20,190 maunds of raw cotton were sent to Calcutta by country boats, against 10,970 maunds in 1887-88, and 23,840 maunds, against 17,797 maunds by coasting vessels.

7. Cotton twist and yarn.—According to the coast trade returns, the total value of the imports was Rs. 1,45,220, showing a decrease of Rs. 75,625 as compared with the trade of 1887-88, and of Rs. 39,317 on that of 1886-87.

8. Cotton piece-goods, European.—In the past year, the total value of the import trade by coasting vessels under this head was Rs. 14,19,723, against Rs. 15,67,131 in 1887-88, and Rs. 15,81,113 in 1886-87. The value of piece-goods sent by country boats to the interior of the Chittagong district was Rs. 4,09,406, against Rs. 4,47,148 and Rs. 2,55,800 in the two previous years, respectively. Regarding cotton goods, the Commissioner remarks as follows:—

"The decrease in the value of yarn twist and piece-goods imported is the result of the bad harvest in Chittagong, which left the agricultural classes less money to spend on superfluities. The Mugs and Mahomedans continue to use country-woven cloth for the most part, while Hindoos use chiefly imported piece-goods. Even the country cloth is, however, generally woven of imported thread."

9. Jute, raw.—The increase noticed in the two previous reports in the import jute traffic of Chittagong was not maintained during the year under report, the total quantity imported from Naraingunge by coasting vessels being 17,21,926 maunds, against 20,26,925 maunds in 1887-88, and 17,63,758 maunds in 1886-87. The decrease is attributed to a smaller demand for jute cuttings in America. The exports of raw jute to foreign ports from Chittagong during the past three years were as follows:—

Exports to Foreign countries from Chittagong.

Whither exported.	Quantity.			Value.
	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.

Total ...	17,72,765	19,27,987	17,46,109	81,71,095	98,40,670	95,37,959

The price of jute rose during the year, thus preventing the fall in value from being proportionate to the fall in weight. The remarks made by the Commissioner of the Chittagong Division on the jute trade of that port during the past official year are extracted below:—

"The decrease in jute is partly due to the smaller crop, but is also to a considerable extent owing to one of the great exporting firms not having been able to get sufficient tonnage to convey jute from Naraingunge here. Owing to this several ships were diverted from here to Calcutta, the jute being carried there by river steamers and flats. The decrease is entirely in the trade with America, the value of the jute exported to New York and Salem having fallen from Rs. 18,52.870 to Rs. 5,46,439. The value of exports to the United Kingdom is increased by over ten lakhs. There now appears to be a reasonable hope of the much-needed railway being constructed, which, if properly managed, will prevent such difficulties."

10. Gunnybags.—The imports under this head carried by coasting vessels were valued at Rs. 1,43,870, being 17·57 per cent. below the figures for 1887-88, but 57·42 per cent. in excess of those for 1886-87.

11. Cocoanuts.—Under this head a very large increase of 1,126,400 cocoanuts occurred in the imports into Chittagong by country boats in comparison with the totals for 1887-88, and of 1,233,670 when compared with the trade of 1886-87. The supply received from Noakholly was 1,810,000 against 1,551,600 in 1887-88, and from Burrisaul 1,055,400 against 197,400. The large increase last year is stated by the Collector to be due to increased demand for local consumption.

12. Rice and Paddy.—The aggregate quantities of rice and paddy sent to Chittagong by country boats during the past year, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years, are shown in the following statement:—

	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Rice	12,12,914	13.23,221	5,79,354
Paddy	6,72,649	7,45,148	3,61,034

The decrease under rice amounted to 56·21 per cent. and 52·23 per cent in comparison with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, and under paddy, to 51·55 per cent. and 46·32 per cent. The Collector remarks that the falling off was due to bad crops and consequent high prices which restricted exportation.

The following statement shows the principal places in Bengal from which Chittagong imported rice and paddy during the past three years:—

		1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.
Rice	Cwts.	31,597	217,940	206,105

13. Hides and skins.—The total value of hides and skins exported from Chittagong by coasting boats amounted to Rs. 2,19,269, against Rs. 2,64,451 in 1887-88, and Rs. 2,23,847 in 1886-87. The falling off is attributed to the absence of cattle epidemic during the past year.

14. Oils.—Last year the total value of the import trade by coasting vessels under this head was Rs. 83,887, showing an increase of Rs. 5,849 as compared with the trade of 1887-88, but a decrease of Rs. 22,561 on the figures for 1886-87. The increase was due to large imports of kerosine oil from Bombay and Rangoon in response to demands for local consumption. On the other hand, the boat traffic returns showed an importation of 38,701 maunds of oils, against only 9,478 maunds in 1887-88, and 5,510 maunds in 1886-87. The imports from Naraingunge aggregated 25,010 maunds against only 500 maunds in the year preceding, and from Calcutta 6,002 maunds against 2,869 maunds.

15. Metals and manufactures of metals.—The total quantity imported into Chittagong by country boats aggregated 37,440 maunds, against 22,910 maunds in 1887-88, and 10,970 maunds in 1886-87. The increase under brass and copper was 6,180 maunds in comparison with the total of the year preceding, the chief sources of supply being Calcutta and Dacca. The increase under iron amounted to 7,010 maunds, and was due to the larger importation of building and bridge materials from Calcutta. Under "Other metals," which consisted of steel, lead, etc., imported from Calcutta for local use, the advance amounted to 1,340 maunds on the returns of the previous year. The coasting trade returns also show that Rs. 46,150 worth of metals were imported from Calcutta, against Rs. 42,368 in 1887-88, and Rs. 82,491 in 1886-87; the articles received were for building purposes.

16. Salt.—The total quantity of salt imported into Chittagong from foreign ports was 4,99,827 maunds, showing an increase of 1,01,767 maunds as compared with 1887-88, and of 1,48,555 maunds as compared with 1886-87. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division observes:—

> "The large increase in the quantity and value of salt is partly due to the necessity of replenishing stocks, which had been allowed to run very low, but is also partly due to increased trade. The increase of duty has had no effect whatever on consumption. The amount of salt removed under bond to Naraingunge increased from 7,500 to 45,700 maunds."

	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
To Chittagong	1,68,566	1,35,624	1,85,082

Total ...	3,48,600	2,71,240	2,12,926

Besides the quantities mentioned in the foregoing statement the supply carried to Naraingunge by coasting vessels was 1,14,679 maunds, against 1,21,657 maunds in 1887-88, and 1,59,412 maunds in 1886-87.

17. Mustard and rape seed.—According to the boat traffic returns, the imports of mustard and rape seed rose from 15,760 maunds in 1886-87, and 11,652 maunds in 1887-88, to 31,040 maunds in 1888-89. Out of the latter quantity, 29,700 maunds against 11,040 maunds were shipped from Naraingunge. The increase is said to have been due to a good demand for crushing purposes.

18. Spices.—The total quantity of betelnuts carried to Chittagong by country boats during the past year was 27,970 maunds, showing an advance of 4,540 maunds on the trade of 1887-88, but a decrease of 12,345 maunds on that of 1886-87. Under the head "Spices, all other kinds," there was a decrease of 1,500 maunds and 7,558 maunds in comparison with the figures of the two previous years, respectively, the falling off being the result of a bad chilly crop. In the coasting trade, the total value of spices was Rs. 24,087, against Rs. 29,614 in 1887-88, and Rs. 48,398 in 1886-87. The Collector explains that this head consists chiefly of curry spices imported from Calcutta, and the decrease is due to smaller demands. In the exports, however, the figures show an improvement, namely, Rs. 12,852 and Rs. 5,334 in comparison with the preceding two years, the increase being due to larger consignments of chillies to Rangoon.

19. Sugar—The total supply of sugar carried to Chittagong by country boats during the past three years was as follows :—

	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Sugar, refined	6,563	3,700	8,030
„ unrefined	43,084	33,925	36,640

Refined sugar was chiefly imported from Calcutta, which supplied 5,340 maunds, against 1,740 maunds in the year preceding. Unrefined sugar came partly from the interior of the Chittagong district, and partly from Jessore, Burrisaul, and Naraingunge. The imports by coasting vessels from Naraingunge and Calcutta during the past year showed a slight decrease, the total value amounting to Rs. 68,208, against Rs. 73,086 in 1887-88, and Rs. 88,270 in 1886-87.

20. Tea (Indian).—The total quantity of Indian tea exported from Chittagong by coasting vessels was 1,222,766lbs., against 1,116,116lbs. in 1887-88, and 1,028,686lbs. in 1886-87. The increase in the past year's trade is attributed to the steady development of this industry in Chittagong. The value of the trade was Rs. 6,28,244, against Rs. 5,97,871, and Rs. 5,82,162 in the preceding two years, respectively. The quantity sent direct to the United Kingdom was 8,988lbs., against 5,165lbs. in 1887-88, and 3,154lbs. in 1886-87. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division observes :—

"The foreign export of tea (which appears under "All other articles") has increased owing to the opening out of new foreign markets direct, chiefly in Australia. The increase was 3,823lbs. The increase in the direct export of tea is very marked In 1886-87 only 3,154lbs. were thus exported. In 1887-88 the amount rose to 5,165lbs., and in the year under report to 8,988lbs. The amount is still small, but the rate of increase is large, and the beginning thus made will probably lead to larger trade."

21. Tobacco.—The total quantity of tobacco imported into Chittagong from Naraingunge showed an advance of 55·05 per cent. on the trade of 1887-88, and of 2·07 per cent. on that of 1886-87, as will be seen from the figures given below :—

	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1886-87	10,300	10,478	20,778
1887-88	6,300	7,379	13,679
1888-89	12,050	9,159	21,209

The exports of tobacco to foreign ports aggregated 15,317lbs., against 26,573lbs. in 1887-88, and 1,521lbs in 1886-87. The decrease was due to fewer vessels having cleared for Maldives during the year under report.

These figures show that there was a considerable decrease in this trade, viz., of 17·67 per cent. as compared with the traffic of 1887-88, and of 18·22 per cent. as compared with that of 1886-87. The value of the imports fell off by 20·86 per cent. in comparison with the figures for the year preceding, and the value of the exports by 14·19 per cent. In his administration report for 1888-89 the Commissioner of the Orissa Division observes that the marked decline in the trade was "due chiefly to bad crops and high prices, and the disinclination of the people to part with the money they have acquired by high prices." The trade of Balasore was less by 19·85 per cent. under imports, and by 6·13 per cent. under exports as compared with 1887-88. The Collector remarks as follows :—

"Even with the decrease the trade was better than in some previous years, viz., 1879-80 to 1882-83. We find increase in the trade of subsequent years, viz., 1883-84 to 1886-87, but this was mainly due to the coast canal work which led to large imports of valuable articles of construction, but was so temporary that it does not admit of fair comparison with any subsequent year. After the year 1886-87 we had to revert to the natural state of the trade, and as such we show better than in many previous years, notwithstanding the fact that the year's crop was a bad one and the coast canal was open throughout the year, diverting a portion of our sea-borne trade."

In the case of Cuttack, the decrease in imports is attributed to the opening of the coast canal, and that in exports to the contraction of the rice trade owing to high prices. Regarding the falling off in the exports from Pooree, it is stated that the high price of rice in Ganjam, consequent on the failure of crops, diverted all the trade in surplus grain from the port, and therefore it was not worthwhile for shippers to touch there.

2. The different districts contributing to the trade during the past three years are shown in the subjoined table :—

The trade with other Indian ports was 5·58 per cent. of the whole, against 5·01 per cent. in 1887-88. The exports during the year to foreign ports amounted to 18·46 per cent. of the total supply, against 31·10 per cent. in the preceding year.

4. Cotton twist and yarn.—There was an increase of 8,076 maunds and 12,433 maunds in the imports of European cotton twist and yarn, as compared with 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively, while there was a decrease of 6,268 maunds and 7,760 maunds in those of Indian twist and yarn. The supply of European twist and yarn sent to Balasore from Calcutta was 45,708 maunds, against 37,632 maunds in 1887-88.

5. Cotton piece-goods.—The trade in European cotton piece-goods showed a decrease of Rs. 5,02,783 in value as compared with 1887-88, and of Rs. 1,61,291 as compared with 1886-87. Last year the supply of Indian piece-goods was trifling. The total value of piece-goods sent to Balasore was Rs. 11,54,542, against Rs. 16,74,985 in 1887-88, and Rs. 13,21,573 in 1886-87.

6. Gunnies.—The falling off under this head amounted to 37·03 per cent. on the returns of 1887-88, and to 33·27 per cent. on those of 1886-87. The decrease is the direct result of the contraction of the rice trade during the year.

7. Metals.—The decrease noticed in the last report was further extended during 1888-89, when the total weight amounted to only 9,287 maunds, against 18,282 maunds in 1887-88, and 31,962 maunds in 1886-87. The falling off is the result of the completion of the coast canal work.

8. Oils.—The trade in oils showed a heavy decrease, the total quantity imported being 9,510 maunds less than in the previous year, and 50,393 maunds less than in 1886-87.

9. Ghee.—The total imports of ghee amounted to 366 maunds, which showed a decrease of 1,108 maunds and 864 maunds on the figures for 1887-88 and 1886-87, respectively.

10. Spices, betelnuts, and tobacco.—The traffic in spices was almost the same as in the previous year, but it was still below the figures for 1886-87 by 13,424 maunds. In betelnuts, however, there was an increase from 55,118 maunds in 1887-88 to 62,021 maunds in 1888-89. There was no trade whatever in tobacco by sea during the year, the traffic having probably been diverted to the canal route.

11. Salt.—The total quantity imported showed an increase of 27,906 maunds in comparison with 1887-88, and of 43,357 maunds as compared with 1886 87.

12. Treasure.—There has been little or no improvement under this head during the past two years.

The decrease in the exports of rice aggregated 3,58,815 maunds, or 24·12 per cent., as compared with 1887-88, and 3,80,448 maunds, or 25·21 per cent., as compared with 1886-87. The exports of paddy as compared with 1887-88 showed a reduction of 61,891 maunds, or 68·95 per cent., but in comparison with 1886-87 the falling off amounted to 1,57,194 maunds, or 84·91 per cent. The Collector of Balasore writes:—

"The exports of paddy and rice fell short owing to the poor harvest of the year, hence the decrease in both foreign and coasting trade taken together. The following comparative statement of the past two years shows that there was an increase in the export of food-grain to home ports alone:—

	Home Ports.		Foreign Ports.		Total.

Regarding the increase in Cuttack, it is stated that owing to the high prices which ruled at the coast ports, larger shipments were made to Allify, Cochin, and Tellicherry during the year under report than in the year preceding. The cause of the falling off in Pooree has already been explained. The destination of the exports, port by port, during the past three years, is shown in the subjoined statement:—

15. Hides.—The hide trade fell off by 58,350 pieces in comparison with 1887-88, but it exceeded the figures for 1886-87 by 16,083 pieces. The decrease is attributed to the very large exportation of previous years which left a large balance in the Calcutta market.

16. Lac.—The trade in lac was almost on a level with that of 1886-87; but compared with 1887-88, it showed a decrease of 31·86 per cent.

17. Oilseeds.—The trade in oilseeds recovered to some extent, but the figures were still much below those of 1886-87, as will be seen from the statement annexed to this paragraph. With the coast canal now open, the sea-borne trade in this article, as well as in others, must suffer from competition.

18. Timber.—The exports of timber rose from 7,786 maunds in 1886-87, and 10,282 maunds in 1887-88, to 18,099 maunds in 1888-89. This article of trade consists for the most part of sleepers for railway purposes.

19. Silver.—Under this head a decrease of 8·73 per cent. is shown in the returns of 1888-89 in comparison with those of the previous year, but the figures showed an advance of 2·43 per cent. on the returns of 1886-87.
